at this place last week.

Wm. Hottenstein of Forks township, died on Monday, July 20, aged 75 years.

The Rev. C. A. Soars of Philadelphia, will preach in the Baptist church Sunday evening July 26. All are invited.

Jacob Perr of Hughesville and Haymen Herr of Muncy Valley were business men at Laporte Wednesday.

Jas. Gansel spent Sunday with his family at this place. He will complete the bridge abutments at Hills-grove this week.

Miss Martha Shank and Miss Lucy Le Van of Williamsport, are pleasant guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Randall.

Miss Alice Brewster of New York arrived in town. Monday and will remain some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Brewster.

Mrs. W. N. Barrows, Miss Eleanor Barrows and Master Tom Barrows of New York City, and Mrs.
Emma A. Baily of Philadelphia are being entertained by Mr. and Mrs.
E. P. Ingham at this place.

The officers of the association desires to make this years reunion of the family the best in its history, therefore they desire a full attendance of all that are in any way connected with the Little family.

Mrs. Victor Hugo and daughters of Philadelphia, arrived in Laporte Tuesday evening and will spend the remainder of the summer with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F.
M. Crossley.

Several days ago Saylor Lawrence of Muncy, met with a painful accident at his father's planing mill.
While running a rip saw his left hand was accidentally caught and the thumb badly cut as were all the fingers except the little one.

As an offertory at the Episcopal Church on Sunday morning last, Miss Eleanor Barrows of New York City, sang "With Verdure Clad" from Haydn's "Creation." The selection was greatly enjoyed by the congregation as it is a class of music not often heard in Laporte. During the summer occasionally selections will be given by visitors.

The Little family reunion will be held in the pavillion at Eagles Mere, Wednesday, August 26, 1903. This is the 4th annual reunion, and the 99th year since Theophilus Little emigrated from New Jersey up the Susquehanna river to Muncy thence up the Muncy creek valley to the Lake of the Eagles, now the famous summer resort of Eagles Mere, where he settled in the year 1804.

The new arrivals at the Mountain House are: Miss Mae R. Muffley, Master Ernest E. Bealmeier of Baltimore; Dr. Daniel H. Riggs, wife and daughter of Washington; Rev. Chas.
A. Soars, Mrs. Soars, Masters Austin and Ralph Soars, of Philadelphia; Two Misses Loetzer, Towanda; Miss Rose Hawkins, L. M. Hawkins; Miss Mattie Stevens, Miss Lillie Stevens, of Philadelphia.

During the heavy thunder storm Monday, lightning struck a down tree over which bark was laid making a roof under which several of Dorsey's men were taking shelter.
The bark roof was knocked from over their heads and one man was considerably shocked and caused him to spit blood for some time after the occurrence.

Hon. W. C. Rogers who was removed to a Philadelphia hospital for treatment, has shown no change in his critical condition. There is believed to be a tumorous growth developing near the base of the brain and the doctors are considering the advisability of an operation. Other parts of the brain is not considered so hazardous in operating upon and only in extreme necessity will the surgeon's knife be used to restore his health.

Let the Borough Council pass a law that on the first day of April '04, all cattle, horses and swine are to be withdrawn from our streets providing suitable pasture at a reasonable figure can be secured, then there would be some inducement to clear up the underbrush surrounding us and transform the scenery into rich fields and make distant views more possible.

The Postoffice Department has decided a question which will be of interest to wives all over the country, the decision is that husbands cannot open the letters of their wives against their protest. The ruling is as follows: "A husband has no right to receive the mail addressed to his wife against her protest. As to the mail addressed to the children, the father has the prior right to receive it unless there be some particular circumstances in the case which the department might take into consideration on a statement of the facts being presented." This ruling has gone out to all postmasters as a result of repeated requests from postmasters all over the country for a ruling in the matter.

The Farm and Home publishes an article by a correspondent which bears on an aggravating evil which is being brought to the attention of the people and exterminated wherever it lifts its head in defiance of the law.
It truthfully says: "Where men with small farms are allowed to keep more stock than they can pasture on their own land, such stock often becomes a great nuisance. In this section (Freeland Mich.) the cattle of some persons stray the streets, roam roads at will and even feed on private grounds from early morn till night. Owners of such stock are either ignorant of cattle laws or deliberately intend to get all they can of this world's goods for nothing, regardless of the property of neighbors.
In time, the feed in the highway becomes short and the cattle troublesome. The man who keeps a herd of cattle more than he can feed and lets them run at will is imposing on his neighbors and the public."

CITY AND COUNTRY.

Their Mutual Dependence and Mutual Interests.
Lately we have heard much about the dominance of the country in urban affairs, especially in Greater New York. The contempt with which the New Yorker refers to that indefinite somewhere known as "up the state" can only be equaled by his abject dependence on the products of that same country "up the state" for his daily bread. Hence off the city of New York at the Harlem river and cut off supplies, and how long could she exist? If the country is dependent on the city for its markets, the city is doubly dependent on the country, for its very lifeblood is drawn from it.

After all, the only thing which God gave to man was the earth. From it comes all wealth. It has been placed nowhere else. It must be dug out of the soil in agriculture or wrought out of mines. All things spring from the soil, and all things must return to it.
Whatever else happens, whether panics come or national convulsions occur, though syndicates and trusts may corner production, yet the soil remains, and from it everything necessary to man's sustenance can be gained.

Condition depends upon character far more than character upon condition, and the usefulness of the resident of the country, like that of the city, is dependent upon faithfulness to duty. Let us make it our aim, then, whether we be residents of the country or the city—
To love some one more dear To help a wandering child To ponder o'er a noble deed And smile when evening falls; To follow truth as blind men long for light,
To do our best from dawn of day till night,
To keep our hearts fit for his holy sight And answer when he calls.
—George A. Fuller.

With Gorman at one end of the halter and the Democratic donkey at the other lively pulling and hauling may be expected, but the latter will at least and at last have a muleteer "ery far from being so complete an ass as itself.
Gorman possesses some discourse of reason and a looking before and after and can give the party a kind of leadership from which it parted some time ago, but which restored does not promise to keep it out of the ditch. It tends to that, hoofs upward, all the time, no matter who leads it before or kicks it behind.—New York Tribune.

A Bad Habit.
Some Democratic quacks have formed such a habit of laying all the blame for every sort of calamity on the protective tariff that if they were to see a neighbor's house on fire they would not think of a thing to do but rear back on their haunches and squall, "Repeat the tariff!"—Moravian Falls (N. C.) Yellow Jacket.

Show Us How.
The Commoner begins an editorial by saying, "If removing the coal tariff will cripple the coal trust," etc. But just hold on, Billy. We want you to show for the first time that the removal of the coal tariff has had any tendency to cripple the coal trust before you undertake to make sane folks believe that removing the tariff kills the trusts.—Moravian Falls (N. C.) Yellow Jacket.
