mer home at this place.

Williamsport.

turned home last week from Philadelphia where they had spent the winter.

Our Commissioners would do well to enforce the law relatives to improving the roads. They need it.

James Caven, the hustling liver-man of Sonestown, was a business man at this place on Monday.

Ben Speary of Sonestown, was a Laporte visitor on Tuesday. He will leave for Centralia, W. Va. next week.

Mrs. G. S. Eddy is seriously ill having undergone an operation on dall and Wright, at her home on of New Jersey, are the first arrivals dence of W. B. Ritter, Tuesday pany, through its Philadelphia maker, son of John Wanamaker for $1,000,000. The premium on the insurance is $30,000 a year.

Sheriff Cott this week purchased the meat market business of David Temple. Mr. Cott's son Fred, and Henry Kraus who is employed by Mr. Cott, will conduct the enterprise. Mr. Temple contemplates going into the hotel business.

A. E. Tripp accepted a well paying position with Whalan Bros., contractors on the Susquehanna & New York railroad, and left on Monday for Wheelerville. He takes charge of the carpenter work on the several trestles to be erected on the new road. Mr. Tripp has had considerable experience with trestle work having been similarly engaged on the W. & N. B. railroad when it was built.

The Lyon Lumber Co. last week issued a writ of replevin claiming the logs and lumber manufactured by Bennett and Peale at their mill in Shrewsbury township. Bennett and Peale are operating under an agreement with H. L. Geyelin, of Philadelphia, and the question of the ownership of the property will be fully tested. Bennett and Peale have about a million feet of logs on hand and had just started their mill when the writ was served. This action will delay them somewhat.
The appearances for the Lyon Lumber Co. are: Mullen of Laporte, and Haines and Peaslee of Williamsport.
For Mr. Geyelin, C. LaRue Munson, of Williamsport, R. A. Mercer, of Towanda and F. W. Meylert, of Lapote. T. J. and F. H. Ingham official conference. He will also preach on Sunday morning at 10:30 and administer the Holy Sacrament.

A cordial invitation and hearty welcome is extended to the citizens of Laporte to attend these services.

Unless Attorney General Carson shows State Treasurer Harris that the judges of the several courts of the State have a right to the increase of salary voted them by the Legislature, which was approved by the Governor, the State Treasurer will not pay the increase. Mr. Harris quotes the Constitution, Section 3, of Article 13, which says that: "No law shall extend the term of any public officer or increase or diminish his salary emoluments after his election or appointment." Mr. Harris will raise the question on the first judicial pay day, and will be guided solely by the opinion of his Attorney General.

The forest fire that swept this section of the state last week cost Sullivan county property owners a large sum of money. There was a terrific wind blowing Thursday when sparks from a locomotive started a fire near Karges point and before it could be reached by the fire fighters it had gained such headway that it was impossible to get it under control. Several of the dwellings at the Big Onion were seriously threatened. Mr. Reeder's lime house caught fire but by hard work was saved. A car with several cords of acid wood on Mr. Reeder's switch was destroyed, and the ties along the W. & N. B. railroad in several places badly burned. Farmers were obliged to tear down their fences in order to save them.

The tract of timber land of Wm.
Hart of Campbellsville, which he recently purchased of B. B. King, was visited by the flames, but only a portion of it was burned over without any serious damages.

M. E. Reeder while in town on Wednesday left shipping directions for a gasoline engine to supply power for churning and operating cream separators at his Chippewa farm.
Practical buyers when purchasing gasoline engines always select the Fairbanks for a reliable and high grade engine at moderate cost.

Governor Pennypacker, last week signed a bill for the commitment of persons habitually addicted to the use of alcoholic drinks or intoxicating drugs to a hospital or asylum, on petition to the court of two relatives or friends of the alleged drunkard. Before such person is admitted into the institution, payment must be made or security given to the authorities for his board, care and treatment, and to indemnify them from all costs and expense. No person shall be kept in restraint for more than one year, and all commitments under the act, reviewable by habeas corpus proceedings at any time.

Farm Bookkeeping.
No business man can get along successfully without striking a balance now and then to see where he stands.
Bookkeeping is a necessary element in commercial success. It is just as necessary for the farmer to examine his assets and liabilities from time to time to ascertain if he is making a profit or a loss as it is for any other business man. Farmers have not been doing business on business principles and only one result could follow.

The Subordinate Grange.
The subordinate grange is a link in the great chain now stretching from ocean to ocean, binding hundreds of thousands of the men and women of the farm in a fraternal body and by sacred obligation to put forth every effort to raise the standard of intelligence among the tillers of the soil and secure a just distribution of the burdens of society, as well as of the fruits of our labor.—O. Gardner.
