—M. A. Scureman, the Penn Mutual representative, was at the county seat Tuesday delivering policies and taking new orders. The best friend to a man is a life insurance policy. It not only protects his family but he can sell, or borrow money and draw a good interest on the investment of a Penn Mutual policy, and Mark is well equipped to inform you fully on these matters in detail.

Hillsgrove.

A Boer war has started here. V. Hull and Reno Green narrowly escaped being shot by an angry Dutchman Saturday night. The offender quietly appeared before Squire Speaker. We need about 50 more foreigners to make things lively.

A. J. Brong has departed for Williamsport.

Mrs. James Little spent several days on Bear Mountain last week.

What will Lester do?

Raymond Barrett has returned from Tioga county where he has been working in a tannery.

A. A. Ludy has a small army of men on the road.

Even the 12 year old chaps can beat the time of the older ones with those sweet "frank" girls.

Ed. Lucas is the new clerk in V. Hull's store.

Mrs. Lucy Green received a telegram from Galeton, Pa., Friday, stating that her brother Stephen Eggler was dead.

Prof. J. I. Snyder closed school Tuesday. He has taught a very successful term and the directors would profit by electing him for a second term.

Mrs. Margaret Lewis, who has been confined to her home with a severe cold, is again able to be out.

The night-cap social at Mr. Harrison's home was a grand success. The celebration was in honor of "Dad's" twentieth year on the road.

"Doe" Hoffman had his finger smashed in his safe. It's not a very safe safe.

M. W. Lewis and family called at the Elk Creek Hotel Sunday.

Mrs. Vroman, who has been at Forks since she returned home.

Misses Clara Newcomer and Esther Biddle are prominent among the new arrivals.

Easter services were largely attended at the M. E. Church.

The schools of Shrewsbury town ship closed with a farewell institute at the Mt. Vernon M. E. church, on Saturday evening, Mar. 29, 1902.

The room was crowded by a large and appreciative audience, and the following program was well rendered:

Greeting song.—Choir.

Recitations by Raymond Worthington, Ada Worthington and Edith Degen.

Reading contest by 3rd reader class, conducted by Prof. M. R. Black.

The class was complimented by the judges who awarded first honors to Raymond Degan of Rock Run, and second honors to Alvin Worthington of the Victor school.

Recitation by Mary Meyers.

Miss Orilla Neuffer, teacher of Bunker Hill school, was obliged to be absent, but sent a very interesting paper on Schoolroom Decoration, which was highly appreciated.

Cricket Song.—Choir.

Recitations by Alvin Worthington and Josie Craft.

Miss Anna Karge read a carefully prepared paper on Memory work.

A contest in rapid addition, conducted by Anna Karge, teacher of the Victor school, in which honors were awarded to Miss Ida Meyers and Raymond Worthington.

The audience then joined in singing America.

Flag drill by Victor School.

Recitation by Lulu Worthington.

Debate.—Resolved that Art is more wonderful than Nature. The affirmative was discussed by H. H. Green, and the negative by C. C. Craft. This debate was a plant of spontaneous growth. Neither of the participants having considered the question. The arguments on both sides were presented in a witty manner, which captivated the audience. The judges after careful deliberation, decided in favor of the negative.

The graduating class of the Victor school conducted a short but appropriate exercise which was greeted with thunderous applause. They responded with a unique but very graceful salute.

Prof. M. R. Black was then introduced and ably discussed the co-operation of patrons and teachers.

In a few well selected words, C. C. Craft thanked the audience for their kind and undivided attention, after which a vote of thanks was extended to Prof. M. R. Black for his masterly address, to the trustees of the church for the use of the building, and to all persons contributing to the success of the institute.

The choir then rendered a beautiful selection entitled "Good Night," after which the institute adjourned to meet again Sept. 27, 1902.

DUSHORE ITEMS.

The man with the hoe is in evidence.

The click of the lawn mower will soon be heard.

So far as we have learned the following removals have taken place or are now in progress: Prof. J. H. Thayer moves from Deegan house on Beech street to Hayman house on Turnpike, Geo. W. Hayman moves to Standing Stone, R. H. Hoag from Pflaum house on Railroad street to Deegan house on Beech street, A. D. Hoag from house owned by Henry Obert on Headley Ave., to Wells house opposite G. T. Deegan's, A. A. Weed from same house to Beach house on Carpenter street, Morris Leverton from W. J. Lawrence's house on Laurel street to house vacated by Hoag and weed, W. J. Lawrence from Bakery building to his house on Laurel street, Dennis O'Brien moves to Philadelphia, Chas. T. Lawrence expects soon to move to Punxsatawny, Pa., and Otto Fulmer will move from the Hunsinger house on the hill to Mr. Lawrence's house, C. J. Coolbaugh moves from the Kisser house on Carpenter st., to Robt. McGee's house on German St., D. E. Deiffenbach from his farm just East of town to the Kisser house, F. J. Glover from the McGee house to same house with Mr. Diefenbach, Mrs. Hannah Farrell from the Jayne house on Laurel St., to John Vaughn's house, Ira Cott from the Burk house on German St., to the Jayne house which he recently purchased, Chas. Zupran from Heacock house on cherry St., to the Burk house; further list of removals will be given next week.

Owing to the usual Easter vacation in the various schools and colleges, the following students have been spending a few days with their parents here: Miss Hattie Scouten of Kingston Seminary, Walter J. Hunsinger of Muhlenburg College, Misses Elsie Lawrence and Mary Hoffa of Bloomsburg State Normal School.

Guy Rogers who is attending the Kingston Seminary, passed through town a few days ago on his way to Forks, to spend Easter with his parents.

It is with regret that we learn that Geo. W. Hayman and Chas. T. Lawrence with their families are to leave our midst. Both Mr. Lawrence and Mr. Hayman have been numbered among our most influential business men for many years, and we trust they will prosper in their new vocations. They, and the other members of their families will be greatly missed here. Mr. Hayman moves to his farm at Standing Stone, where he will engage principally in the culture of fruits, while Mr. Lawrence expects to move in two or three weeks to Punxsatawny, Jefferson county, where he will follow his occupation as a builder, and has a number of contracts on hand.

It seems that the building boom will not strike Dushore this season, yet a number of our townsmen are improving and beautifying their homes.

John Biddle of Millville, visited his parents and called on old friends in town last week.

Frank Cole of Greenville, Mercer county, is spending several weeks with his parents here.

Adam Morey, contemplates moving from Ricketts to Dushore.

John Sidler, formerly of this place who has been located at Colfax, Wash., for the past eighteen years, has been renewing old acquaintances here for the past few days, and expects to spend a few months in this section. John's many friends here will be glad to learn that he has prospered nicely in the far west and is able to enjoy a few months leisure when he desires.

Dubs Stover, who has been absent several months undergoing a musical training, has returned to his old position as clerk in M. Leverton's clothing store, for the summer.

The advent of a baby girl in the home of F. O. Fulmer, on Easter morning, accounts for that broad smile which Otto is wearing. It is the first-born.

D. E. Deiffenbach has purchased the Chas. Kisser residence on Carpenter St., which is one of the finest in town.

Hon. J. D. Reeser and wife, and J. S. Hoffa are in New York this week, buying their spring and summer goods.

The ball given by the Knights of Macabees on Tuesday evening was very largely attended. It was one of the finest events of the kind ever given at this place. Luft's orchestra of Wilkesbarre, furnished the music.

Chronic Bronchitis Cured.

"For ten years I had chronic bronchitis so bad that at times I could not speak above a whisper," writes Mr. Joseph Cauffman, of Montmorenci, Ind. "I tried all remedies available, but with no success. Fortunately my employer suggested that I try Foley's Honey and Tar. Its effect was almost miraculous, and I am now cured of the disease. On my recommendation many people have used Foley's Honey and Tar, and always with satisfaction." For sale by C. D. Voorhees, Sonestown; Jas McFarlane, Laporte.

New York, March 29.—Voting machines may be used at future elections in New York city. The question of adopting the machines was discussed at length at a meeting of the board of election commissioners yesterday, and it was announced afterward that the president of the board, who has hitherto stood alone in opposition, had given his consent. It will cost the city about $600,000 to install the machines.

Sultan's Brother Dead. London, March 31.—A report has reached here from Constantinople, cables the Vienna correspondent of the Daily Mail, that Mohammed Rechad, the sultan's brother, and heir presumptive successor, is dead. The report says foul play is suspected.

A Chattanooga Druggist's Statement. Robt. J. Miller, proprietor of the Head House Drug Store of Chattanooga, Tenn., writes: "There is more merit in Foley's Honey and Tar than in any other cough syrup. The call for it multiply wonderfully and we sell more of it than all other cough syrups combined. For sale by C. D. Voorhees, Sonestown; James Macfarlane, Laporte, Pa.
