Mr. Edward Schrader has moved his family to South Brook, near Lopez, where he takes charge of a large bark peeling job for the Union Tanning Co. Mr. and Mrs. Schrader extend a cordial invitation to all Laporte friends to call at their summer home at South Brook.

Howard Lyons made the county seat a business call Wednesday. His usual jovial manner would indicate that he is not worrying over the fast disappearing profits to be made from an investment in a newspaper enterprise. The Hughesville Independent is one of his treasured creations and he has every reason to feel very proud of such a newsy and creditable sheet as the Independent.

Three sensational stories regarding Miss Rosevelt have lately been widely printed. All were interesting but untrue. The papers printing them enjoyed large sales, which no doubt accounts largely for such a howl in certain newspaper circles over the Governor's approval of the new libel

Governor Pennypacker on Tuesday approved the Grady-Salus libel bill on which certain publications comment since its passage. The News Item is not a bit worried over the situation. It is not in the libeling business and in consequence is not in the least affected. So called modern journalism of late years has overestimated its freedom of speech. There is evidence enough that a hault must be called, and using the language of the Governor can no better explain the motives of this Act when he says: "This bill may not be the best possible legislation, but the purpose is commendable, and should experience show it to be detective something better may be devised. Mr. E. P. Powell, the well known agricultural writer, has this to say of the grange in the Tribune Farmer: "I am not a member of a grange, but I believe in them with all my heart. They are doing an immense amount of work, and it is of a very wholesome sort. The social influence is as good as the educative. It has the advantage of bringing together husbands and wives, as all clubs should. The grange work, so far as I have watched it, has been invariably for sound legislation, for housest elections, for progressive farm work, for improved institutes and for the general social welfare of farm
