The Superior Court has overrul- ed Judge Mitchel on a point of ma- ateriality in the case of Common- wealth vs. John G. Scouten, and the case will have to be tried again. It will be remembered that Judge Mitchell granted a new trial to the defendant after he had been con- victed of criminal libel in a trial before Judge Metzger. It will probably come up again at Septem- ber sessions. There will be services in St. Johns Episcopal Church, Laporte, on Sunday July 20th at 11 a. m.	of Mrs. John Converse on Sunday. John O. Wilson, who has been ill for some time, died Monday morn- ing at 3 o'clock. This makes six deaths in this immediate neighbor- hood, including Ralph Magargel, within four weeks. Mrs. P. E. Magargel and her son- in-law Chas. Starr returned last week from Philadelphia where they had been called by the illness of Ralph, who was suffering with small pox. He died before they reached the city, and owing to the infectious na- ture of the disease they were not per- mitted to bring the body home, nor to expose themselves. It is a most sad affliction.
