HIS CALL TO ARMS

fepublican State Chairman Address es County Committeemen.

BKIRMISH OF NATIONAL FIGHT

Widespread Significance of the Pres ent Canvass In Pennsylvania and the Influence of Its Result On the Approaching Presidential Campaign. [Special Correspondence.]

Philadelphia, Oct. 6.—Chairman Pen rose, in an address to the members of the Republican county committees throughout the state, has just sounded call to arms" to every active Re publican of the commonwealth in an urgent request to begin active worl for the entire Republican ticket and expressing the hope that this activity will not cease until the polls are close

The Republican field marshal dwells upon the importance of the contest and makes it clear that this campaign is but the skirmish of the nationa struggle which is to take place next

CHAIRMAN'S CALL TO ACTION.

Following is a copy of the address which is being mailed to the county committeemen by Chairman Penrose:
"Your name has been sent me by your county chairman as having been selected by the Republican voters of your election district to represent them on the county committee, and after congratulating you upon the honor conferred to represent such ar nonor conferred to represent such an intelligent body of voters I beg to impress upon you that the contest this year is the opening skirmish of the great battle to be fought next year, when a president and vice president are to be chosen, also representatives in congress and members of the genera

'It is therefore desirable, on accoun of the effect it will have upon next year's contest, that every Republican voter have impressed upon him the importance of the present contest and the necessity for him to take part in the campaign and that that activity be not allowed to cease until the last Republican vote in his district has been polled on election day.

"This course is suggested particularly, as a large and emphatic majority will be considered throughout the na-tion as the indorsement of Pennsylva nia of the splendid administration of President Roosevelt and the desire that the same be continued.

PENNSYLVANIA IS POTENTIAL.

"As a matter of fact the utterances of the Republicans of Pennsylvania, as reflected through the ballotbox, have great weight in the declarations contained in the platforms adopted at Republican national conventions.

Therefore an overwhelming majority in Pennsylvania this year will considered as Pennsylvania's voice in behalf of the continuance of the present era of prosperity and an emphatic protest against any and all attempts a tariff tinkering—in other words, such a verdict will be accepted to mean that Pennsylvania is in favor of leaving 'well enough alone,' a policy which, if pursued, will prevent business disturbances and the consequent inaugura-tion of the period of depression which usually prevails during presidentia

"I assume that you can readily un derstand the occasion for the activity suggested herein and that I can rely upon you for prompt, energetic and painstaking work.

"I further suggest that you keep in touch with your county chairman, informing him regarding the situation in your district and be guided by his interventions." structions will add for your further informa tion that reports from all parts of the state point to a great victory in November next for the 'party of posperity,' and you can rely upon it that such will be the result if the Republicans of the state display their usual activity. "BOIES PENROSE, Chairman."

SIGNS THAT POINT TO VICTORY.

There has been much activity at the Republican state headquarters since Senator Penrose's return from his va-cation trip. Many of the county lead-ers have been in to confer with him about party matters and others who take an interest in the party organization have called to show their interest

The fact that in many of the counties the matter of congressional and legislative nominations is now being discussed brings up prominently the fact that next year will be a very important one in state and national polities and that the outcome of next menth's election must necessarily have a bearing upon the outlook for Republican success next year.

Since Senator Penrose got back Secretary Andrews has had more time to devote to the correspondence bureau, and it is fortunate that he has, for there has been a flood of letters received at headquarters at every man bearing upon the state campaign.

This is regarded as a very significant feature of the canvass, for when the members of the county committees will take the pains to write to headquarters regarding the sentiment and the outdook in their respective election districts it is a sure indication that the party workers are aroused to their duty and that they will leave nothing undone to bring out a full Republican vote at the coming elec-

Fully a majority of the members of the last legislature have been in-cluded among the callers at the headquarters since Senater Penrese's return, and they all agree that the record of the last session of the general assembly in the liberal appopriations to the public schools, the large sums of money set aside for the improvement of the public roads and the other meritorious measures which were passed and approved by Governor Pennypacker has met with popular ap-

A Free Trader's Admission There are times when the most per-sistent antiprotectionist temporarily abandons his role and becomes enthu stastic over the wonderful industrial and commercial record of the United States, attained under the operation of the protective tariff. After referring the protective tariff. to the figures of exports of articles and groups of articles sent abroad last year the Pittsburg Post says: "The foundation of our prosperity present and prospective, rests on the continuous demand that there always must be for these articles and groups of articles. This enforces the fact that the fabric of our export trade sests on broad and deep foundations, for in this great trade we are not dealing in the luxuries and superfluities, but in the necessaries, of life. The things we produce the world must have, and we cannot be boycotted. The fifteen hun-dred millions of our exports of farm products and manufactures stand for products and manufactures stand for the great staples of the world's cem merce and trade. Cotton and food-stuffs are kings, and we are adding to their suppermecy all the time by our exports and manufactures."

The free traders have all along de-clared vehiclently that the foundation of our presperity depends upon imports; that an excess of imports over exports made a balance of trade in our favor; that we could never prosper un-til we should "throw down the tariff barniers." It is encouraging to find a Democratic organ indorsing the Repub lican tariff policy and proclaiming its fruits.-Harrisburg Telegraph.

Not a Pleasant Picture. If by any mischance the Democrance party should win in 1904 and if Democratic heresies were to have the sway they did under the second Cleveland administration and if the result should be half as disastrous to the party as it was then, then Bryan would become a demigod instead of a demagogue in the estimation of many people, and we might look for another visitation of Pepulism. Then this country would present a case of mental confusion compared with which bedlam itself would be a place of serene and complacent self control. - Marion (Ind.)
