and system, bringing sleep, appetite and health. "I was almost insane with nervous trouble. Could not eat or sleep. Could see no pleas-and I even prayed God to release me from, and I even prayed God to release me from, all to no purpose. I was in despair of ever petting better when I saw the advertisement of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. I got a bottle, commenced taking it and wrote you for advice. I followed it carefully, taking your Nervine, Restorative Tonic, and Nerve and Liver Fills. Those remedies were my sal-vation. It is some months since I stopped taking the Tonic but I keep the Nervine in the house all the time, as it is a friend that I should doubt the truth of this statement, let them write to me and I will do my best to drive all doubt from their mind."-MRS. ORGANIZING A GRANGE.

Look Well to the Charter Membership Roll.

Hon. Aaron Jones, master of the na-tional grange, speaks wisely when he says: Care should be used in getting good charter members. They are the founda-tion on which the future usefulness of the grange will rest. With good charter members the grange will grow in num-bers, in usefulness and influence and be of great advantage to its own members. Un-less you can organize a grange of the best men and women in the location where the grange is to be organized do not organize a grange at all. says:

Every grange deputy should commit to memory the last sentence above quoted. This rule carefully observed would save trouble later on. Lay well your foundations in establishing a grange. Your best citizens are none too good. Organize well or not at all. Objectionable men and women can be kept out after the organization is formed, but it is often a difficult matter to prevent their joining as charter mem-bers. Use tact at this point. The deputy's responsibility just here is great, but he should meet it unfinchingly.

EMPIRE STATE PATRONS. The Grange a Growing Power In

state grange in Syracuse made a very pleasant and impressive revelation of the growth of the Patrons of Husbandry in the Empire State. The re-ports generally showed the Order to be a growing power in the state. It is not easy to understand why farmers in all the states do not realize the value of the grange as the promoter and pro-tector of the interests of farmers, but it is reassuring to note that intelligent farmers are coming into the Order in greater numbers than ever before. The community that has a live grange is always a community in which intelli-gence predominates, in which refined rules, in which edu valued, in which scientific agriculture is the rule and in which the rural folk are seen at their best. New York leads most of the states in advanced country life, and it is proper that the grange should be a conspicuous feature of ru-ral life in the state. Members of the Order everywhere will be pleased to note the growth of the grange in New York.-New York Farmer.

raise a pier that will be strong and permanent, and that will hold up a useful and necessary bridge.

It is just so with advertising. The first ads you drop in only serve as a foundation. They do not serve as anything if you do not drop in enough of them. If you keep on piling one on top of the other, in the end you will have a pier which will sustain the bridge of business all the rest of your life.

Religion satisfies because it enriches life. It opens the way into a new kind range of activity. Thus Jesus said that he came that we might have life and that we might have it more abun-dantly.
