

Your Life is Insured of Course

Or if not you are expecting to get it insured. In that case one of the questions you are trying to solve is: Where shall I insure? Which is the best company? These are perplexing questions, and perhaps the more you read and hear the differing claims of different companies and their agents, the more bewildered and uncertain you become. Now, in a matter in which you may have little knowledge or experience, why not accept the knowledge and experience of your friends and neighbors who have a great deal of both? Here, as elsewhere, experience is the best teacher and the surest guide.

A postal card addressed to the District Agent of

COUNTIES GETTING INTO LINE

Three Aspirants Are Now in the Field For Second Place on the Ticket and Each of Them is Quite Hopeful.

(Special Correspondence.)

Philadelphia, May 20. — These are busy times with the active Republican workers throughout the state.

Primary elections are being held for the selection of delegates to the Republican state convention and a most aggressive canvass for the nominations to be made at Harrisburg on June 11th next is attracting widespread attention.

The three leading candidates for the governorship, Attorney General John P. Elkin, former Lieutenant Governor L. A. Watres and Judge Samuel W. Pennypacker, each has a host of friends at work and most strenuous campaigning is being resorted to in the struggle for delegates.

Up to date it is "any man's race," but developments within the next ten days may alter the conditions and give an opportunity to make a fairly reliable prediction as to the probable winner.

ELKIN PUSHING AHEAD.

Mr. Elkin's friends have reason to be pleased with the headway he has made during the last week. In a contest before the people with the name of each candidate, Elkin and Watres, printed on the ballot, he defeated Mr. Watres in the Northumberland county primaries by an overwhelming majority. The Elkin men were on the aggressive from the outset and planned their campaign carefully and thoroughly. Mr. Elkin visited the county and made an address to the voters. When it became manifest that the Elkin men were going to win Mr. Watres concluded not to make a speech in that county, although he may accept invitations to go elsewhere before all the delegate elections shall be held.

There was a hotly contested struggle in Schuylkill county in which Mr. Elkin's friends claim to have won five out of the eight delegates. Their opponents will not concede more than four to Elkin. In Dauphin county the Elkinites will get six of the seven delegates. They also got three in Armstrong and one in Forest.

The return judges in Mercer county held a meeting during the week and adopted resolutions instructing the three delegates to the state convention from that county to vote for Mr. Elkin. The county convention had previously simply endorsed Mr. Elkin's candidacy, without "instructing" the delegates.

WORKING FOR PENNYPACKER.

Members of the bar and other admirers of Judge Pennypacker have taken hold of his campaign in Philadelphia and are flooding the state with literature sounding his praises and urging his nomination for governor. A public meeting of leading citizens of the Quaker City is booked for this week and strong resolutions commending his candidacy have been prepared and will no doubt be adopted. Judge Pennypacker is generally respected by his fellow citizens of Philadelphia, regardless of their political affiliations. He is looked upon as a most excellent judge and a brainy man. He has certainly reason to feel proud of the endorsements he has received from representative and influential citizens of his home county. A committee, which has charge of the campaign in his behalf, will canvass every county in the state in his interest before the state convention shall be held.

Mr. Watres bagged another delegate last week, when the county committee of Monroe county met and elected one of his supporters as state delegate. Friends of Elkin in Monroe attempted to have a resolution adopted instructing this delegate to vote for the Indiana county candidate, but the resolution was defeated. In Crawford county the supporters of Dr. Flood, who aspires to the lieutenant governorship, won the delegates to the state convention without opposition. The county committee had previously met and adopted resolutions giving Dr. Flood the privilege of naming his own candidates for state delegates. Dr. Flood will make a canvass among the delegates from the western counties with a view to having their united support in his candidacy for second place on the ticket. He will be confronted by the admirers of former Senator William M. Brown, of Lawrence, who is also after the backing of the western delegates for the lieutenant governorship.

While these two aspirants for Lieutenant Governor Goblin's shoes are working the west, a new candidate has been trotted out in the east. Mayor Lewis, of Allentown, with the Lehigh delegation at his back, now wants to be lieutenant governor. His home county newspapers have begun to boom him and some of his admirers have made a pilgrimage to Harrisburg to confer with party leaders there in his interest.

There will be strong delegations of citizens from different parts of Lehigh county, as well as Flood shouters from Crawford, and Brown boomers from Lawrence, to work up interest in the lieutenant governorship fight in the convention throngs at Harrisburg.

Major Brown, of Erie, who aspires to the office of secretary of internal affairs, starts out with his home county delegation solidly for him and he has a number of other delegations committed to him. General Schall was endorsed for this honor by the Montgomery delegation, which also went on record in favor of Judge Pennypacker for governor. It is apparently too soon to venture a prediction as to the likely winner for this office.

This ISN'T A Common Country Store:

THE SORT YOUR MIND LEADS YOU TO THINK of as usually in the smallest towns. Our hobby has always been to bring you goods that you would naturally find only in the better city stores. We hear the expression often, "Why, I didn't know that you kept goods of this character, here." If our people will only give us a chance to show our wares, instead of taking it for granted that it cannot be furnished in towns, it's all that we will ask. Come in and see the great display of summer dress goods, all shades, fancy and plain. It will do you good to see such an assortment.

The Swiss silk goods are beautiful to see; the shirt waists are handsome. A new lot just received, they are beautiful, arranging in price 50c to $2.50. The gentlemen are delighted with their shirt waists, such pretty colors. Fancy. Pleasing to the eye. The millinery is the finest in Sullivan county. The pattern hats are arriving every day and are meeting a great demand; arranging from $2 to $10. We lead, others follow. The latest books, for the SWEET GIRL GRADUATES, $2.00; a very desirable gift for graduates. Come in and look our assortment over; you will find it superior to any in Sullivan county. Know you will be delighted and feel as free as if you were at your own home at

WANTS THE NEWS ITEM TO ISSUE A MILLION COPIES

The Herald Representative is Wanted to Appear in Eagles Merc Where Punishment Awaits Him.

(Special to the News Item.)

What a blessed thing it is that we are incorporated as a Borough! Just to think that if we were not thus protected we would be living in Shrewsbury Township which the Herald reporter says is inhabited in its primeval forests with deer, black bears, catamounts, foxes and all sorts of game. We have been hearing strange noises of nights lately, and wondered what could be the cause. Now we know that it is the growling of the bears, the howling of the catamounts and all the rest of them when they get to the Borough line and dare not come any farther. All the citizens are grateful for the warning, and Mr. Kehrer will order a car load of Winchester, Krag-Jornsen, Maxims and other firearms, and another car load of ammunition and fixin's generally, more particularly the fixin's.

A special meeting of the Borough Council will be held and an ordinance passed to have the Light Company extend its wires all around on the Borough line and a lamp will be fixed on each pole as these wild creatures are afraid of light and will retreat from it at once. Your correspondent will not go out after dark without a young man and a gun—especially the gun, although it is a great satisfaction to have a young man always.

The Herald man says the water from Hunters Lake is carried down a pipe four miles to the electric plant with a fall of 940 feet to the mill; we submitted this problem to the professor of Mathematics at our University, and he says there must be something wrong somewhere as that would make Hunters Lake about 5000 feet above tide and he has not heard that the tide has got into a hole or anything of that sort. He wonders if the trouble in Martiniac can have had anything to do with disturbing the bottom of the ocean.

After we left the Professor we learned where the trouble is. It seems that the correspondent got the figures misplaced and intended to say that "the aged and patriarchal Treasurer of the Light Co., Mr. Benjamin G. Welch is 940 years old," and in this the reporter is probably correct, as he has been old ever since we knew him. So it is all right now.

We have heard that one of the catamounts over in Shrewsbury has started for the Herald office to find that correspondent for giving them away and starting out the hunters after them. We are in sad distress as to what may happen as we think the writer is probably a young man—a nice young man, with his hair parted in the middle and such a bewitching mustache, and we are so very short of such comforts in our village. Won't the office please send him to our place where he can be cared for.

The Item ought to issue about a million copies of this communication so that all the intending summer visitors may get one and feel assured that they will be entirely safe here if they do not go outside the Borough after dark without the Herald young man or some other one equally desirable.

If a million copies is too much for the Item, then at least three or four should be sent to each hotel that they may have them distributed with their booklets.

It is really surprising how unreasonable some people are—the railroad company is running a passenger train every day with a real passenger car. Some one was mean enough to say that it is disreputable looking both inside and out, and that the company uses it for passengers, baggage, express and everything else including emigrants, somewhat odoriferous, and all such things as that, but it is to be hoped that the company will not mind such an unreasonable set of people. Why a party of early visitors the other day actually hired George Montgomery to take them down the mountain in his stage rather than ride in a real passenger car, the idea!

and in a hurry. Mr. Frank Herdie is here with his corps of Italians, and the mains will go down before you can imagine he has begun. The prophets of delay will hide their diminished heads and adjourn into the back lot immediately.

We hear that the drug store has been purchased by Druggist Miller, of Hughesville, who is always successful and popular. He will have an establishment that we shall have reason to be proud of. It is said that it is to be located conveniently near the factory where they make headaches, megrims, gout, blue devils and all such things, so he is sure of a large and profitable trade.

Professor Bogart, the Tonsorial Artist, is on hand for the season, smiling of course as he always does.

Memorial Services will be held at Forksville, in charge of the G. A. R. usual services, at 1:30 p. m. Arrangements have been made for decorating at the different cemeteries. Benjamin G. Welch will deliver the address, assisted by Rev. Smith. All are requested to unite with us in honoring our fallen heroes. Comrades will be prompt in assembling.

JOHN W. ROGERS, Com. FRANK HANSON, Adjt.

A social will be held at the home of Miss Fannie Meyert, Friday evening, May 23. All are cordially invited. A pleasing entertainment will be provided. Ice cream will be served at the usual prices. Proceeds for benefit of Baptist Church.
