

Severe

Nervous Trouble and Dyspepsia.

No Sleep for Weeks Because of Pain.

Dr. Miles' Nervine Gave Back My Health.

Dyspepsia nearly always arises from a derangement of the nerves. When the stomach is not well the entire system suffers. Constipation, bad breath, sour stomach, frequent headaches, biliousness, etc., will lead to terrible consequences if not treated in time. Dr. Miles' Nervine is a specific for nervous dyspepsia and all nervous diseases.

"My health was miserable for years, due to severe nervous trouble and dyspepsia. I had not been able to sleep for weeks at a time without being awakened with pains in my chest and stomach. My limbs felt tired, I was unable to do my house work without feeling completely worn out. The doctors failed to relieve me, and after taking an endless amount of their medicines I began taking Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and Nerve and Liver Pills. I obtained relief from the first bottle of Nervine, was able to sleep better than I had in years. My stomach began to gain strength and I felt better in many ways. I have taken twelve bottles of Nervine and Liver Pills, I have them on hand all the time. I feel very grateful for the Dr. Miles Remedies."—Mrs. J. W. WHITMAN, Mechanic Falls, Me.

TOPICS FOR DISCUSSION.

Some Suggestions For the Worthy Lecturer's Programmes.

Sometimes it happens that lecturers of subordinate granges are at a loss to know what subject to suggest for discussion at grange meetings. We submit a few that will be found interesting and profitable.

Is the local telephone an advantage to the farmer?

What is the best for the average farmer, special or mixed farming?

From what may the farmer receive the most education in his calling today? Have men or women exercised the greatest influence on civilization and happiness?

Which is the best for a young man—a college education or an eight acre farm?

What is the cheapest and best way of building a road?

Is it right to exempt life insurance companies, saving banks and loan associations from taxation?

Are farmers receiving a reasonable return for the capital and labor invested in their farms?

Should country schoolhouses be used as centers for social neighborhood meetings?

How many pounds of butter should a good dairy cow make in a year and what should she be fed?

Should the government or state aid in defraying the cost of constructing highways built according to standard requirements?

Would the importation of farm laborers through the department of agriculture at Washington be desirable?

Farmers Should Join the Grange.

While the grange is making rapid strides in membership this year, there are still a great many farmers who are not members of the Order of Patrons of Husbandry. More than 30,000,000 people of the United States are engaged in agriculture. The moral, social, educational and financial status of so large a number of our people is a matter of interest to every good citizen. The primary purpose of the grange is to educate and elevate the American farmer. Every patriotic farmer should join the grange and help the good work along, and every other good citizen, as opportunity may offer, should speak a word of encouragement.

The secretary of the Oklahoma territorial board of agriculture is taking steps to introduce the grange into the territory with a view to benefiting agricultural interests there.

THEIR BLUFF CALLED

Republicans Are Eager to Meet the Democrats On State Issues.

ARE PROUD OF THEIR RECORD

State Finances Never In Better Condition and Every Department of the State Government is Managed With Signal Ability and Economy.

[Special Correspondence.]

Harrisburg, Sept. 29.—The Republican managers have called the bluff of the Democrats in the present canvass and announced that they are ready to meet their spellbinders upon any issue they may present.

The Democratic state platform was built entirely upon what were termed "state issues." Owing to the wide difference of opinion among Democrats of today as to what the Democratic party in the nation really stands for, it was deemed wise to avoid further disruptions in the party by attempting to place the Pennsylvania Democratic organization on record upon any of the great national questions which divide the parties.

Never in the history of the Democracy have their leaders been so much at sea as they are today.

They are floundering about afraid to attempt to land anywhere, and they see the young men of the country just entering into citizenship looking upon them with expressions of disgust and contempt and refusing to have anything to do with them or their party.

With the presidential campaign to be waged next year, the "first voters" naturally have their minds directed to fundamental principles of government and the issues which have divided the national parties in previous elections, but when they turn to the Pennsylvania Democracy they discover that there is no settled or fixed policy with which the party organization is directed. They are told that "national issues are not being discussed this year; it is all state issues."

LET STATE ISSUES BE DISCUSSED. While believing that the campaign this fall is actually a preliminary skirmish of the national contest next year, and that the returns of the election in November will have a positive influence in shaping the lines for the presidential struggle, the Republican campaign managers in Pennsylvania have expressed themselves as ready and eager to meet the Democrats at their own game. Let state issues be freely discussed, they say.

The Republican orators in this campaign point with pride to the administration of every public trust that has been committed to the Republican party and its candidates in Pennsylvania.

The state treasury was never in a better condition and the administration of Governor Pennypacker meets with the indorsement of all fair-minded citizens who recognize the fact that they have a thoroughly patriotic and conscientious executive officer who is administering his office in the interest of the whole people.

Every branch of the state government is being managed ably and economically.

CANDIDATE MATHUES' VIEWS

Candidate for State Treasurer William L. Mathues, in discussing the political situation, said:

"There are no 'off years' in our organization, nor should there be any at any time in the Republican party. Sometimes the offices in number and importance to be voted for are greater and more exalted, but each year has its current duties and responsibilities, and this year, preceding as it does the national struggle for president, should be one in which this grand old commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in which I was born and in which I live, and which all of us love and are proud of, should speak in no uncertain or faltering tones.

"In this republic of ours Pennsylvania occupies the most exalted position, and I am one of those who are of the opinion that this supremacy of our commonwealth is greatly, almost wholly we may justly contend, due to the supremacy of our party. Under Republican control in its principal departments almost continuously since 1860, we have advanced marvelously in industrial strength and wealth, augmented our manufacturing power until it leads all other states and competes with foreign plants in the four corners of the world. Our state finances are stable, our credit gilt-edged and the debt comparatively effaced. Our educational system and its advantages by reason of the liberality of the state are unsurpassed and unequalled. Prosperity abounds, the times are good and contentment environs our people, and what is better than all, the outlook for the future is auspicious.

"There is no cloud as big as a man's hand on the horizon, save only the danger of Democratic control—the recurrence of those deplorable 'Democratic times' we all recall, some to their sorrow, when the bitter cry of those in the gainful occupations who sought work and found it not, went up in distress to the heavens everywhere over our fair land. I do not want those times again. Even many of our Democratic friends fear them, for they have gotten into a fashion (a good many of them) of voting with us and for our candidates and policy.

"Let us take no insane leap in the dark. Putting on our armor and girding up our political loins this year for the great battle of 1904, let Pennsylvania declare in most emphatic terms that she intends to stand resolutely and confidently by the McKinley policy and the policy of our own able and aggressive young President Roosevelt and leave well enough alone."

Short Talks On Advertising By Charles Austin Bates.

No. 25. I talked the other day with a man who had failed in the drug business. He said that he didn't believe that advertising a drug store paid, and that it was so different from other businesses that advertising could not possibly help it.

He said that his store had been an exceptionally good one; that the location was very fair, and that the stock was above reproach, but there were two other drug stores nearby which had been there for some time before he came. The people round about were acquainted with them, and to some they were just a little bit more conveniently situated than the new store.

"There were two other drug stores nearby. The people round about were acquainted with them."

My friend, the druggist, didn't try advertising. That is the way he knows that it does not pay. He said: "People do not realize that there is a difference in drugs—that the paregoric they get in one drug store is better than that which they get in another."

Advertising would have saved that man's business. By advertising he would have introduced himself to the people, and they would have become acquainted with him and his store in that way. By advertising he could tell them that there were different grades of paregoric, and that he kept the best grade; but he didn't try it, and so he knows positively that advertising doesn't pay.

Maybe he would have had to advertise three or six months, or possibly for a year, before he would have found that he was gaining actual profit on his advertising expenditure. Advertising a new business is, to a certain extent, like advertising in the dull season. It is the after-effect that must be looked at and not the immediate returns. Even if a new man were to meet his prospective customers personally, it would be some time before he would make actual buyers of them.

It is this way with a traveling salesman. The first few trips in a new territory do not consume very many pages of his order book. In the mean time he is getting acquainted—advertising. He is letting people know who he is and what he is doing, and what he wants. If he is pleasant and courteous and persistent, he will win trade, but it will take time.

Do not expect an ad to do more than a man. Copyright, Charles Austin Bates, New York.

YOUR KIDNEYS ARE THEY WELL?

Unless they are, good health is impossible.

Every drop of blood in the body passes through and is filtered by healthy kidneys every three minutes. Sound kidneys strain out the impurities from the blood, diseased kidneys do not, hence you are sick. FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE makes the kidneys well so they will eliminate the poisons from the blood. It removes the cause of the many diseases resulting from disordered kidneys which have allowed your whole system to become poisoned.

Rheumatism, Bad Blood, Gout, Gravel, Dropsy, Inflammation of the Bladder, Diabetes and Bright's Disease, and many others, are all due to disordered Kidneys. A simple test for Kidney disease is to set aside your urine in a bottle or glass for twenty-four hours. If there is a sediment or a cloudy appearance, it indicates that your kidneys are diseased, and unless something is done they become more and more affected until Bright's Disease or Diabetes develops.

FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE is the only preparation which will positively cure all forms of Kidney and Bladder troubles, and cure you permanently. It is a safe remedy and certain in results.

If You are a sufferer, take FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE at once. It will make you well.

Some Pronounced Incurable
Mr. G. A. Stillson, a merchant of Tampico, Ill., writes: "FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE is meeting with wonderful success. It has cured some cases here that physicians pronounced incurable. I myself am able to testify to its merits. My face today is a living picture of health and FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE has made it such."

Had Lumbago and Kidney Trouble
Edward Huss, a well known business man of Salisbury, Mo., writes: "I wish to say for the benefit of others, that I was a sufferer from lumbago and kidney trouble, and all the remedies I took gave me no relief. I began to take FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE, and after the use of three bottles I am cured."
