County Seat

from the city and is prepared to do dressmaking at W. A. Rosencranes.

Miss Ella Tripp is the guest of Williamsport friends.

Mrs. Lizzie Little of Bellwood, is visiting her father, Mr. John Has-sin.

Hon. A. L. Dyer of Lopez, transacted business at the county seat on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lauer of Dushore, spent Sunday with Laporte friends.

Victor Lauer, one of Uncle Sam's letter carriers of Scranton, visited his mother, Mrs. M. C. Lauer, this week.

Mrs. E. P. Ingham and son Donald, visited Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Ingham at Eagles Mere last week.

Mr. J. M. Bradbury, who spent the summer at Laporte, returned to his home at Buffalo, on Wednesday.

Among those from Laporte who attended the Forksville Fair were Dr. and Mrs. Randall, Mr. and Mrs.
E. P. Ingham, Mrs. E. M. Dunham, Miss Eliza Shaut, Mr. and Mrs. F.
W. Meylert, F. M. Crossley and F.
H. Ingham and F. W. Gallagher.

On Monday night, at Canton, occurred a shooting episode in which Edward Watkins, colored, was shot through the right lung by Charles Decker, a white man. The trouble was one of long standing, and both were intoxicated at the time the shooting was done. It is thought that Watkins will recover.

While exhibiting his "Uncle Tom's Cabin," which toured Sullivan county last week, Charles Phillips, the proprietor, was arrested at Montoursville by an officer of the Society of Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, charged with cruelty to his animals. He was arranged before the Justice of the Peace and fined $20 and costs.

Miss Myrtle Edgar of Sonestown, who is well known in this section of the county, having been a teacher in the public schools for the past six years, and a most zealous worker in the M. E. church at Sonestown, last week left for Washington, D. C. where she has entered a school in which she will prepare herself for the work of a Missionary Deaconess of the M. E. Church.

Mr. Eugene Farrell of Kane, Pa. and Miss Mary Gahan, of Dushore, were united in marriage, Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock, by Rev. X. A.
Kaider at St. Basil's church. The bride is a daughter of County Com.
Thomas Gahan, the groom being a son of James K. Farrell of Cherry.
After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents. The happy couple left on the evening train for Kane, where they will make their future home.

A farmer living near Rohrsburg, Columbia county, has a monstrosity in the shape of a calf. This animal has the head of a calf while its body has all of the appearance of being that of an elephant. The body is full and clumsy and with all the characteristics of his larger herbivorous friend. The tail is also the very image of that of the beast that carries his trunk with him, and at the first glance at the animal not happening to see its head, one's first impulse would be to call the brute an elephant. The animal is now quite large, being about three months old, and is highly prized by its owner. All the residents in that district have been to see the freak, and all are of the opinion that it is worth going miles to look at.

SITUATION WANTED:—"A man of all work" wants steady position on farm, no choice of locality. Never get tired, work rain or shine, wind or calm, day or night, both if necessary. A hired man that needs no watching, takes no vacation and never kicks. Will work twelve hours for, according to the kind of work, from 12c to 25c. Yes, I am a cheap hand, but I assure you good service. Good for twenty years.
Can cut wood, churn, turn separators, cut kindling, thrash grain, cut fodder, grind feed, can do almost everything but vote. I am sold in the market for a slave any where from $120 to $360. My name is Mr. Fairbank. I have a brother, not quite as good as myself who is sold as low as $75. For further information see adv. elsewhere in these columns, and inquire of the agent at Laporte.

J. M. Zaner, last week, moved his household goods from this place to Ricketts, where he will occupy the Ricketts Hotel. Although a temperance house it has for a number of years held the reputation of being the best place for good meals in Wyoming county. With the present occupants in charge there is no doubt this excellent reputation will be maintained.

Sullivan County has every reason to feel proud since the Hughesville Fair of last week, as it was then proved that for handsome babies and popular men Sullivan is in the front ranks. The Fair's prize for the handsomest baby present at the Fair and which consisted of a handsome baby carriage, was awarded to the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. T. J.
Shug of Muncy Valley, and the prize offered for the most popular man in the employ of the W. & N. B.
Railroad Company, which was a handsome lantern, was awarded to Conductor Starr of the Eagles Mere railroad. It is hard to understand how the judges were able to reach a decision in the latter case as there are so many genial and popular employes in the service of the W. & N. B. railroad, nevertheless, we extend congratulations to Conductor Starr.

M. C. M. Duryea, inspector of the postoffice department, was at New Albany on Wednesday making an examination of the affairs of the postoffice at that place. As the continuation in office of the present postmaster depends upon the examination, there is much interest in the announcement of the result. The postoffice has been in charge of the deputy postmaster of late. It is said that the bondsmen hold a note for $203, given by the postmaster's wife, to cover the amount that her husband is alleged to be short in his accounts.
It is said that his friends will put in a plea of insanity or irresponsibility against the charge of misconduct in the office. He has been drinking heavily for some time past and at times acted like a man mentally unbalanced.

Happy is the man or woman who has the faculty of making a pleasure out of their work and thus getting their support as well as their enjoyment at the same time and from the same source. Unhappy on the contrary is he or she who go to their work like a galley slave, sorry when they commence, glad only when they end. Skill, too, in knowing how to do things in the best way is a very valuable accomplishment.
Many people do their work in the wrong way. They try to cut grain with dull tools, "pull off more than they can chew," in the way of land to be tilled, fail to "grease the wheels" and otherwise manage to make their work doubly hard. As it is only the well oiled machinery that runs smoothly, so the friction of life may be greatly lessened by doing all things at the right time and in the right place.

Life Insurance
A FEW OF THE MANY REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD HAVE A POLICY
WITH THE NEW YORK LIFE

BECAUSE—Incontestable from the date of issue. Because—absolutely without restrictions. Because—non forfeitable from date of issue. Because—cash loans are provided after second year, on demand at 5 per cent interest without fee or other charge.
Because—if death does not occur an accumulative policy is a highly profitable investment for the policy-holder who lives.

Policies now maturing to living policy-holders prove this. In fact NEW YORK LIFE policies do not leak.
