Chas. Herman, a brakeman on the W. & N. B. freight train, met a terrible death Friday night between Sonestown and Muncy Valley. The train on which he was employed broke in two and coming suddenly together threw Mr. Herman beneath the cars. He was standing between two cars when the train broke. His body was horribly mangled, his head being severed from his body. The funeral of the unfortunate young man was held at Hughesville on Sunday.

A special train was run from Satterfield to Hughesville on Sunday for the benefit of those wishing to attend the funeral of Mr. Herman, the unfortunate brakeman. On returning at about 8 p. m., owing to an axle breaking on a freight car attached to the train, the passenger coach was thrown from the track.
The passengers received a severe shaking up and were badly frightened. Among the number was Mrs.
F. M. Crossley of this place, who fainted in the excitement and did not regain consciousness until near midnight after being hurried to her home on the locomotive which left the train and took the passengers aboard the tender. Mrs. Crossley is slowly recovering from the shock which caused a serious action of the heart, extremely alarming to her friends at the time.

Lopez, Pa., Oct. 14, 1905.
Editor News Item.

Dear Sir:—I have been much impressed by the enumeration of two hundred and fifty-five (255) bills upon which Sullivan County's Representative failed to vote. After reading over the whole list carefully, I have asked myself the question, was Sullivan County represented in the last State Legislature? Or are we any better off than we would have been had we sent no one to Harrisburg?

I admit that his failure to vote on so many and important issues have puzzled me. The records show that he was absent from the Capital only one day; he was surely present then.
He was not detained at home because of sickness or other justifiable excuse. He was in Harrisburg. Then why did he not do that for which he was elected? If any of the bills were good, why in the name of all that is reasonable did he not support them? If bad, why did he not place Sullivan County upon record as being opposed to them?

Can it be that he desired to dodge issues which demanded attention at his hand? Can it be that he was influenced to neglect the duties he swore to perform? Can it be that he really did not understand what they were all about and was afraid to go on record either as favoring or opposing them?

Whatever the reason, he cannot be excused. We want no dodger as legislator! We want no man, who under the easily detected disguise of Scouten Reform is present to vote for what his patron, Scouten, calls the most iniquitous piece of legislation ever enacted, but is absent when 255 bills of importance are being legislated upon.

What claim has he for re-election?
He stands condemned by the very man, who, like the weather vane, has now turned and works for his re-election.

His record condemns him. We want as representative a man with enough intelligence to form an opinion and enough back-bone to assert that opinion. We want a REPRESENTATIVE!

In A. L. Dyer we have such a man.
A man of intelligence, courage, and business ability of the highest order.
A man, who, if elected, will go to Harrisburg ready to assist in the conduct of the affairs of State, with the same judgement, integrity and ability which have enabled him to achieve success for himself.

Albert Dyer's word is as good as his bond. His integrity unquestioned, he stands the representative of that push and pluck which has enabled so many young men of Sullivan county to achieve success.

Here's to the success of A. L.
Dyer!

RESULT OF REPUBLICAN RULE

Figures From Official Sources Which Cannot Be Denied—The Corporation Taxes Help Every Township and Village in the State Under the Republican System of Finances.

Harrisburg, Oct. 14.—Here is a statement that is at once startling and striking. It comes from official sources:
"There is not a single county in Pennsylvania which does not get directly back from the state treasury more money than the state collects from all its citizens, excepting so far as some of them may be indirectly taxed as stockholders in banks, railroads and other corporations. The largest excess repaid to the counties goes to the less wealthy ones having the smallest proportion of property subject to state tax in relation to their population."

SOME REPUBLICAN FACTS.

This is a sample of what the Republican party has done and is doing for the people of Pennsylvania. It is only one reason why Judge Pennypacker should be elected and the Democrats defeated, because they left a state debt of $40,000,000 to be paid off by the other fellows.

The following figures are taken from official records here in Harrisburg.
They are given for the purpose of exhibiting more clearly the fact that the people get back more than they pay into the state treasury. How is it done? The corporations pay the taxes.
What the individual citizen pays into the state treasury is for liquor license, mercantile tax, tax on money at interest, etc.

The first column in the following table represents the total amount paid into the state treasury from each county from all sources, including personal property tax, tax on municipal loans, collateral inheritances, fees of public offices, writs, wills, deeds, etc., mercantile, liquor, billiard room, brokers, peddlers and other kind of taxes.

The second column includes the money returned to each county from the state in the shape of salary of judges, appropriations for hospitals and other institutions and for schools. The figures are for the year 1900.

From this it appears that there is no county in Pennsylvania which pays into the state treasury as much in taxes as it receives back in taxes collected by the state to be turned into the county treasury for the purpose of reducing local taxation. In other words, under the state tax laws enacted by the Republican party in Pennsylvania, the corporations pay the entire expense of carrying on the state government and pay into the state treasury $7,481,484 besides, which is returned back to the counties.
