To Border Line of Life and Death.

Neuralgia of Heart, Weak Stomach.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure Cured Her.

Neuralgia of the heart causes sudden death. It is an acute affection of the cardiac nerve, just as neuralgia is of the nerves of the face, usually, and sciatica is of the nerve trunk of the thigh. One of its most frequent symptoms is derangement of the stomach and liver. Strengthen the heart's action and enrich the blood with Dr. Miles' Heart Cure; tone up the nerves with Restorative Nervine and you will soon be cured.

"Nervous exhaustion and liver trouble so affected my wife's health that she was greatly run down; neuralgia of the heart set in and for a long time she was very close to the border line of life and death. She was attended by two good physicians, who did all they could for her, but in spite of everything she grew worse right along. One day I saw an advertisement of Dr. Miles' Nervine and New Heart Cure, and the doctor's explanation of the effects of nervous trouble upon the heart seemed so logical that I decided to give the remedies a trial. We now know that the stomach and liver troubles were part of the heart weakness. She improved wonderfully at once. Her appetite picked up, she slept well at night and the pain around her heart rapidly disappeared. Thanked Dr. Miles' Heart Cure in a few weeks she was able to be up and attend to her household duties, and in a few months every sign of nervous and heart trouble had vanished."—JAMES B. STUBLEY, Torrington, Conn.

The Soil of the Mind.

The laws of growth and development require the constant stirring of the soil of the mind, and today there is no organization capable of doing so much for the future of the state through its members as the grange.—Maine Farmer.

The resources of the national grange amount to $64,928.56, quite a respectable sum.

Last year 256 new granges were organized. Michigan led with ninety.

For liver trouble and constipation There's nothing better in creation Than little early risers, the famous little pills, they always effect a cure and save doctors bills. Little early risers are different from all other pills. They do not weaken the system but act as a tonic to the tissues by arousing the secretions and restoring the liver to the full performance of its functions naturally.

Follow Where Christ Leads.

If we go astray, it shall not be for lack of a bath, but for not following where Christ leads. We are simply to go forward to Christlike. —Rev. Mr. Helms, Methodist, Worcester, Mass.

Good For Children.

The pleasant to take and harmless One Minute Cough Cure gives immediate relief in all cases of cough, croup and laryngitis because it does not pass immediately into the stomach, but takes effect right at the seat of the trouble. It draws out the inflammation, heals and soothes and cures permanently by enabling the lungs to contribute pure life-giving and life-sustaining oxygen to the blood and tissues.

A Continual Warfare.

The conflict of the world spirit and God is analogous to the continual warfare waged between the flesh and the spirit in the person of every member of the human race.—Rev. F. W. Norris, Episcopalian, Brooklyn.

Due Notice is Served.

Due notice is hereby served on the public generally that Dewitt's Witch Hazel Salve is the only salve on the market that is made from the pure, unadulterated Witch Hazel. Dewitt's Witch Hazel Salve has cured thousands of cases of piles that would not yield to any other treatment, and this fact has brought out many worthless counterfeits. Those persons who get the genuine Dewitt's Witch Hazel Salve are never disappointed because it cures.

Religion Enriches Life.

Religion satisfies because it enriches life. It opens the way into a new kind of joy. It brings into play a new range of activity. Thus Jesus said that he came that we might have life and that we might have it more abundantly. He came to widen out the circle of human appreciation. The purpose of religion thus considered is akin with the purpose of all progress. It is to teach new truth, to awaken new aspiration, to develop new possibilities, to round out more fully the natural life of man.—Rev. George Hodges, Pittsburg.

A Sweet Breath.

is a never failing sign of a healthy stomach. When the breath is bad the stomach is out of order. There is no remedy in the world equal to Kodol. Dyspepsia cure for curing indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach disorders. Mrs. Mary S. Criel, of White Plains, Ky., writes, "I have been a dyspeptic for years—tried all kinds of remedies but continued to grow worse. By the use of Kodol I began to improve at once, and after taking a few bottles am fully restored in weight, health and strength and can eat whatever I like. Kodol digests what you eat and makes the stomach sweet."

SUGAR AND RICE.

SOUTHERN OBJECTIONS TO THE CUBAN TREATY.

If Domestic Cane Sugar is to be Sacrificed, Louisiana Rice Planters Think They should Have Free Entrance into the Cuban Market.

Since the completion of the Cuban reciprocity treaty, under the terms of which Cuban sugar is to be admitted at a substantial reduction, which reduction is at the expense of the gulf coast sugar industry, the Signal has been urging the rice people to demand of congress that the gulf coast be remunerated in part for the injury done sugar by receiving from Cuba such cocession in rice duties as will enable us to compete with German and English rice in the Cuban market.

The situation in a nutshell is this: Cuba's principal product is sugar, and she cannot raise it at a profit unless we admit it to our markets on terms which will operate to the disadvantage of our own product. In other words, after we have spent our money and blood in freeing Cuba from the Spaniards, set her on her feet and made her a nation we must sacrifice our industries to bolster up hers. We must continue to pay—that is, one particular section must pay.

On the other hand, Cuba's principal food is rice, which is furnished her by the very people whose competition in sugar forces her to ask us to sacrifice our sugar industry to enable hers to live. It is German and English sugar that keeps Cuban sugar out of the markets of the world, as it is German and English rice that keeps our rice out of Cuban markets. Cuba now asks us to let her sugar into our markets at the expense of our own sugar, but in return she has not favored our rice to the extent that we can compete in her markets with the people who have killed her sugar. American sugar and American rice are raised in the same section, and it looks reasonable that if one of the principal industries of a certain section of the country is to be made to suffer for the benefit of the new republic for which we have already done so much more than any other industry of the same section ought to be correspondingly benefited. Cuba offers our rice a reduction of 40 per cent on the present tariff, which will do us no good, while the reduction we give her sugar will place that industry in Cuba on its feet. In order for us to receive anything like a reciprocal benefit our rice should enter Cuba free from duty.

The treaty is now under consideration by our national government. If the claims of rice were adequately presented and properly pushed, there is no reason to doubt that congress would see the matter in the proper light and do justice to the gulf coast. Other sections and other industries have been hustling and have secured the protection they wanted and without being able to show the same claim to protection that we can show. They got what they wanted by going after it. If we were to go after what we want, as other industries have, we could open up the big Cuban market to our rice on terms that would enable us to go on increasing our production to the limit.—Crowley (La.) Signal.

Natural Evolution.

The business methods that prevail today are the natural evolution of earlier conditions and embody a safe, necessary and beneficent principle. They are universal. They relate to no policy of government whatever. They are as little connected with the tariff or the currency as with the signs of the zodiac. They are born of human ambition and shaped by human experience. The proof of their excellence is the fact of the country's prosperity, and to attempt to array against them the party of conservatism and progress is unspeakably foolish as it will be entirely futile.—Chatham (N. Y.) Republican.

Effect of Free Coal.

It is interesting to note that the removal of the duty on coal does not tempt foreigners to invade the American market. The 67 cent tariff has not operated for years to exclude foreign coal from eastern markets, but it has afforded a measure of protection to miners on this coast, which is now sacrificed to swell the profits of the concerns that operate the cooly worked mines of British Columbia.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Place More Than Principle.

The unsetting of one of their number aroused the fighting blood of the house Democrats as no question of principle or policy has done in the last ten years.—Buffalo Express.

The Boy's Divine Friend.

God, as the divine mother, today wants to be the companion and the comforting friend and savior of all the boys and the girls and the young folks. As Christ once turned and rebuked his disciples, who tried to crowd away the young people from his side, and said, "Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of heaven," so today he bids the children come to him and clamber up into his lap and nestle as little lambs against the warm, loving heart of the Good Shepherd. Christ today longs to be the divine friend of the boy swinging the bat and of the girl dressing the doll as well as the divine friend of the young men and women in the school and college.—Rev. Dr. Frank De Witt Tallma, Presbyterian, Chicago.

The Mission of Christ.

Jesus did not come into the world to regulate feast days, new moons nor Sabbath days, but he came into the world to seek and to save that which was lost.—Rev. S. Geriah Lamkins, Baptist, Washington.

RELIGIOUS THOUGHT.

Gems Gleaned From the Teachings of All Denominations.

The grandest opportunities of Christian service demand the complete and voluntary surrender of our whole lives to Jesus Christ.—Rev. Dr. Frank De Witt Tallma, Presbyterian, Chicago.

The Spirit of Forgiveness. The nearer our lives approach to Christ the nearer we come to perfection. Jesus Christ both by precept and example endeavored to instill in us the spirit of forgiveness.—Rev. A. C. Dixon, Baptist, Boston.

The Deepest Reality. It is a matter of the greatest importance that every one should begin a Christian life, but a matter of serious concern that it should begin in the deepest reality.—Rev. Dr. William J. Holtzclaw, Baptist, Atlanta, Ga.

Opportunities of Life. The devil would steal away your life's opportunities as a Christian by simply having you put off becoming a Christian just now. He is stealing away your life—yourself he is stealing away.—Rev. N. H. Lee, Methodist, Denver.

Most Pernicious Influence. A bad man can do an immense amount of harm by simply doing bad things. A bad man, with bad motives, doing what seems to be good, is the most pernicious and degrading influence that I know of.—Rev. H. L. Padlock, Episcopalian, New York.

The Value of Character. Nothing is more highly valuable, since God is righteous, than character in his creature. And the wondrous development of our late president's hold upon us is not to be explained in any other way. The riddle of this life is not hard to read. He saw that badness was weakness and goodness was strength.—Rev. Dr. Cadman, Congregationalist, Brooklyn.

Need of Our Time. The need of our time is independent co-operation in our church work as illustrated by the Christian Endeavor movement, the interdenominationalism of which movement says, "Let sects live, but let sectarianism die." Let us have a healthy criticism, but above all else let us have an enthusiastic consecration which will cement in spirit the whole church.—Rev. G. J. Hall, Denver.

Whether the would be reorganizers of the Democracy be successful or not, it behooves those who believe in the protective system to prepare themselves to defend it again in 1904. It may come to pass that the Democratic party will be compelled to make "tariff for revenue" its paramount issue for the reason that it can neither find nor fabricate another. In fact, present indications rather point that way.—Abany Evening Journal.

Foley's Honey and Tar heals lungs and stops the cough.

The Need of Action. What we need is action. The glory of the Lord depends upon those who will take hold and move forward.—Rev. A. C. Ward, Baptist, Atlanta.

No Peace Without Christ. A life without Christ is a life without peace. Without him it is possible to have excitement, pleasure, gratified passions, success, accomplished hopes. But peace, never. That you cannot have until you go to him. The Christless heart is like the sea that can rest. There is no peace for it. But in Christ you can get it for the asking. The chastisement of our peace was upon him. For our sakes he died upon the cross, so making peace. Trust him and the God of peace will fill you with all joy and peace in believing. Then bow your wills in obedience to his commands, and so your peace shall be as a river.—Rev. R. H. Carson, Presbyterian, Brooklyn.
