

Relief

From Headache and Neuralgia

In a Few Minutes After Taking

Dr. Miles Anti-Pain Pills. Chronic Case Cured.

"I cannot speak to highly of your remedies and I will always tell my friends how much they have done for my husband and myself for sudden attacks of headaches, neuralgia and rheumatic pains. There is nothing equal to Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. They are simply splendid and give relief in fifteen or twenty minutes. I used to be subject to attacks of headache, which had become chronic, and I took a course of Nerve and Nerve and Liver Pills in connection with the Anti-Pain Pills. The result is I now have very little trouble in that way. My husband has also taken these remedies and praises them very highly. We always have some of both kinds of pills in the house, and do not feel that we could get along without them.—MRS. KATE K. JOHNSON, McClellandville, Delaware.

There are many reasons why you should take Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills, but the best reason is that they will give you almost instant relief from headache or other pain. In cases of chronic headache, when the sufferer knows an attack is coming on, a Pain Pill will usually prevent it entirely. In cases of extreme nervous exhaustion, when the brain is too tired and the body too nervous to rest, an Anti-Pain Pill will soothe the nerves so that sleep may come. They never fail, yet contain no opiates and are non-laxative.

All druggists sell and guarantee Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. They are non-laxative; contain no opiates, never sold in bulk, 25 doses, 25 cents. Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

The Kingdom of Heaven.

"The kingdom of heaven," a phrase, a figure of speech, a picture, a dream, intangible, vague, mysterious, yet it expresses the inspiration of all the generations, the dominant force in all history, for under some form of words it has voiced the faith and aspiration of humanity from the beginning, and all the struggles of the ages have been but witnesses to its hidden energy. Wherever men have believed in something purer, holier, more enduring and more satisfying than they have yet seen or known there the influence of the kingdom of heaven has been felt.—Rev. Dr. V. V. Raymond, President Union College, Schenectady, N. Y.

A Cold Wave.

The forecast of sudden changes in the weather serves notice that a hoarse voice and a heavy cough may invade the sanctity of health in your own home. Cautious people have a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure always at hand. E. H. Wise Madison, Ga., writes: "I am indebted to One Minute Cough Cure for my present good health, and probably my life." It cures Coughs, Colds, LaGrippe, Bronchitis, Pneumonia and all Throat and Lung troubles. One Minute Cough Cure cuts the phlegm, draws out the inflammation, heals and soothes the mucous membranes and strengthens the lungs.

Active and Devoted.

Christ was an example of religious devotion. We find him going to the temple. He was also an example of religious activity. We find him doing good. Some people are devoted Christians, but they are not active. Others are active, but not devoted. Christ was both active and devoted.—Rev. Dr. Meely, Methodist, Brooklyn.

If you feel ill and need a pill Why not purchase the best? DeWitt's Early Risers Are little surprises, Take one—they do the rest.

W. H. Howell, Houston, Texas, writes: "I have used Little Early Risers Pills in my family for constipation, sick headache etc. To their use I am indebted for the health of my family."

Something to Do.

The desire of the true heart and thoughtful mind is, "Give me something to do; give me some part in the world's work; give me a mission."—Rev. Dr. Bisbee, Universalist, Boston.

What's in a Name?

Everything is in the name when it comes to Witch Hazel Salve. E. C. DeWitt & Co. of Chicago, discovered, some years ago, how to make a salve from Witch Hazel that is a specific for Piles, For Blind, bleeding, itching and protruding Piles, eczema, cuts, burns, bruises and all skin diseases DeWitt's Salve has no equal. This has given rise to numerous worthless counterfeits. Ask for DeWitt's—the genuine.

Follow Where Christ Leads.

If we go astray, it shall not be for lack of a bath, but for not following where Christ leads. We are simply to go forward to Christlikeness.—Rev. Mr. Helms, Methodist, Worcester, Mass.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure.

Digests all classes of food, tones and strengthens the stomach and digestive organs. Cures Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Stomach trouble, and makes rich red blood, health and strength. Kodol rebuilds worn-out tissues, purifies, strengthens and sweetens the stomach. Gov. G. W. Atkinson, of W. Va., says: I have used a number of bottles of Kodol and have found it to be a very effective and, indeed, a powerful remedy for stomach ailments, I recommend it to my friends.

Education Without Religion.

Experience teaches that you can have educated villains; that education without sanctities of religion or restraints of morality increases the power for evil.—Rev. Dr. Dana, Presbyterian, Philadelphia.

Don't be imposed upon by taking substitutes offered for Foley's Honey and Tar. Foley's Honey and Tar positively cures all throat and lung diseases. Refuse substitutes.

Report From the Reform School.

J. G. Gluck, Superintendent, Punishment, Va., writes: "After trying all other advertised cough medicine we have decided to use Foley's Honey and Tar exclusively in the West Virginia Reform School. I find it the most effective and absolutely harmless."

For sale by C. D. Voorhees, Sonestown, and James McFarlane, Laporte, Pa.

Righteousness Pays.

There is no greater folly conceivable than that of imagining that unrighteousness pays more than righteousness. The history of the world is against it. Reason is against it. It is the righteousness of the world that makes unrighteousness of seeming advantage.—Rev. Dr. Raymond, President Union College, Schenectady, N. Y.

A Timely Topic.

At this season of coughs and colds it is well to know that Foley's Honey and Tar is the greatest throat and lung remedy. It cures quickly, and prevents serious results from cold.

For sale by C. D. Voorhees, Sonestown; James McFarlane, Laporte.

Nearness of God and Man.

Of all creeds that have been founded since the beginning of the world the Christian religion is the only one that overcomes the sense of distance between God and man.—Rev. Dr. Brady, Episcopal, Philadelphia.

Unstable Christianity.

A Christianity which is not rooted is always unstable; a Christian love that has not penetrated into the depths is not a love of a permanent or enduring character. It is more like a bubble.—Rev. Dr. MacLaurin, Reformed, Rochester, N. Y.

Coughs, Colds and Constipation.

Few people realize when taking cough medicine other than Foley's Honey and Tar, that they contain opiates which are constipating besides being unsafe, particularly for children. Foley's Honey and Tar contains no opiates, is safe and sure and will not constipate.

For sale by C. D. Voorhees, Sonestown; James McFarlane, Laporte.

A kidney or bladder trouble can always be cured by using Foley's Kidney Cure in time.

A Thousand Dollars Worth of Good.

A. H. Thurnes, a well known coal operator of Buffalo, O., writes: "I have been afflicted with kidney and bladder trouble for years, passing gravel and stones with excruciating pain. I got no relief from medicines until I began taking Foley's Kidney Cure, then the result was surprising. A few doses started the brick dust like fine stones and now I have no pain across my kidneys and I feel like a new man. It has done me a $1000 worth of good."

History Reveals Itself.

In every republic that ever existed it was the aim of the rich to crush the middle class and make an aristocracy of wealth to enslave the lower classes of humanity. Water, food and fuel belong to the people, and the men that rob them of either are traitors to humanity.—Rev. P. K. Kain, Reformed, Philadelphia.

Boy's Life Saved from Membranous Croup.

C. W. Lynch, a prominent citizen of Winchester, Ind., writes: "My little boy had a severe attack of membranous croup and only got relief after taking Foley's Honey and Tar. He got relief after one dose and I feel that it saved the life of my boy." Refuse substitutes.

For sale by C. D. Voorhees, Sonestown and James McFarlane, Laporte.

"Whatever Ye Do."

Whatever! Draw this word as a circumference around all the activities of your life and see how much it means. It is all inclusive. Everything—business, politics, society, religion—must be brought under the high rule of pleasing the Lord rather than men.—Rev. L. E. Sellers, Christian, Terre Haute, Ind.

Thanks For Penrose.

Resolutions of thanks, according to a Washington dispatch, continue to pour in upon Hon. Boies Penrose for his speech in the senate against the oleomargarine trust. Granges all over the state are sending him official resolutions for his efforts in the interests of pure butter and the dairy.

A Continual Warfare.

The conflict of the world spirit and God is analogous to the continual warfare waged between the flesh and the spirit in the person of every member of the human race.—Rev. F. W. Norris, Episcopalian, Brooklyn.

ESKIMO COURTSHIP.

How the Native Selects a Bride—The Marriage Ceremony.

The Eskimo gentleman never selects a wife in his own village. As soon as he is able to make a living for a family he goes into a neighboring village and falls in a fit of love before some likely girl. She is then penned up for some time in a house—a sort of dugout or burrow in the ground—and when the bride day comes he goes there and crawls in. It is in the play that the bride to be shall so strenuously object that she fights him off. He then goes out and gets his dogs and sled, and when they are harnessed up he goes in again, overcomes her, ties her hands and feet, places her on the sled and hauls her to his own village. That completes the ceremony of marriage. The whole village gives them a wedding feast. Next day, or later on, if they don't forget it, they go before a minister of the gospel and are married in due form. This feature of the union, however, is not important and does not bother them very much. The dressing of the bride's hair is a revelation. It is done up in a series of knots about a foot high on top of her head and pulled so tightly from the scalp that very often big patches of it are fairly pulled out by the roots, leaving bald and barren places around the ears and the temples.

An Intelligent Dog.

A gentleman once had a very handsome and intelligent collie in his possession. One day he lost the dog when taking it through the city. The creature in vain searched everywhere for his master and at last, seeing a hansom cab creeping leisurely along, jumped into it and settled himself determined.

ly on the seat. The driver tried to entice it out, but without success, and a little crowd collected. None dared to tackle the dog, but at last a facetious spectator shouted out, "I say, Bill, darn me if he don't want to be driv home." "That's it; that's what he wants," they all agreed amid shouts of laughter. Then one examined his collar and found an address clearly engraved upon it. Without further ado cabbly jumped up and drove up to this same address, which proved to be the correct one. Needless to say, the cabman was substantially rewarded. The dog had been in the habit of driving home every evening with his master in a hansom and, with doggie reasoning, had decided to follow his usual custom when he had given up hope of finding his master.—London Opinion.

Dr. Jovett and Bible History.

The following story of Dr. Jovett was current among the undergraduates at Oxford in my day. It had reached the master's ears that Balliol men were not so successful in the examination in "Rudiments of Religion" as in the classical schools, so that he determined to call up the next batch of candidates and catechise them himself in Bible history. "Mr. Smith," he is reported to have said, "what prophet went up to heaven in a chariot of fire?" "Elijah, sir." "It is disgraceful that a scholar of this college should be so ignorant! Mr. Jones?" "Elijah, sir." "Mr. Brown?" "Elijah, sir." At this point the library boy entered, and to strike the undergraduates with shame he was appealed to. "Tell these gentlemen what prophet went up to heaven in a chariot of fire." "Elijah, sir." Then ensued a pause and then, "Well, gentlemen, perhaps it was Elijah!"—Cornhill Magazine.

Short Talks On Advertising

By Charles Austin Bates.

No. 44.

Intelligent stock raisers know that a certain amount of feed is necessary to keep an animal alive. They might feed that amount as long as it lived, and it would never gain a pound.

"Intelligent stock raisers know that a certain amount of feed is necessary to keep an animal alive."

There is no profit in that kind of feeding. The kind that pays is the kind that builds flesh rapidly. If it takes twenty pounds of food each day to keep a sheep alive, twenty-five pounds a day will make it gain flesh. It is the extra five pounds that brings profit. The first five pounds amount to nothing, nor does the second, or third, or fourth five pounds. It is about the same way with advertising. You have to do a certain amount to overcome the passive resistance of the public. You have to do a certain amount of advertising to make them wake up to the fact that you are in business at all. You have to pay a certain amount to keep your advertising alive. What you pay above that amount brings profit. Some advertisers fail because they do not use enough space. They use barely enough, or sometimes not quite enough, to make the advertising self-sustaining. A little bit more would make it profitable. It is better to advertise a little bit too much than not quite enough.

"It is the extra five pounds that brings the profit."

"You have to do a certain amount of advertising to wake them up to the fact that you are in business at all."

A Little Too Much.

"A wife has a right to expect much of her husband," remarked the philosophically inclined person mustingly. "Yes, I suppose she has," replied the meek appearing man with wilted looking whiskers; "I suppose she has, but when she expects him to live up, steadily and without swerving, to the motto on her first husband's tombstone I somehow think she is expecting more than she really ought to expect from a common, everyday, earthly man."

Qualified.

"Yes, he's sure to make a grand president for the college. He's had so much experience." "I didn't know he was a prominent educator." "He isn't. He was an insurance agent, and he can coax money out of a stone wall."—Washington Times.

Desperate.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a running sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out of this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.
