Used Wooden Arm For a Bank. New Brunswick, N. J., April 28.—A Swede named Peter Barras, captain Swede named Peter Barras, captain of a canal boat, who had lost one arm, was drowned several days ago in the canal near this city. He was said to have relatives in this part of the state, but they could not be located. and the body was turned over to Un and the body was turned over to Undertaker McDede for burial. On removing the wooden arm of Barras the undertaker found that the interior was hollow and stuffed with greenbacks. Ten $10 bills and five $5 bills were found. The burial expenses were deducted, on instructions from the county collector, and the collector took charge of the balance, pending a claim from relatives of the dead nackensack, N. J., April 26.—The arrest of Charles McDevitt, of Baltimore, and Joseph Bateman, of New York, two pugilists, by Prosecutor Koester, has brought to light the facts of the desecration of a Congregational church at Lyndhurst, near here. On April 14 a crowd of 150 sports from New York, Brooklyn, Newark and Jersey City congregated at Lyndhurst, broke into the Congregational church there, and converted the place of wor there, and converted the place of wor-ship into a beer garden and prize fight-ing ring. The principals in the fight were McDevitt and Bateman. The go was for $100 a side and a knockout McDevitt quit in the fourth round.

The sacrilegious invasion of the church was discovered the next day, but the police kept the matter quiet until the arrests were made. Be the fighters, the officials of the go also placed under arrest. Yesterday the pugilists were held in $1,000 bail each and the officials in $500 each.

Short Talks On Advertising By Charles Austin Bates.

No. 43.

·Farming is generally looked upon as a very simple occupation. A farmer is considered an independent individual, because his business is safe and pleasant. Probably the most enviable feature is its safety. Farmers are nearly sure of making something. They make more some years than others, but on the whole it is a safe business. Just the same, we hear of farmers failing and of the foreclosure of farm mortgages. This is because the farmer didn't attend to his business properly.

Advertising is just as safe, and a great deal more profitable, than farming, but there are people who fail at it.

A farmer has first to look for a rich and fertile field—so has the advertiser.

ALL CASES OF

DEAFNESS OR HARD HEARING ARE NOW CURABLE

by our new invention. Only those born deaf are incurable.

HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY.

F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS:

BALTIMORE, Md., March 30, 1901.

Gentlemen: — Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion.

About five years ago my right ear began to sing, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely.

I underwent a treatment letter, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then ease, but the hearing in the affected car would be lost forever.

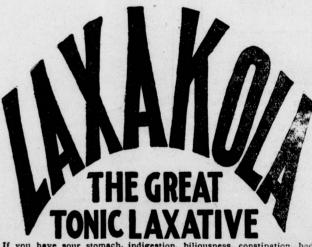

I then saw your advertisement accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and to-day, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased car has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain Very truly yours.

F. A. WERMAN, 730 S. Broadway, Baltimore, Md.

Our treatment does not interfere with your usual occupation.
