Jos. Gansel of Hills Grove visited his parents here over Sunday.

Hon. M. J. Phillips of North Mountain visited Laporte on Wednesday.

E. V. Ingham of Eagles Mere is recovering from a severe attack of gripp which confined him to his room last week.

F. W. Gallagher, Thos. E. Kennedey and F. M. Crossley journeyed to Williamsport on Wednesday to witness the boxing exhibition by Fitzsimmons and Jeffries.

Atty. W. P. Shoemaker is attending the Masonic lodge dedication exercises at Williamsport this week.

Laporte is represented at the M.
E. Conference now in session at Altoona, by Rev. S. B. Bidlack and Miss Myrtle Bryan.

James H. Gansel has secured the contract for erecting the abutments for the iron bridge near Hills Grove, which will be constructed by the state. Mr. Gansel will commence work the first of April.

Joseph Sunlen, a foreigner employed by the Union Tanning Co., was taken from here to the Williamsport Hospital on Monday, suffering with inflammation of the bowels.
He died the day after arriving at the Hospital.

Mrs. Esther M. Gregory, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Brewster, has entered the nurses training school of the Garfield Memorial Hospital, at Washington, D. C., where she will take a three year's course in professional nursing.

The notorious Mr. Rathbone and some of his friends among the Democratic editors have construed the silver service presented to general Leonard Wood by the fashionable tennis club of Havana, as a bribe presented by a gamblers association.

Michael McNellon Jr. left last week for Williamsport where he will assist his father in sprinkling streets this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Cowell of Bernice, and Mrs. Alice Cowell of South Branch spent a few days last week with Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Cowell.

It is estimated that, with no legal obstacles, it will be at least a year and a half before actual work can begin on the Panama canal.

A Chicago man has gone to court for an injunction to keep his wife from pulling his whiskers. Men of that kind have a remedy in their own hands, and that is better than whiskers in their wives' hands.
It is, to shave.

Mr. Ernest Frycklund a former pastor of the M. E. Church at this place, and who was for the past two years engaged in the mercantile business in Patton, Pa., has accepted an appointment as pastor of a church in the Pittsburg conference and resumed his ministerial duties again.

Chas. Bryan of Forksville was doing business at the county seat on Wednesday. Owing to the damage done to his farm by log driving he has found it necessary to sell his personal property and cease farming.
He will engage in selling a new patent sprayer among the farming districts of Sullivan and Bradford counties.

A change in the W. & N. B. time table took effect on Monday which makes the north bound train No.
525 one hour later than formerly, and now arrives at Laporte from Halls at 9:27 a. m. This gives the patrons along the line as far as Laporte the daily morning papers. The R. P. O. clerk makes his transfer to the South bound train at the Laporte Station.

The Rev. J. T. Bradford of the Baptist church of Barnesboro, Pa., and a former pastor of the Laporte Baptist church, is in very poor health, suffering with brights disease.
Constant and watchful care is given him continually. He has resigned his pastorate and is not expected to live long. His many friends of Laporte and Eagles Mere will be pained to receive so sorrowful news. He has their greatest sympathy as also his family.

Carter Harrison is running for re-election as Mayor of Chicago on a platform which provides for municipal ownership of traction, telephone, gas and electric light plants.
Were there not so many objections to Mr. Harrison personally, the result might be taken as an indication of the sentiment of the second largest city in the Union on this most important question.

The electrical roads of the country have a nominal capital of $1,600,000-000, employ three hundred thousand persons who are paid $250,000,000 a year and run sixty thousand cars over twenty thousand miles of track.
Ten miles of electrical track are building to one of steam.

Rev. S. B. Bidlack who is attending the M. E. conference, writes:
"Our conference convenes away out here in the great Allegheny Mountain metropolis—Altoona. The 8th Ave. Methodists have erected a large church cathedral costing $66,000 which has been equipped for our daily sessions of this years conference. There are in my course of theological studies thirty young men now present taking examinations. We hope to finish them tomorrow. Our conference will last a few weeks.

Our continuance in adding facilities to the News Item equipment rankles most deeply in the breast of the Review man. Newell is alarmed at our "abnormal growth of facilities" and advises them cut off for the good of our health. The upshot of the whole matter is that our competitors are beginning to realize the fact that the News Item office is the most complete and modernly equipped in the county and our superior work and low prices prove the beneficent results of our investments, and the Review's continuance in advertising these facts but recalls the proverb of the bird that makes its own nest disreputable. As the Review phrases it, our brain is a "negative quantity." Very likely.
That is a substance not required in the newspaper business, which accounts for Newell following the Review, however, have been wasted in a vain effort to establish a belief among Newell's reader that he is a very eligible quantity in a class which is hard up for eligible quantities. His mental excellences would be more quickly recognized by the infrequency of his public utterances in relation to other people's affairs and his own expanded virtues.

It seems to be pretty well settled that the new railroad from Williamsport to Binghamton will be via New Albany and not through Dushore. It is said that Dushore is to be left by the way side on account of the high price for the right of way through that town. We believe that to build by the New Albany way will be a mistake for the company and for Dushore. If the owners of property want more for the right of way than the railroad feels that it can pay, we suggest it would be advisable for the town itself to raise the money. As the price of real estate will be enhanced the property owners no doubt will be reasonable in their demands. Dushore is the chief business town of our county.
A very large freight business would be done there, and it is clearly the interest of the railroad company to reach that point. On the other hand the new road would give the Dushore merchants a competing line and greatly increase their facilities.

Taxing coal is only another way of making poor people poorer. It would be better to reduce the number of office holders and the salaries of those now in office. This rage for taxation and thirst for a new lot of officials is a bad sign and no credit to the State or nation.
