Mrs. E. V. Ingham of Eagles Mere, spent Sunday with Laporte friends.

Chas. R. Funston made a business trip to Shamokin and Philadelphia the latter part of last week, returning home on Tuesday.

L. R. Gumble was a lucky hunter on Tuesday. He brought home about twenty pounds of squirrels and pheasants.

Mrs. John Hassin is recovering from a week's illness.

Mrs. Nancy Kochensparger is reported much improved in health, having been able to leave her bed last Sunday for the first time in many weeks.

Miss Helen Humphrey of Towanda, is the guest of Miss Eliza Shaut.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Mullen visited relatives at Overton from Thursday until Monday evening.

The Union party is out of it. That comes from trying to nominate both democrats and Republicans to the same offices. Water and oil will not mix, neither will discordant elements from two parties become a harmonious whole.

We were constrained for several years to call Scouten, "Boss." Since the last Democratic convention the title seems to require an addition;
"Boodle Boss" is the more appropriate appellation at present.

"Republicans have nothing to offer." These were the words spoken in the Gazette Office by an independent voter from Cherry township last week.

The above is clipped from the Sullivan Gazette. No doubt that man had been looking around for a bath, and went to the wrong door.
Let him go and ask E. G. Rogers if he knows when he can get a bath, or read Dixon's speech on the bath bill.

We are conscious that we give too much prominence to Scouten, but his paper pours out falsehoods like chaff from a fanning mill, and it is our unpleasant duty to expose them.

Although it is a fact established beyond question that the F. A. God-charles Nail Co. is not in the nail trust or in any other trust. Scouten's Herald continues to repeat the lie.

It is well for Scouten that the days of Ananias and Sapphira have past.

Which is the worse, for a man to be persuaded to take the unanimous nomination of a convention for the Legislature, or for a man to be running around the county begging for delegates to nominate him? In one case the office seeks the man, in the other, the man seeks the office.

An ancestor of Ulysses Bird was one of the three pioneers in the west of this county more than a hundred years ago. His numerous decend-ants have been good citizens and borne honorable names, but they have not been office seekers or office holders.

Ulysses Bird did not seek the nomination for Treasurer. He was unanimously nominated by the Republican Convention without solicitation on his part.

Miss Josephine Colt concludes her pretty cantata, entitled "The Fairy mains interred in the Sonestown

Elery and Thos. Swank, and Ed. and Lloyd Mostellar, cousins of tained from being thrown from his bug-ous dinner was served. At three
