County Seat
Local and Personal Events Tersely Told.

Mr. A. T. Wilcox of Millview was a Laporte visitor last week.

Ex-Sheriff H. W. Osler of Bernice, was at Laporte on Tuesday.

Hon. Thos. J. Ingham is transacting business in Williamsport this week.

D. H. Lorah and 'Squire Hall of Sonestown, were business men at the county seat on Monday.

Mrs. Burr Cowell and son Leslie spent Sunday and Monday with friends at New Albany and vicinity.

Chas. Saddler of New Albany is in a Philadelphia Hospital undergoing an operation for cancer. He is reported in a very critical condition.

There is said to be more than 20 cases of small pox existing at Proctor, Lycoming county, and the town is now under quarantine and all communication with the place is forbidden.

The M. E. Sunday School will observe Easter next Sunday. The service will consist of appropriate songs and recitations and will begin promptly at 2:30 p. m. A collection will be lifted. All are welcome.

Mr. James Caven, who for the past several years has conducted a livery stable at this place, will leave here on the 15th and move to Sonestown where he will continue in the same business. This is a distinct loss to Laporte as there is no other livery in the town.

Trout fishing season opens April 15th, and lovers of this sport should bear in mind that the law provides that no trout less than six inches in length shall be taken from any stream. Fish wardens say the law requires them to examine baskets and they propose to do so. The fine is $10 for each and every trout found in any one's possession that is under lawful size.

The new emigration law is already producing an improvement in the class of emigrants coming to this country. While not as far reaching as if it had contained the educational clause, it makes it dangerous for steamship companies to bring over undesirable people with the liability of losing all profit by having to take a considerable percentage back and this operates to make the transportation companies more careful.

The public schools of Estella will hold a Literary, Wednesday evening April 15th. "Jackson Concert" will be present. Admission 10 cents.
Two bills of interest to fishermen have been introduced in the legislature. One imposes a fine for every offense of trespassers on private lands for the purpose of fishing. The other one requires fishermen from other states who bring their boats into the waters of this State to fish to take out a license under penalty of $50. The latter affects only the lake fishing in lakes of 500 acres or more.

The new coal Co. operating at Bernice have made several changes among their employes. Mr. Allen Hale of Scranton takes the place of mine foreman to succeed Wm. Johnson, who has moved to Snow Shoe.
Henry Bently outside superintendent has been replaced by Jas. Mc-Laughlin. Mr. Bently has accepted a position with Whalen Bros. of Towanda. H. W. Taylor has resigned from the engineers corps and taken a position in the Lehigh Valley car shops at Sayre as decorator and painter.

Quite a novel case before 'Squire Bushhausen, Tuesday afternoon, caused a crowd to gather at the court house to hear the evidence.
It seems that on Monday John Karge issued an execution against John Manuel to collect a debt of $25.
On Tuesday Manuel had Karge arrested for selling cider. Karge has a large orchard and a cider press and last fall made a large amount of cider. During the winter Manuel and members of his family, and also hired help had been in the habit of going over to Karges and getting a two gallon jug filled with cider for which they paid Karge 15 cents.
This Manuel construed to be a violation of the liquor law which says "no person shall sell spirituous, vinous or malt liquor without a license," and had a warrant issued.
After hearing the evidence Esq.
Bushhausen concluded it was a matter to be decided by the court and bound Karge over in the sum of $300 for his appearance to next court.
Karge gave bail.

Atty. R. W. Meylert was a Harrisburg visitor several days last week.

Miss Anna Shoemaker has returned from the Lock Haven Normal School to her home at this place.

A meeting of the Republican county committee was called to order in the Court House Saturday April 4, by chairman Wm. P. Shoemaker. There was a large attendance of committeemen present to transact the necessary business that was brought before them. Saturday May 16th was the date fixed for holding the Republican primaries, and Monday May 18, for holding the convention. A delegate will be named for the State convention which will be held at Harrisburg, May 27, 1903.

Jas. H. Gansel was at Hillsgrove on Tuesday making preparations for beginning work on the new bridge at that place.

The Democratic Standing Committee met at the Court House on Monday and elected J. G. Scouten, chairman; Geo. Streby, secretary; D. W. Pealer, assistant secretary; Reubin Thrasher, delegate to the State convention. August 25, was the date named for holding their convention.

In these days and especially in our own country there is an astonishing increase of men of immense wealth.
The word "million" is almost as common as the word "thousands" was in the days of my childhood. Haste to be rich is the prevailing mania, yet only a very, very small proportion of all the most eager seekers after wealth ever attain it. But every one may become "rich toward God." The secret of it is to get by giving. This is the true paradox in the economy of grace. He that refuses to give his whole heart to Christ is doomed to perish without Christ. He that saves for self only loses. He that loses for Christ's sake is sure to save. Would you secure treasures in heaven? Then learn to give and give bountifully. God loveth the cheerful giver. This is not to be limited to gifts of the purse, for the offerings of silver and gold are only a part of what our Master has a right to.
We must freely give of everything that we have freely received.—Rev. Dr.
Theodore L. Cuyler, Presbyterian, Brooklyn.

GRANGE FIRE INSURANCE.

Some Statistics Relative to This Feature of Grange Work.

While there are financial benefits accruing to members of the grange, these are not set forth as inducements to secure membership. However, some facts concerning grange fire insurance are worthy of consideration. In Michigan thirty counties of the state are organized under county and district plans and also a company covering all territory not otherwise organized. The aggregate value of farm properties carried by these companies is about $10,- 000,000. The average annual cost of insurance upon each $1,000 is not far from $1. Pennsylvania has eight grange mutual fire insurance companies carrying risks aggregating over $15,- 000,000. Some of these companies have been doing business more than a quarter of a century. The aggregate cost has been about one-half of what the same class of risks costs in other companies. In Maine, with almost $6,000,- 000 in risks, the fire losses of 1902 in the Androscoggin Patrons company amounted to only $8,000, and the average assessment on $1,000 for seven years, ending Dec. 31, 1902, was only $2. The Oxford County (Me.) Patrons insurance company carries $1,774,328 at an average cost per year for twenty-six years of $8.00 per $1,000.

In New York state the risks carried by grange insurance companies is, for 1901, last report published, $58,225,900.
Losses were $104,000, or $1.80 per $1,- 000, and expenses $24,000, or 40 cents per $1,000. Cost of insurance per $1,- 000 was $2.20. There were twenty-three companies reporting. In the Jefferson and Lewis county Patrons Fire Relief association New York state risks amount to $10,249,803, and with losses for the year much above the average the cost of insurance was only $1.81 on each $1,000. In Herkimer county the grange insurance in force Jan. 1, 1903, was $2,518,780. In Steuben and Livingston counties association policies in force Jan. 1 amounted to $3,170,300 and cost to the insured for three years past has been only 53 1/2 cents per $1,000.
The Columbia and Dutchess association carries $3,184,000 in risks, of which amount $1,000,800 was written in 1902, and the total cost to the insured for five years was $4.84 per $1,000, or about 95 cents per year per $1,000. The Cataraugus county association wrote $200,000 insurance in 1902 and has over $1,000,000 in force.

The Ohio Grangers' Mutual Insurance company has been in operation twenty-three years. There are now 3,280 policies in force, the amount of the insurance being $3,100,616. There have been twenty-one assessments for 186 losses during the twenty-three years, and the average cost of insurance per year has been $1.43 per $1,000.
In Massachusetts the grange companies wrote $407,608 insurance in 1902, and total risks are $755,368. Receipts for premiums were $3,272, while the losses were only $150. This is a remarkable showing, for while good fortune has certainly attended the company it is also evidence of carefully selected risks.

Herein lies one of the chief reasons for grange insurance companies—care in selection of risks, then economy of administration and careful supervision.

Thanks For Penrose.
Resolutions of thanks, according to a Washington dispatch, continue to pour in upon Hon. Boies Penrose for his speech in the senate against the oleomargarine trust. Granges all over the state are sending him official resolutions for his efforts in the interests of pure butter and the dairy.
