STATE TICKET.

For Governor, S. W. PENNYPACKER, of Philadelphia. Lieutenant Governor, WM. K. BROWN, of Lawrence.

COUNTY TICKET.

Congress, (two term.) FRED A. GODCHARLES, of Milton. (unexpired term.) W. K. LORD, of Mt. Carmel.

The gentlemen whose names appear on the Republican ticket are all men of responsibility who can be relied on for the proper administration of the duties to which they aspire.

A. L. Dyer, candidate for Member, is one of the prominent men of Lopez who he conducts a meat market and livery business which has an extensive patronage.

Ulysses Bird, candidate for Treasurer, is a prosperous farmer of Elkland. He is a scholar as well as a land surveyor and enjoys the confidence and esteem of all who have the pleasure of his acquaintance.

W. L. Hoffman, a prominent merchant of Hillsgrove, the candidate for Commissioner, is a man of marked ability and will be a valuable officer for this very important place.

G. W. Biggers, candidate for Commissioner conducts a blacksmithing business at Muncy Valley, and is well able to discharge the duties that would come before him.

A. P. Starr, candidate for Auditor, is manager of W. L. Hoffman's general store at Muncy Valley. He has filled the office with much credit to himself and his reelection is assured.

W. H. Fanning is postmaster at Shunk and conducts a grocery store. He elected will fill the office with credit and satisfaction.

Hon. F. A. Godcharles, candidate for Congress, can be no better introduced to the people of Sullivan county than to quote what his home papers say of him. The Shamokin News says: "In Godcharles the Republicans have a candidate worthy of election. He is a bright, brilliant business man and has the gift of oratory necessary to a representative."

Mr. Godcharles has been tried in the legislature and proved that he was a friend of the workingman. His opponent is a foe of the laboring classes and the voters of the district know this.

The Miltonian says: "The college student can vote for him because he is a scholar and a graduate. The soldiers of recent wars can vote for him because he enlisted for the Spanish war. The veterans of 1860 can vote for him because his father is a survivor and was a good soldier."

The employer of labor can vote for him because he is one of them. The laborer can vote for him because he washes the grime of the factory from his person each day, and thus knowing their wants can legislate for their interests.

The young men of the district can vote for him and thus open up an avenue to lead themselves to place. The old can vote for him because he is a ready debator, a conservative business man—and a man without a harmful habit. Everybody can vote for him, and should, because he would be a credit to the district and an honor to the House.

Responsibilities of Possession. With possession comes responsibility. Ability and responsibility are inseparable neighbors.

Our rich men give largely in proportion to their wealth. The poor make sacrifices to give to the church. There is nothing of sacrifice in the gifts of the rich. They forget their wealth is God's and that they are but the stewards of his bounty.

When they give in proportion to their wealth as the poor give in proportion to their possessions, every treasury of the Lord will be full, and all over the world there will be somewhat of a foretaste of heaven in the palaces of the rich and the hovels of the poor.—Rev. Dr. MacArthur, Baptist, New York.

Sacrificence of All Callings. The man who sees clearly that he was born for a commercial life and devotes himself to business, the man who makes the law his life work or medicine or teaching or agriculture or carpentering, is under as holy an obligation as I am to make his calling a ministry of sacrifice and service.—Rev. Dr. Frank H. Rowley, Baptist, Boston.

PLANS FOR CAMPAIGN

Senator Quay Temporarily An Invalid at the Seashore.

URGED FOR NATIONAL CHAIRMAN

Democratic Newspapers Vainly Trying to Make Votes By Misrepresentation—Republicans Are Presenting a Solid Front to the Enemy.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Philadelphia, Aug. 12.—Contrary to expectation, State Chairman Senator Quay did not take charge of headquarters here in Philadelphia yesterday. He is sitting in a second-story front room of an Atlantic City cottage, with his right foot swathed in bandages and resting on a chair. It will be at least a week or ten days before he will be able to abandon this position.

The senator is suffering from a painful but not serious burn. The whole top of the right foot is blistered and a hole burned into the flesh. He was about to take a foot bath in a smooth porcelain tub with four faucets. In the semi-darkness of the room he turned on the hot water and could not get out of the way of the boiling torrent quick enough.

It was announced several weeks ago that Senator Quay would take charge of Republican state headquarters about September 1. He started for the Maine woods to recuperate and fish, but found the streams swollen and the land marshy. Then he tried to compromise in the Adirondacks, but the raw air threatened a return of his old cough, and he came down to Atlantic and rented a cottage. From here he will take up his residence in Philadelphia till Pennypacker is elected.

An interesting piece of gossip has been floating around Washington the last few days. It is that President Roosevelt is strongly disposed to urge Senator Quay for national chairman. There is a very logical basis for this story, too.

QUAY FOR NATIONAL CHAIRMAN

If President Roosevelt is nominated, and he is certain to be according to the belief of Senator Quay, Senator Hanna will not care to serve as national chairman, although his personal relations with the president are perfectly harmonious and pleasant. Besides, Senator Hanna's health is not good.

The New England contingent want to make Governor William Murray Crane, of Massachusetts, Hanna's successor. The western people are clamoring for Senator Dolliver, of Iowa, a young man like the president himself. The older heads in the party are looking for a man of ideas and experience combined, and they have selected Quay.

Of course it is a long way ahead yet, and a great deal of the talk about a national chairman is largely speculative, but that Senator Quay is being urged for the place by men like Platt and Kean, of New Jersey, contingent always on the dropping out of Hanna, is a fact. Quay's combination with Platt put Roosevelt on the ticket with McKinley. His magnificent management of the first Harrison campaign made him nationally famous, and it is perfectly logical now that he should be urged for national chairman two years hence.

PATTISON ORGANS IN A HOLE.

"The hardest blow that the Democrats have sustained," said a Pittsburg visitor to state headquarters yesterday, "was the action of the Citizens party leaders in Pittsburg in placing the name of Pennypacker and the other state candidates on their ticket. The Democrats in Allegheny county expected to have Pattison endorsed by the Citizens party. This would have been a big card for Pattison all over the state, but the Citizens party leaders, all of whom are Republicans, decided to fall in with all the other Republicans of the state and stand by the colors."

The Democratic newspapers of the state are following out a plan of battle by which they hope to direct attention away from their own demoralized condition. It consists in claiming that the Republican party is still rent by dissensions and that a cut-throat policy is to be pursued by the dissatisfied. This is all bosh! It is a wail of despair!

INDEPENDENTS ALL BACK HOME.

The interview with Ex-Postmaster General Charles Emery Smith published last week in these dispatches settled such rumors. He was one of the most conspicuous Independents in the state. Others like Ex-Governor Hastings, Senator Alex. Stewart, of Franklin; Senator Drury, of Luzerne; Senator Robert W. Edmiston, of Bradford; Senator Hampton W. Rice, of Bucks, are all supporting Pennypacker. And yet they were in the fore-front of Independent battles for years along with Representative Robert K. Young, of Tioga; James Clarence and Elias Abrams, of Philadelphia; all the Allegheny county delegates, and representatives from a score of other counties who are now firmly fastened by loyalty within party lines.

As for the Independent newspapers in the state there is not one that is not supporting the whole Republican ticket. This includes such conspicuous daily journals as the Philadelphia "Press," the Wilkesbarre "Record," the York "Dispatch" and a hundred and more interior daily and weekly journals whose influence has always been felt on which ever side they took their stand.

All talk of Republican dissatisfaction is too puerile to merit consideration. Scars are inevitable in politics. There was never a time when some one did not carry them. There are fewer this year than for eight years past. The leaders who differed with the organization in the last state convention are now foremost in fighting the common enemy.

PLANS FOR THE CAMPAIGN.

Secretary of the State Committee Col. W. R. Andrews is busy on the work of preparing for the campaign tour of Judge Pennypacker and his company of spell-binders. The calls for all over the state for a visit from this distinguished party are growing so numerous that it is going to be quite a job to satisfy everybody. But Col. Andrews is possessed of such ability as a manager that all parties are pretty sure to be satisfied. The attempt will be made to reach every county in the state.

The first great gun of the campaign will be fired at the Academy of Music on or about Sept. 10. Judge Pennypacker will be the star. The make-up of the campaigning party has not yet been completed. The speakers will work in relays or shifts. Some will remain with Judge Pennypacker to the end; others will go out on the road for two or three weeks only.

Among those who will make up the list are Major I. B. Brown, candidate for secretary of internal affairs; ex-Senator W. M. Brown, candidate for lieutenant governor; Senator Penrose, Ex-Postmaster General Charles Emory Smith, Governor W. A. Stone, Congressmen M. E. Olmstead, Thad. Mahan, Irving P. Wanger, John Dalzell, H. H. Bingham, Assistant Attorney General of the U. S. James M. Beck, Attorney General John P. Elkins, Ex-District Attorney George S. Graham of Philadelphia; Hampton M. Carson, Esq. and Jno. P. Kinsey, Esq., city solicitor of Philadelphia; J. Hampton Moore, city treasurer of Philadelphia; Ex-Governor Daniel H. Hastings, Albert Miller, district attorney of Harrisburg, and possibly a number of speakers, members of congress who are now giving the invitation consideration.

Never before in the history of the state committee's work has there been so much interest displayed by county leaders in any campaign as the present. Secretary Andrews thus early in the canvass is fairly swamped with work often remaining at his desk till midnight and double the number of stenographers usually employed at this time are now at work.

PENROSE SAYS IT MEANS VICTORY

Senator Penrose who has been in charge of state headquarters since the first of the month has been compelled to abandon even a semi-weekly visit to the seashore over night, so great have been the number of visitors and demands from correspondents.

Foley's Honey and Tar for children, safe, sure. No opiates. Cures all stomach troubles

"It shows how greatly the people are interested in this year's campaign," said Senator Penrose. "Republican prosperity is not a theory, but an established, self-evident fact, and everybody wants it to continue. It can only be continued by Republican activity, and Republican activity in Pennsylvania this year is going to result in one of the greatest victories the state has ever known."

The calls for literature of all kinds are very numerous. These will be answered, Secretary Andrews says, in a perfectly satisfactory manner. The committee is having a hand-book prepared which will be placed in the possession of every worker, and which will be one of the most comprehensive works of its kind ever published.
