CONTINUED IN NEXT ISSUE, Dated October 9, 1902.

In our issue of Sept. 18th we said: We have been informed by one of the assessors that at the triennial assessment, all the assessors of the county met at Laporte, and at the request of the commissioners, assembled in the Grand Jury room to fix a valuation on the unseated lands. They agreed unanimously to assess the stripped lands at two dollars per acre and the timbered lands at twenty dollars per acre, and reported this agreement to the Commissioners who seemed well satisfied with it. Afterwards the Commissioners reduced the valuation on the timbered lands to twelve dollars per acre.."

Two weeks have passed and this statement has not been contradicted. It is true. Every well informed man knows that the assessors were right and the Commissioners were wrong. Twenty dollars per acre was a low valuation for timber lands.

For sale by C. D. Voorhees, Sonestown and James McFarlane, Laporte. Why is it that rich corporations are thus favored to the injury of small farmers? When the tax payers have the power in their hands, at the next election, they will do well not to elect tools of the Union Tanning Co. to any office. Which is strongest, the Tanning Co. or the people?

"I believe it proper for every one elected to a place of trust to exercise his own ideas of duty after having counciled with all parties interested."—Roger's Convention Speech:

By this are we to understand that on the Franchise bill (which Scouten says was the most villianous legislation ever passed in this country) Mr. Rogers deemed it his duty to consult those interested before casting his vote? What party in interest did he consult after voting for the amendment to kill the bill and what were the arguments used to make him vote against all other amendments and for the bill on final passage?

We ask the voters of Sullivan county whether they propose to elect a man whose record on a corporation bill is, that first he was opposed to it and then leaving the Legislative Hall for a few minutes changed his mind and give his vote along with Corporate interests. If he did this once would be not do it again? Can he be trusted? Let honest Democrats and Republicans answer this by voting for Albert L. Dyer.
