

ETRURIA REACHES PORT

Disabled Passenger Steamer Was Towed to the Azores.

PROPELLER AND RUDDER BROKEN

She Will Await the Arrival of the Elbe to Carry Passengers to England—They Were Not Alarmed at Accident.

Horta, Azores, March 10.—The Etruria anchored here at 6 o'clock last evening. All on board are well. She had a comparatively uneventful passage except for the breakdown, which occurred during the dinner hour of February 26. When this occurred the Etruria had only just finished speaking by wireless telegraphy with the Cunard line steamship Umbria. After the accident was discovered the Etruria called the Umbria wirelessly for one hour, but without success.

Upon examination it was found that the ship's propeller had broken off outside the tube, and that the rudder had been carried away by the propeller. The Etruria then sent up rockets, which were seen by the British steamer William Cliff. The latter bore down and was alongside in 50 minutes after the accident. She stood by until daylight, when, after several attempts, she succeeded in passing a hawser aboard the Etruria. The tank steamer Ottawa arrived on the scene at this time. The William Cliff then attempted to tow the Etruria, while the Ottawa attempted to steer her. The hawser, however, snapped. The Ottawa stood by for two days and then left for Fayal, bearing the second officer of the Etruria, to report the disaster and obtain assistance.

In the meanwhile the crew of the Etruria had made every effort to rig a jury rudder. The first such rudder was carried away immediately an attempt was made to use it. After further efforts lasting for two days a second rudder was successfully adjusted and is still in position.

The passengers of the Etruria were satisfied that they were in no danger, and they praise the conduct of the captain and crew of the vessel. After the accident the passengers amused themselves with the usual deck sports, and concerts were held in the first and second cabins. Only those who were anxious concerning business matters chafed at the unavoidable delay. The Etruria will wait here for the arrival of the Royal Mail steamer Elbe, which left Southampton for Horta Saturday. The Elbe will carry the Etruria's passengers to England. The Etruria will then be towed home by the tugs which are now on their way out from Liverpool for this purpose.

AFTER TRENTON'S EX-MAYOR

Police Chiefs Between Philadelphia and Canada Watching For Him.

Philadelphia, March 8.—All police chiefs along the railroads between Philadelphia and the Canadian border were requested yesterday by Chief of Detectives Miller to recapture Frank A. Magowan, the former mayor of Trenton, N. J., who managed to obtain his release at Trenton Thursday and escape after he had been arrested and held to await requisition papers from this city.

If Magowan reaches the other side of the border he is safe, as the Dominion's authorities already have refused to send him back on the charges made against him. He had been arrested at Trenton on an indictment against him here based on the accusation of three citizens that Magowan had defrauded them to the extent of $14,000.

White Caps Warn Pastor.

Tamaqua, Pa., March 10.—When the Rev. Laros, pastor of Emanuel Church, at Lansford, opened his front door yesterday morning he found a folded piece of paper lying on the sill. Upon opening it he saw sketched upon the top of the sheet a skull and crossbones, while on the sides were these words: "Beware, Brother Laros, your time will come next. White Cap Committee." Below these words were sketches of a revolver, a dagger, a blackjack and a bottle marked gin. The Rev. Mr. Laros, who has been located at Laros for more than two years, is a leader of all crusades against vice. He was the instigator of the movement which succeeded in suppressing boxing contests in that town, and is now the leader of the movement against the selling of liquors at Summit Hill and Lansford on Sunday, and personally delivered notices to the dealers.

Exciting Blaze in Boarding House.

Chicago, March 10.—Dazed and half-suffocated by smoke, which filled his room, Rudolph Engelcke, a jeweler, rushed through a sheet of flame yesterday and threw himself from a three-story window of a boarding house. On the pavement below a number of firemen were holding a net. The man, his clothes ablaze, whirled in the air as he shot toward the ground, then struck on one side of the net and bounded to the stone walk. He sustained internal injuries, a fractured wrist and was severely burned about the head and body. Twelve other occupants of the building had narrow escapes from death.

York, Pa., March 7.—At yesterday's session of the Pennsylvania Conference of the United Brethren Church Bishop Mills cautioned the ministry not to officiate at weddings where either party had been divorced, except where infidelity was the cause of separation. FIFTEEN DEAD IN TEXAS WRECK

Train On Southern Pacific Was Derailed and Burned.

San Antonio, Tex., March 7.—A broken rail caused a frightful wreck on the Southern Pacific Railroad, near Maxon station, 25 miles west of Sanderson, yesterday morning. From the latest accounts received here 15 people were killed outright and 28 were more or less injured. Among the injured is Mrs. Mitchell, of Philadelphia, who is hurt internally.

The ill-fated train left San Antonio at noon Thursday, and at the time of the accident was running at a high rate of speed in order to make up time. The road at the point where the wreck occurred is in a rough country, the curves being sharp and the grades heavy. It was when rounding a curve that the train left the track, it is said, on account of a broken rail. All the passengers were asleep, and the shock that followed was the first intimation they had of the danger. The train was going at such a rate of speed that the tender and engine landed 75 feet from where they left the rails. The cars behind piled up against the engine, causing a fire, and all were consumed except the sleepers.

A private car owned by Thomas Ryan, of New York city, whose family was aboard, was attached to the rear of the train, but it was pulled away before the fire reached it, and no one in it was injured. All the killed in the coaches just behind the express and baggage cars were cremated. The people in the sleepers were saved with the assistance of the uninjured passengers.

As soon as it was possible to get in communication with the division headquarters, relief trains with surgeons and physicians were started from El Paso, Del Rio and Sanderson, picking up along the line all the surgeons that could be found. All the injured who were in a condition to be moved were sent to El Paso, where they are receiving careful attention.

BURIED BY STRANGERS

Woman Who Had Bank Account Died Without Telling of Friends.

Trenton, N. J., March 10.—Sarah Curran, who left a bank account in a Philadelphia bank, was buried here today at the expense of comparative strangers, because her folks cannot be located and it is not definitely known in which bank the money is deposited. She was employed at the Hotel Hanover, and from the time of becoming ill she was unconscious and unable to tell anything about herself. All that is known about her is that she has a friend somewhere in Philadelphia who has her bank book. She was a middle-aged woman. Her fellow employes and her employer arranged for her burial in Greenwood Cemetery.

Paid $500,000 For Rare Porcelain.

New York, March 10.—At a price said to have been $500,000, J. Pierpont Morgan has purchased the great Garland collection of porcelains, and they are to remain in this country. For years the Garland collection has been one of the most notable art treasures in the Metropolitan Museum of Art. By connoisseurs it is regarded as possibly the finest in the world. There are many single pieces which would easily bring $50,000 as a first bid. One in particular is the "red hawthorn" vase. It is jet black, with enameled peach blossoms scattered upon it. There is nothing else like it in the world, connoisseurs say.

"Dry" Sunday in New York.

New York, March 10.—Despite the alleged promises of the saloonkeepers that yesterday should be the very driest Sunday on record so far as New York was concerned, the man or woman who wished had little or no trouble in purchasing drinks. About the only noticeable difference in getting one was that the thirsty man was not allowed to stand at the bar and in many instances he was forced to sit down to the "property" sandwich, left over from earlier days of the Raines law reign.

Short Talks On Advertising

By Charles Austin Bates.

No. 36.

The man who starts out to advertise with a set of cast iron rules has not much chance for success. If he says at the beginning of the year: "I am going to spend just $1,000 this year for advertising and not a cent more," he is making a great mistake.

It is all right to fix in your mind in a general way the amount you expect to spend, but to have a fixed advertising appropriation and to decline good advertising when you need it, simply because "the appropriation is exhausted," is a very poor business policy.

The amount of advertising necessary depends on the amount of business that it is necessary for you to do. It depends on the conditions of trade, and, to a certain extent, on the weather.

Sometimes $10 worth of advertising will sell $1,000 worth of goods, and sometimes it will take $50 or $100 worth of advertising to do it.

Advertising is business medicine, and should be taken in such quantities and at such times as it is needed.

A man doesn't decide at the beginning of the year just exactly what he is going to spend for drug bills and doctors' bills. If he did he would wake up some morning toward the end of the year and find himself very dead.

Business and advertising are just like the man and his medicine.

ALL CASES OF DEAFNESS OR HARD HEARING ARE NOW CURABLE by our new invention. Only those born deaf are incurable. HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY. F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS:

Baltimore, Md., March 20, 1907.
Gentlemen:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion.
About five years ago my right ear began to sting, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely.
I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only one operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would not cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever.
I then saw your advertisement accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and today, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain
Very truly yours,
F. A. WERMAN, 2206 Broadway, Baltimore, Md.

Our treatment does not interfere with your usual occupation. Examination and advice free. YOU CAN CURE YOURSELF AT HOME at a nominal cost. INTERNATIONAL AURAL CLINIC, 596 LA SALLE AVE., CHICAGO, ILL.
