Ex-Associate Judge Taylor of Strawbridge, was at the county seat on Tuesday.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Flynn, who has been very ill, is improved at this writing.

Tony Nardine has returned from the Williamsport Commercial College where he has been taking a business course.

The M. E. church is about to receive a much needed new coat of paint. C. R. Funston will do the work.

Mr. and Mrs. John Frisbie of Renwick, spent Sunday and Monday with their daughter, Mrs. B. S. Cowell.

There is a photograph gallery in Laporte; but if we want our pictures taken we'll have to "get there," as he only stays a few days.

Mr. George Shoemaker of Cross Fork, visited his son Atty. W. P. Shoemaker, the early part of the week.

Two Italians with a well trained bear furnished an unusual amount of amusement for both old and young, in front of the Laporte Hotel on Tuesday afternoon.

Atty. A. J. Bradley recently opened a law office at 1328 Arch street Philadelphia, and last week tried his first case in the courts of that city, which resulted in a victory for his client.

The heater in the Court house is being repaired this week and the occupants of the building will soon have more comfortable quarters. Those who were obliged to be in their offices suffered much discomfort from the cold damp weather of a few weeks.

The Department of Public Instruction and the public schools of the State should be encouraged and assisted in the proper celebration and observance of Arbor Day, which has been fixed for Friday, October 16. It will mean a great deal to posterity if each public school pupil for the next generation annually plants a tree.

The M. E. Church is receiving a much needed new coat of paint both inside and outside, and a handsome new carpet will be put on the floor, which, in addition to a general renovation, will very much improve the appearance of the edifice. Mr. C. R. Funston is doing the work.

Captain S. S. Ormsby, the one-leg veteran will give an entertainment with his phonograph and symphony at the Baptist church, next Tuesday evening. Come out and enjoy an evening of amusement. Latest songs, music by the world's most famous bands, funny sayings, given in a most distinct and pleasing manner. Admission 10 and 15 cents.

The mail route from Laporte to Forksville, by the way of Eagles Mere, will be discontinued on Oct. 16th and start from Forksville at 6:30 mornings, traveling the new Loyalsock road. Bids for carrying mail on this route was closed October 6. It is rumored that Mr. Schanabacher of Forksville was the only bidder.

M. E. Reeder, formerly of Laporte, won all the prizes for thoroughbred cattle at the Hughesville Fair, as follows: Four year old Jersey bull, six dollars; eight year old Jersey cow, three dollars; Jersey cow and calf, first prize, five dollars, second three dollars; two year old Jersey cow, four dollars; Jersey heifer, two dollars; best display of live stock, $25 special premium offered by the W. & N. B. Railroad company.

As a pointer to constables and other township authorities who do not perform their whole duty when making quarterly returns to court, the following may be cited: In court at Wilkesbarre on Saturday Nescopeck township was found guilty of maintaining bad roads and was fined $30 and costs. Plains township was found guilty on the same charge and was fined $50 and costs. The court ordered that hereafter road nuisance indictments should be made out against municipal officials, in order that, if convicted, they could be individually punished for neglecting their duties.—Bradford Republican.

Not only has the number of granges increased more rapidly in 1903 than ever before, but many old granges report large accessions to their membership. This is as it should be, but the objects of the grange should not be lost sight of in the hour of increased numerical strength, remarks the New England Farmer. Discipline, education, co-operation—these cannot be sacrificed even for numbers without loss of power and diminished influence.

Carry Out the Programme.

The grange is in no sense a migratory institution, as is proved by its ritualistic and fixed forms of work. No grange can hold successful meetings within the full intents of the Order, says Mr. George B. Horton, unless it secures or provides for itself a fixed and regular place for holding meetings. Said place should be such as to permit the seating and working of the grange in full form as provided in the ritual. If from necessity a grange is meeting here and there or in such place that the members cannot in fact conduct a real grange the members should consider it a first and imperative duty to the life of the grange to secure or build some kind of a structure which the members may call their grange home. This place may be ever so humble and entirely within the limits of the possibilities of the members to provide, but in and around it can be gathered and fixed the evidences of permanency.

Not a Political Organization.

The grange is not a political organization, but it is within its province to speak out boldly on all questions of vital importance to its members whenever necessary to do so. The grange is a potent factor in fashioning governmental affairs at the present day.

For a Political Organization.

The grange is growing in prestige and influence by having the sympathy and support of the intelligent, cultivated and thinking people.
