County Seat
Local and Personal Events tersely Told.

Mrs. E. E. Wrede was shopping in Dushore Thursday.

Mrs. A. E. Tripp is recovering from a very severe attack of quinsy.
Miss Maud Gansel of Williams-sport, is visiting her parents here.

The oyster, the harvest moon and the equinoctial are all in season this month.

Del Edkin, conductor on passenger train 525, is off duty this week owing to sickness.

Contractor William Remynyder of Jamison City was a county seat business man on Monday.

Mrs. Thos. J. Ingham returned home Sunday from her visit at Eagles Mere.

Miss Anna Bonci of Ithaca, spent a few days this week with friends at this place.

How about Indian summer? It is to be hoped the weather man will not deprive us of it.

Misses Mame and Pearl Heim have returned home after spending two weeks with friends in Athens.

George Schrader of Athens spent Thursday of last week with his brother Edwin Schrader.

Mr. and Mrs. Oravis Bonci of Murray Heights, spent Thursday with friends at Laporte.

Leo Heim, Collins Stackhouse and Ellery Crossley rode their wheels to Eagles Mere Sunday and now talk of their pleasant time.

The many friends of Miss Mame Fries are pleased to learn that she is recovering from her severe illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Saxe of Wilmont spent Sunday with his sister Mrs. Mike Flynn.

A very desirable dwelling house on Mokoma Heights is offered for rent at low price. Inquire of C. R.
Funston, Laporte.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kane of Buffalo, who has been visiting Sheriff Cott's family the past week, have gone to Shunk for a short sojourn.

Miss Harriet E. Grimm left here on Sunday evening for Barnsboro, Pa., where she has been employed to teach in one of the borough's schools.

Some time ago the Postoffice Club scribe penned a verse on one "Silas" and the way it was received is best understood by the fact that nothing has been heard of the scribe since responding to an invitation by Silas to leave one of the Club's meetings.

Messrs. Percy Bay and Henry Warburton while in town attending examination Tuesday made a call at the News Item office. The young men show that they have an eye for general observation and take an interest in such things of life that make good and use to citizens.

R. A. Conklin was in Williamsport the early part of this week being a witness in the trial of France Geiger's son who was charged with assault and battery on a playmate.
The verdict of the jury found the boy guilty. The sentence imposed was $1 fine and costs.

Prof. L. L. Ford and family closed their summer home at this place, last Saturday, and returned to their home in Philadelphia. The best wishes of a host of friends for health and happiness, follow them to their city home. A warm welcome is sure to await the genial professor and his wife when another summer again brings them into our midst.

Commencing on September 15th a free rural delivery mail route will be established at Forksville, taking in Eastern Elkland township and the Millview district of Forks township. Another route is contemplated which would also start from Forksville, thence down the Loyal Sock creek to Elk creek, thence to Lincoln Falls taking in the Eastern portion of Fox township and the remaining portion of Elkland, thus abandoning the Estella and Mill-view postoffices.

The President has injected a new quantum of strenuousness in the Postoffice investigation. Postmaster General Payne departed so seriously from President Roosevelt's policy in dismissing Postmistress Hulda Todd, that it is freely predicted there will soon be a vacancy in the cabinet.
It is a pity, but it is none the less true, that there is no administration without its portion of "graft" and scandal, but never was an administration which laid the axe to the root of its scandals with the energy displayed by President Roosevelt.

C. R. Funston has a superior grade of shell oysters for sale.

By a recent ruling of the Postoffice Department each rural mail carrier in the United States will be required to take a careful census of his route and copy the names in a book provided for the purpose. Slips are prepared for the carriers and these will be left with the families to be filled out, each slip to contain the names of all parties receiving mail at the house, even to the help. In this manner the name of everyone along the routes will be before the postmaster and he will have no trouble in forwarding mail. Married ladies will be designated by their own names instead of those of their husband.

The Forksville Fair Ground Restaurant will be conducted this season in up-to-date manner. Warm meals at all hours can be had without leaving the grounds.
