

Prayed To Be Released From Life.

Almost Insane From Nervousness.

Dr. Miles' Nervine My Salvation.

Do you enjoy life, or do you sleep so poorly that you are more tired when you get up than when you go to bed? Is your appetite failing, are you getting thin; does your head ache, back ache, eyes tire easily? These are symptoms of a nervous disorder, which should be promptly treated or fainting spells, mental and physical nervousness, morbid fears and loss of control will lead to insanity or mental irresponsibility. Strengthen the nerves with Dr. Miles' Nervine. It quickly supplies nerve-force and vitality to the weakened system, bringing sleep, appetite and health.

"I was almost insane with nervous trouble. Could not eat or sleep. Could see no pleasure in life; indeed, life was a burden to me, and I even prayed God to release me from it. Three doctors did all they could for me, all to no purpose. I was in despair of ever getting better when I saw the advertisement of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. I got a bottle, commenced taking it and wrote you for advice. I followed it carefully, taking your Nervine, Restorative Tonic, and Nerve and Liver Pills. Those remedies were my salvation. It is some months since I stopped taking the Tonic but I keep the Nervine in the house all the time, as it is a friend that I do not feel safe without. If any sufferer should doubt the truth of this statement, let them write to me and I will do my best to drive all doubt from their mind."—Mrs. MABEL REIDEN, La Jolla, Pa.

RELIGIOUS THOUGHT.

Seems Gleaned From the Teachings of All Denominations.

Did you and I ever benefit humanity very much without a self denial, without a giving somewhat of ourselves in their behalf?—Rev. Andrew Hageman, Dutch Reformed, New York.

Creeds and Confessions.

Creeds and confessions have their place, but when that day shall come for the final accounting neither creed nor confession will save.—Rev. Dr. Clappett, Episcopalian, San Francisco.

There is no cough medicine so popular as Foley's Honey and Tar. It contains no opiates or poisons and never fails to cure.

Physicians Prescribe it.

Many broad minded physicians prescribe Foley's Honey and Tar, as they have never found so safe and reliable a remedy for throat and lung troubles as this great medicine.

For sale by C. D. Voorhees, Sonestown, and James McFarlane, Laporte, Pa.

Enlargement of Man.

Ours is an age of thought, and thought means the enlargement of men. It has been so in all creation. This earth was not made in a moment. The story of our old planet is in its growth.—Rev. Dr. Prince, Methodist, Carlisle, Pa.

Anxious Mothers.

Some of the most anxious hours of a mother's life are those when the little ones of the household have the croup. There is no other medicine so effective in this terrible malady as Foley's Honey and Tar. It is a household favorite for throat and lung troubles, and as it contains no opiates or other poisons it can be safely given.

For sale by C. D. Voorhees, Sonestown; James McFarlane, Laporte.

Something to Do.

The desire of the true heart and thoughtful mind is, "Give me something to do; give me some part in the world's work; give me a mission."—Rev. Dr. Bisbee, Universalist, Boston.

Cured of Piles After 40 Years.

Mr. C. Hanev, of Geneva, Ohio, had the piles for forty years. Doctors and dollars could do him no lasting good. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured him permanently. Invaluable for cuts, burns, bruises, sprains, lacerations, eczema, tetter, salt rheum, and all other skin diseases. Look for the name DeWitt on the package—all others are cheap, worthless counterfeits.

If you are bilious and seekin advisers, Take DeWitt's Little Early Risers. Just before going to bed, You will find on the morrow, You are rid of your sorrow—That's all; just enough said.

These famous pills do not gripe, but move the bowels gently and easily, cleansing the liver. Their tonic effect gives strength to the glands, preventing a return of the disorder.

Education Without Religion.

Experience teaches that you can have educated villains; that education without sanctities of religion or restraints of morality increases the power for evil.—Rev. Dr. Dana, Presbyterian, Philadelphia.

A Policeman's Testimony.

J. N. Patterson, night policeman of Nashua, Ia., writes, "Last winter I had a bad cold on my lungs and tried at least half-dozen advertised cough medicines and had treatment from two physicians without getting any benefit. A friend recommended Foley's Honey and Tar and two-thirds of a bottle cured me. I consider it the greatest cough and lung medicine in the world."

Foley's Honey and Tar for coughs and colds; reliable, tried and tested, safe and sure.

Foley's Honey and Tar always stops the cough and heals the lungs. Refuse substitutes.

For sale by C. D. Voorhees, Sonestown and James McFarlane, Laporte.

One Minute Cough Cure.

Is the only harmless cough cure that gives quick relief. Cures Coughs, Colds, Croup, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Pneumonia, Asthma, Lagrippe and all Throat, Chest and Lung troubles. I got soaked by rain, says Gertrude E. Fenner, Muncie, Ind., and contracted a severe cold and cough. I failed rapidly; lost 48 pounds. My druggist recommended One Minute Cough Cure. The first bottle brought relief, several cured me. I am back to my old weight, 148 lbs. One Minute Cough Cure cuts the phlegm, relieves the cough at once, draws out inflammation, cures croup. An ideal remedy for children.

Seeking and Searching.

The spirit of Christ is a spirit of seeking and searching. It is a spirit that cannot rest until success has crowned its efforts. Ask yourself, is that the spirit of me? Yet we call ourselves Christ's disciples. If people have lost their habit of going to church, what does it mean? It means that they are suffering from a diminution of spiritual interest.—Rev. Dr. Alsop, Episcopalian, Brooklyn.

He Could Hardly Get Up.

P.H. Duffy of Ashley, Ill., writes, "This is to certify that I have taken two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure and it has helped me more than any other medicine. I tried many advertised remedies, but none of them gave me any relief. My druggist recommended Foley's Kidney Cure and it has cured me. Before commencing its use I was in such a shape that I could hardly get up when once down."

W. A. Herren of Finch, Ark., writes, "I wish to report that Foley's Kidney Cure has cured a terrible case of kidney and bladder trouble that two doctors had given up."

For sale by C. D. Voorhees, Sonestown; James McFarlane, Laporte.

The Present Duty.

Our duty to put on the harness was never so great as today, that we may plant the religion of love on the basis of the higher philosophy of observation and experience, the basis upon which must rest all permanent and all future forces of society. It is the form of religion which harmonizes best with the advancing civilization of this country. It is the true republicanism of Christianity, recommending to all nations liberty, justice and love.—Rev. Dr. Harris, Universalist, Worcester, Mass.

A Thanksgiving Dinner.

Heavy eating is usually the first cause of indigestion. Repeated attacks inflame the mucous membranes lining the stomach, producing a swelling after eating, heartburn, headache, sour risings and finally catarrh of the stomach. Kodol relieves the inflammation, protects the nerves and cures the catarrh. Kodol cures indigestion, dyspepsia, all stomach troubles by cleansing and sweetening the glands of the stomach.

The School of Suffering.

Suffering is a great school. We learn our best lessons in this school of suffering. We learn, for instance, to love truth and to know it by suffering from errors. We learn to love righteousness as we suffer from sin. But the greatest lesson we learn from our experience in life is the great central lesson of obedience. Do you know that it is the hardest thing in the world for you and me to become obedient as we pass through the school of suffering? I have learned obedience by the things I have suffered. Not only do we learn the lesson of obedience in the school of experience and suffering, but we really develop and consolidate our character.—Rev. Dr. MacLaurin, Rochester, N. Y.

Christ All Sufficient.

"Ye are complete in him." In Jesus you have power. In him you are accepted, in him dwells all the power that you need, and he puts the whole of it at your disposal. Yesterday, today and tomorrow. What about that yesterday of mine? The blood of Jesus Christ, God's Son, cleanseth us from all sin, blot out that which is past. That is where faith must come in. You must rest on that. Take God at his word about it and trust him. What about my acceptance? When my life is abandoned to Christ, he takes me, and I become a part of himself, and all the wealth of his righteousness and all the beauty of his character belong to me in him, and in him God accepts me. We are accepted in the beloved. And what about tomorrow? Christ stands in front of you and me, and he says, "Lo, I am with you all the days!" Found wanting! Here is completeness in him—pardon for the past, acceptance for the present and everything I need for the future.—Rev. G. Campbell Morgan, Evangelist, at Moody Institute, Chicago.

THE ROAD TO RUIN—HE HAD BEST TURN BACK.

The first step is tariff tinkering, next is free trade—after that comes calamity.

SOUND TARIFF VIEWS

REPUBLICAN LEAGUE AND MASSACHUSETTS CONVENTION.

Both Urge Upon Republicans Unwavering Adherence to the Protection Policy and No Chasing Off After Tariff Tinkering Schemes.

In the proceedings of two important Republican gatherings on the 3d of October no evidence is to be found of insatiable longing for tariff revision. At Chicago the National League of Republican Clubs expressed its views in form direct and easily understood as follows:

"The unexampled prosperity that has attended the full exercise of Republican tariff policy is obvious and commands unwavering adherence to that policy as one of cardinal importance in protecting American labor, maintaining American industries and sustaining American institutions."

Unwavering adherence to the protection policy and no chasing off after visionary schemes of tariff tinkering was also the keynote of the platform adopted on the same day by the Massachusetts Republican state convention. Efforts were made by a few revision and reciprocity cranks to secure a declaration in favor of reciprocity with Canada and an immediate revision of the Dingley tariff such as should provide for free trade in coal, iron, steel and hides. Senator Lodge was equal to the occasion. In a powerful speech he succeeded in making clear the fact that the protective tariff is not a thing of shreds and patches, not a mere local thing to be twisted and manipulated to suit individuals in particular sections, but a broad, general, national policy which takes account of the greatest possible good to the country as a whole. In response to this well conceived appeal the convention by an overwhelming majority voted down the reciprocity and tariff ripping amendment and adopted as its tariff plank the following:

"The Democratic plan of free trade in all products made by a so called trust ignores the economic fact that the tariff has no connection with trusts or with the size of corporations except so far as it affects all productive industries, great and small alike. It would mean the greatest possible injury to the least possible injury to the trusts themselves; it would mean incalculable loss to all wage earners employed in every industry thus recklessly assailed; it would mean the domination in our markets of foreign trusts, and it would neither control nor regulate the great corporations which are necessary to modern business and which it is the purpose of the Republican party to bring within the power of wise laws.

"To the application of the policy of protection as embodied in the Dingley tariff are due the high wages and constant employment of labor, and, in a large measure, our phenomenal national prosperity for the last five years. This policy should be adhered to, but changes which the world's progress and the interest of the American people may suggest should and will be made by the Republican party whenever they are of sufficient importance to justify the check to business which inevitably attends any revision of the tariff. Such changes can only be made successfully and with the least possible injury to business by the Republican party and in accordance with the principles of protection. They should be undertaken only after thorough investigation by congress or by a commission of experts, as suggested by President Roosevelt. Massachusetts has and desires no unfair tariff advantages over other states. Protection should be national and not sectional, impartial between industries and those who are engaged in them. The habit of charging to the tariff whatever evils, real or imagined, afflict the country, has become an evil of itself. It imperils business, panders to ignorance and prejudice and tends to prevent that study of the real causes of social and industrial ills which must precede their correction. Protection invites investigation and the Republicans of Massachusetts challenge comparison between its magnificent results from the beginning of the government to the present time and the disasters and failures which have resulted from the opposite policy whenever it has been put in practice."

In the clear cut and sharp pointed statement that "the habit of charging to the tariff whatever evils, real or imagined, afflict the country has become an evil of itself" is found an expression of truth worthy of the highest admiration. It is precisely this truth that needs to be kept in mind in these times of "progressive" tendencies and the evolution of the Iowa idea—"progressive" toward the fatal folly of free trade, with the vicious and false idea that the tariff must be torn in pieces in order that foreign competition may be brought in to regulate domestic prices. The Massachusetts idea is better—to touch the tariff only when the proposed changes "are of sufficient importance to justify the check to business which inevitably attends any revision of the tariff." Of course changes in the Dingley tariff will at some time be made, but not now. There is no change required now that is so urgent as to justify the damage that would come to all business, all industry. In making this matter clear the Massachusetts Republicans have earned the thanks of every lover of his country and its prosperity.

Religion Enriches Life.

Religion satisfies because it enriches life. It opens the way into a new kind of joy. It brings into play a new range of activity. Thus Jesus said that he came that we might have life and that we might have it more abundantly. He came to widen out the circle of human appreciation. The purpose of religion thus considered is akin with the purpose of all progress. It is to teach new truth, to awaken new aspiration, to develop new possibilities, to round out more fully the natural life of man.—Rev. George Hodges, Pittsburg.
