The Ohio Elections.
Republican success in the recent municipal elections in Ohio was practically unmarred. Democratic strongholds were overturned in many parts of the state. In Republican cities the party candidates were elected by larger majorities than ever known before, and in some instances more Republican votes were polled than in the last presidential election.

No national issues figured in the campaign except in one city, where the Democratic nominee for mayor was expected to become presidential timber if he succeeded. The result was that his Republican opponent received a majority double the largest Republican majority on record.

Democratic Discard.
With Bryan denouncing Gorman as a traitor and political crook, Wattersson lambasting Cleveland as a humbug and party wrecker and numerous Democratic newspapers calling upon their readers to look out for the trickery of David B. Hill, the prospect that the Democratic brethren will shortly be found dwelling together in unity does not seem highly promising.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

BRYAN AND CLEVELAND.
Bryan says that Gorman is worse than Cleveland, which confirms the suspicion we have always had that one Democrat was always worse than another.—Philadelphia Press.
If Mr. Cleveland is permitting all this talk about his accepting a fourth presidential nomination simply for the fun of annoying Mr. Bryan, he is certainly making a success of it.—Des Moines Capital.
Grover Cleveland is being invited to more "harmony dinners" than his peerless leader, William Jennings Bryan. Is it possible that they are trying to starve Mr. Bryan into being god?—Terre Haute Tribune.
Isn't it about time Bryan proposed to meet Cleveland in joint debate while the latter is in the western country? There are things to talk about.—Philadelphia Press.
One good result from the re-nomination of Cleveland for the presidency would be the permanent retirement of Mr. Bryan from the party.—Grand Rapids Herald.
Grover Cleveland refuses to say whether he will take steps to prevent his nomination next year. But if he should be too busy to do so Mr. Bryan will be good enough to act for him in the matter.—Salt Lake Tribune.
Mr. Bryan is quite agreed with Colonel Wattersson concerning Grover Cleveland, with Dave Hill concerning Judge Parker, with the Brooklyn Eagle concerning Dave Hill and with the editor of the Commoner concerning the leadership of Mr. Gorman. Otherwise he begs leave to differ.—Washington Post.
Marse Henry calls Grover an "arbitrator in modo." That settles it, Gave, old boy. You might as well quit.—Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.
It is not a good omen that the movement to induce Grover Cleveland to come once more the Democratic standard bearer began in Pottsville. The name is so strongly suggestive of soap.—Chicago Post.

Our Responsibility.
R. R. Galusha, lecturer of the Vermont state grange, says, "The object of our association primarily is great development socially and educationally, but it follows as naturally as the seasons that with increased knowledge there is an increased responsibility along all lines related to human welfare."

Gorman's Tough Task.
The Commoner "chronicles with regret" the selection of Gorman as Democratic leader in the senate and says it "may be fairly considered the most important victory thus far scored by the reactionary element of the Democratic party." When it is recalled that the Cleveland wing of the party has also expressed discontent with the new leader, it will be seen that Gorman's task of harmonizing the party is going to be about as difficult as the old game of pigs in the clover.—San Francisco Call.

NO LIFE, NO AMBITION, NO ENERGY.
These are common expressions nowadays and the finger post that point with unflinching accuracy to a nervous system robbed of its vitality by over-exertion, overstrain or excess of some kind. That anyone should allow this condition to go on to complete mental physical or sexual ruin is a surely must if neglected, is a positive crime when the cure is at hand in Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills—a medicine designed expressly for this condition—a medicine that cures to stay cured by resupplying the very essential of life—Nerve Force.

Mrs. W. C. Masteller of 220 E. 5th St., Bloomsburg, Pa., says:—
"I was feeling very nervous and very much run down last winter when I saw Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills recommended for such a condition. I got a box and tried them. They have done me a world of good, toned up and strengthened my system generally, made my nerves strong and steady and give me a feeling of life and vigor.
