REPUBLICAN FLAG UP

State Committee Headquarters Opened For the Campaign.

WANT THE VOTERS TO QUALIFY

Citizens Who Pay Taxes This Year Will Be Qualified to Vote at Next Year's Presidential Election.

[Special Correspondence.]

Philadelphia, Sept. 8. — With the opening of the headquarters of the Republican state committee in this city yesterday, the campaign for the election of the nominees on the state ticket will be prosecuted with renewed activity.

Much preliminary work had already been done through the correspondence conducted by Secretary Wesley R. Andrews from Meadville, where he was engaged most of the summer keeping in touch with the chairmen of the county committees and others who take an interest in the affairs of the Republican organization.

Senator Penrose, chairman of the state committee, is now on his way home from British Columbia, where he spent his vacation, and until he reaches here Secretary Andrews will be the acting chairman. An efficient corps of assistants have been put to work and every department at the headquarters has already been organized and gotten under way.

PREPARE FOR NEXT YEAR.

It is not anticipated that there will be much of a demand for meetings before October, but the voters of the state will be enlightened in other ways as to the issues of the campaign and the importance of there being a large Republican vote polled at the coming election. The committeemen throughout the state were industrious in their efforts to get the Republicans of their respective precincts registered before the last day for registration expired, and they are now engaged in canvassing to inquire as to the voters who have not qualified themselves to vote at the November election by the payment of taxes.

In this state, in order for a citizen to be qualified to vote he must have paid a state or county tax within two years. Secretary Andrews states that unusual efforts will be taken this year to get the committeemen to see to it that the Republican voters are all qualified. Taxes paid this year will qualify voters for the presidential election, so that any work done now by the committeemen in this direction will be effective for the campaign for the election of Roosevelt next year.

REPORTS SO FAR RECEIVED FROM COUNTY CHAIRMEN ARE OF THE MOST ENCOURAGING CHARACTER, AND THEY LEAD THE STATE MANAGERS TO LOOK FOR VERY SATISFACTORY RETURNS ON ELECTION NIGHT.

MANY DEMOCRATS DISGUSTED.

From every quarter of the commonwealth come reports that conservative and substantial members of the Democracy are disgusted with the exhibition given by their party at the state convention held at Harrisburg last week. They had hoped to have the Democracy of Pennsylvania take its natural place in the cause of sound money and offset the radical Bryanite declarations of the Democratic convention held in Ohio a few days before, where there was an unqualified endorsement of the Kansas City platform. The Pennsylvania Democratic leaders, however, refused to listen to the advice of men of prominence and influence in professional and business life, who declined to follow the free silver and anarchistic policies of Bryan. They declined to come out boldly for a new deal in their national organization and an absolute reputation of Bryanism in every form.

GUFFEY IS TOO CLOSE TO THE BRYAN RING IN THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL COMMITTEE TO PERMIT ANYTHING OF THAT SORT, SO THAT ALL SUGGESTIONS FOR THE TURNING DOWN OF BRYANISM WERE BRUSHED ASIDE.

The result is that thousands of the best element among the Pennsylvania Democrats will refuse to support the ticket nominated last week at Harrisburg and will either not vote at all or will make their protest most effective by voting the entire Republican ticket.

The Democracy of Pennsylvania seems to be going from bad to worse.

Republican county leaders say that if the feeling of disgust among the sound money Democrats now manifested everywhere continues until election day, the Republican candidates on both state and county tickets will be the gainers by many thousands of votes.

Sound money Democrats appreciate that while Guffey failed to size up to the situation and put the party in this state on record against a reiteration of the free silver plank at the next national convention, they can enter an emphatic protest against this omission by supporting the Republican nominees on the state ticket who stand upon a platform for sound money and protection to American industries.

The Republican state convention, recognizing this canvass as preliminary to the national campaign of next year, went squarely on record on the national issues which should naturally be made prominent at this time.

As the date for the holding of the convention of the State League of Republican Clubs at Wilkesbarre draws near club members through the state are manifesting more interest in this event. The convention will assemble on Tuesday, the 22d inst., and many Republicans of prominence have agreed to be present.

BRYAN AND CLEVELAND.

Colonel Bryan's favorite plank (18 to 1) was knocked out by the Iowa Democratic convention. A more unneighborly or un-Christian-like act could hardly have been conceived.— Valley Mills (Tex.) Protectionist.

A Democratic paper in Philadelphia glories in the fact that Iowa Democrats in their convention "gave Bryanism a double thrust." Here is hoping the Missouri Democrats will follow the example.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Mr. Bryan need not bother himself about whether the Cleveland "movement" is a comedy or a tragedy, since it "moves" only in the imagination of the verbose press agent.—Brooklyn
