The popularity of the News Item throughout the county was emphasized in court this week, when in the selection of a jury for the murder trial nearly every witness testified that he read of the affair in the News Item.

The rumor that found its way into these columns last week to the effect that the non-union men at Bernice were on a strike, proved to be untrue. Work is progressing as usual. As we now understand no distinction is being shown the union and non-union men when services are needed.

The stave factory closed for the season on Tuesday, having completed the cutting of all the stock placed in the yard last winter. The factory this year has turned out the largest number of staves in the shortest space of time yet accomplished.
Wm. Sykes has been in charge of the work and the capable hands he selected accounts for the good results.
The work of jointing the staves and loading on cars, will commence at once.

The court room has been uncomfortably crowded this week with spectators to hear witnesses testify to the ill treatment of an aged an infirm woman by her son. Had all these deeds been acts of kindness the case would not have been considered interesting enough to have even attracted the attention of the jury.
It would have taken an endless amount of good deeds enacted for Wm. Saam to have attracted such wide attention and notoriety. The public pays too high a premium for badness. Fact is, it's not popular to be good these days. Virtue is only a name.

It is reported that Laporte will have a grand celebration on the 4th of July. Rev. J. A. Enright will bring his annual church excusion to this place on that date, if rumor be correct. Further particulars and announcement will be published in a later issue.

Cattle owners of this Borough are beginning to agitate the question as to whether it will pay to have the cattle removed from our streets. It cheapens the cost of milk to the consumers who buy and affords free pasture to those who desire to keep a cow. It also keeps the grass cropped and saves the cost of mowing. It is believed by some that it will be of great injury to the inhabitants to have all these advantages removed. We have heard of men reasoning left handed, but this way of rea-

Jim Dumps had scarcely slept a wink, All night he'd toss/about and think.
But that's all past—he'll ne'er endure Insomnia. He's found a cure!
Tis "Force." At night, when lights are dim,
It soothes the nerves of "Sunny Jim."

Wouldn't Believe at First.
"I wouldn't believe it till I tried it, but 'Force' is a cure for insomnia. I used to stay awake night after night. Now I eat a big bowlful of 'Force' just before going to bed, and sleep and I have become good oning is left handed on both sides.

Putting aside the annoyance of having well manured sidewalks and looking at the financial end of the question it does not require a very keen insight to see the "penny wise and pound fool" policy in advocating that it pays to pasture the streets.
Will it not be more profitable to boom the town for a summer resort than use it for a pasture field? Repeated attempts have been made to associate summer guests with cattle at this place, but so far the attempts have turned to dismal failures.
There are too many other villages more neat and tastefully kept for Laporte to hope to compete with in her present state of appearance. We have a number of property owners who are offering to sell at a great sacrifice, but there are no buyers to take advantage of these bargains.
Exactly. A pasture field never has the appearance to yield much value.
Capital is very sensitive and shuns all places where it is abused and not allowed to expand. With a proper administration, different from what we have been having, Laporte real estate if consistently handled could be made to double its value in five years time. Why then continue using it for a pasture field?

Republicans Name Ticket by Acclamation.

The Republican state convention held at Harrisburg Wednesday nominated by acclamation the following ticket: Auditor general, William P. Snyder, of Chester; for state treasurer, William L. Mathews, of Delaware; for superior court judges, John J. Henderson of Crawford county; and Thomas A. Morrison of McKean county. The platform commended and approved the administration of President Roosevelt, who with great ability, fidelity and vigor has enforced the policies of his lamented predecessor, William McKinley, and of the Republican party. His nomination and election to the presidency in 1904 is favored and thus pledged.
Senator Hanna and the state of Ohio have yielded to the popularity of Teddy and now stand pledged to his support.

from our midst our late brother Robert J. Gourley, and in view of the loss sustained by the death of our brother, and the still heavier loss sustained by those who were nearer and dearer to him, be it Resolved, That in the death of Sir Knight, Robert J. Gourley, this lodge laments the loss of a brother, a friend and companion who was dear to us all.

Resolved, That the heartfelt sympathy of this lodge be extended to his family, that we sincerely condole with them on the dispensation, with which it has pleased Divine Providence to afflict them, and commend them for consolation to Him who orders all things for the best, and whose chastisements are meant in mercy.

Resolved, That our charter be drapped in black for 60 days in honor of our dear brother.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the records of the lodge and a copy be sent to the family of the deceased brother and to the county newspapers.
