Democratic Hopelessness The mysterious popularity of Judge Parker of this state as a prospective presidential candidate is the visible emblem of Democratic hopelessness and dissension. An empty honor is to be bestowed on a barren record. if not an empty name. We have called him the Democratic John Doe, and the phrase is good enough. How much the phrase is good enough. How much the party fears even to take up its old shiboleth, free trade, is evidenced by the Chicago speech of the astute Ed-ward M. Shepard. He decries "a gen-eral revision of the tariff," admits "the widespread popular belief in protec-tion" and would confine the Democrat-ic attack to "the few schedules in which, through such practical monopo-by, vast fortunes have been made."— New York Mail and Express.

NO LIFE, NO AMBITION, NO ENERGY.

NO ENERGY. These are common expressions nowa-days and the finger post that point with infailing accuracy to a nervous system robbed of its vitality by over-exertion, overstrain or excess of some kind. That anyone should allow this condition to go on to complete mental physical or sexual ruin as it surely must if neglected, is a positive crime when the cure is at hand in Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Fills—a and designed expressly for this con-cliton—a medicine that cures to stay cured by resupplying the very essential of life—Nerve Force.

Mrs. W. C. Masteller of 220 E. 5th St., Bloomsburg, Pa., says:-

⁴I was feeling very nervous and very much run down last winter when I saw Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills recom-mended for such a condition. I got a box and tried them. They have done me a world of good, toned up and strengthened my system generally, made my nerves strong and steady and give me a feeling of the and vigor. The medicine is a good invigorator and rebuilder and I can rec-commend i highly to anyone needing a ownend it highly to anyone needing a line rerve and general tonic." 50c a box at dealers or Dr. A. A Hint to Others. Last year the Michigan state grange offered a handsome bookcase to each grange in the state initiating twenty or more new members during the se quarter, 150 granges winning desks and about 5,000 recruits being secured.

It is announced that the next session of the national grange will be held in Rochester, N. Y., in November of this year. New York state granges will send large delegations, and Pennsyl-vania and Michigan will have large representations.

Michigan's state grange secretary reported at the annual meeting 579 working granges with 36,000 members. Over fifty new granges have been organized since.

Franklin and North Brookfield (Mass.) granges were both officered throughou' by women last year.
