BRYAN AND BRYANISM.

By the way, is there anybody that Mr. Bryan does approve of?—Chicago Record-Herald.

If the fate of the Democratic party hangs upon the success or failure of Mr. Bryan's attempt to oust Mr. Cleveland, what else does the party stand for?—Minneapolis Times.

Wanted.—A war map of William Jennings Bryan's mind since the reinstatement of Arthur Pue Gorman as leader of the Democratic forces in the senate.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Bryan calls on the Democrats to assert themselves. Well, what in the deuce are they going to assert?—Moravian Falls (N. C.) Yellow Jacket.

Colonel Bryan acts just as if he were afraid Grover Cleveland wanted to break into the Populist party, but we don't believe Cleveland has any idea of doing it.—Philadelphia Press.

Mr. Bryan seems to be trying to show that he is not a back number by keeping ahead of the clock. He addressed an afternoon gathering of Brooklyn women the other day attired in full evening dress.—Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

No matter what the actual form of statement, one thing has become as certain as the succession of the seasons.—Bryan and Bryanism are still potent forces in the Democratic party and must be reckoned with.—Troy Times.

Newfoundlanders.

It is said that the good people of Newfoundland propose to retaliate against us if we do not accept the Hay-Bond treaty. As our public organs of British thought tell us that only selfish fishermen in Gloucester are to be injured by that treaty, the retaliation will probably fall on that small Massachusetts town, which is apparently rather anxious to receive it.

In this connection, recognizing fully the great impossibility of any retaliation from Great Britain, due to the frequent and intimate intercourse between the two countries, it seems to us unfortunate that the British authorities do not afford more convenient means of intercourse between this country and Newfoundland. If the Newfoundlanders loved us as the English do, in consequence of our frequent opportunities for mutual intercourse, their thoughts would not turn so readily, if at all, to retaliation.

In the interest of peace on earth and good will to men the English really ought to put on a direct passenger line between some port in this country and one in Newfoundland, so that love may be cultivated and the hate that finds expression in threats discouraged.

A Party of "Ex's."

The Brooklyn Democratic club has planned a national Democratic "harmony dinner" and heads the list of invited guests with ex-President Cleveland, ex-Candidate W. J. Bryan and ex-Governor Dave Hill.—Post Express.

If the Democratic leadership is noticeable for anything more than another these days, it is for the number of its "ex's," as the above paragraph suggests.—Oswego (N. Y.) Times.

South Carolina's Hard Luck.

South Carolina has escaped negro domination, but it has fallen into the grasp of Tillman domination. It seems impossible for South Carolina to keep itself clear of some kind of a crisis.—Sioux City Journal.

Revenge in a Bad Cause.

The Democrats in the national house were so indignant because a ballot box stuffer was turned out of that body that they could not be cordial toward the departing speaker.—Indianapolis Journal.

was written in the history of America when labor was so greatly in demand, nor when the hours of toil were generally so short or the wages so high.—Philadelphia Item.

Professor Bryan's Harmony.
 Bryan is a great peacemaker. "No man wants harmony more than I do," he declares in discussing the Democratic situation. Then he goes on to say how harmony can be secured, which is only by the adoption of the tune he has composed and the performance of it upon the lute he has constructed.—South Bend (Ind.) Tribune.

Pledges Redeemed.
 The Republican congress honestly redeemed its campaign pledges—with the exception of statehood—in all instances except where Democratic filibustering made it impossible.—Pueblo (Colo.) Opinion.
