Jasper Gasperine of Bridgeport Conn., was visiting old time friends in the second ward, Tuesday.

S. W. Brown of Philadelphia, passed through town Tuesday evening on his return from visiting Estella friends. Mr. Brown is engaged in the insurance business in the Quaker city.

Some one was successful in calling up the Laporte telephone exchange Monday and in sending the news to the Williamsport Sun of the 300 lb. bear killed by Gordon Warburton at Estella, the story got converted somewhere along the line into giving F.
W. Gallagher the honor of the victory and it was so published. You can begin to make yourself familiar with these facts.

Mrs. W. B. Ritter spent Wednesday with her daughter at Satterfield.

Miss Bessie Flynn of York State,

Michael, and later will visit her brother Edward, at Hillsgrove.

Joseph, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. John Fries, last Sunday fell off the porch where he was playing was at first thought that his arm was broken, but on the arrival of Dr.

Randall who was called to attend him, it was found to be only a bad bruise.

to the Williamsport Hospital, last week suffering with a broken back, died on Thursday. He is survived by a wife and several children.

Hatton, both of Mildred, were married on Wednesday, November 4th, was burned to death while trying to extinguish forest fires near his home Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Martin Gallagher, formerly of this place is one of the nine surviving children of Mr. McHale.

We have no hesitancy in voicing our belief that an election judge who gets so filled up with happiness that there is no room within him for any other emotion or to be able to exercise any faculty while serving on an election board, and his friends pronounce him intoxicated and has to leave his honored station, is of that class of citizens who regard executive dignity with about as much concern as could pass through the eye of a needle.

It would be a rather mellow joke on the editor of this paper for having been obliged to swear in his vote on Tuesday, owing to the assessor failing in his duty to place our name on the registry list, but for the fact that many others were subjected to unnecessary delay in their voting for the same reason, places the joke in that class which has no funnyness about it that we can see. There is little room for excuse in placing such an erroneous registry list in the hands of an election board as was in use at Laporte Tuesday. The law never intended that a resident and real estate tax payer of many years should chase up incompetent assessors to examine their books for omissions.
It is their duty to make the list correctly from the assessment books, if that is not done they are either incompetent or uselessly neglectful in those affairs. However when such incidents do occur we believe a gentleman would offer some manner of apology, but we have learned to share the common knowledge that all assessors are not gentlemen.

A TARIFF CAMPAIGN

DEMOCRATS MUST MAKE IT THE ISSUE NEXT YEAR.

They Can Accomplish Nothing by It Unless Republicans Are Foolish Enough to Divide and Scatter Their Strength.

Every indication points to the tariff as the issue for 1904. By all means let it be so. The Philippine question is settled; our splendid financial laws, if amended at the coming session of congress, will be as near perfect as possible, and there remains only the tariff for the Democrats to take up. And where will they land? Will they discuss wages? What will they say to the 20,000,000 laborers in industrial pursuits who are employed full time and at wages individually and collectively greater than ever before known?
Will they discuss prices? What will they say to the 10,000,000 farmers who are getting profitable returns for their work, while the consumer, with his large income, is willing that his cost of living should be in proportion to the price which he receives for his product —labor. Will they discuss savings?
What will they say of the $3,000,000,000 in the savings banks of the country?
Will they discuss foreign trade? What will they say of our billion and a half of exports? Will they discuss internal business? What will they say of our more than $100,000,000,000 of bank clearings? Will they discuss railroads?
What will they say of increased earnings year after year, of increased number of employees and about $100,000,000 increase in wages annually?

No, they will not discuss any of these questions. They will discuss, first, trusts, not foreign trusts, which are ready to swoop down on our markets and strangle our industries if we let down the tariff bars. No, they will say nothing of these great foreign combinations, but they will twang the harp and ring the changes on American trusts, which mainly do not exist. But even that will not avail, for the people know that under our industrial combinations they are having work and wages, and the farmer knows he is getting good, fair prices, and so the trust demagogues will fall on heedless ears in 1904. But never mind, there is still the great card—reciprocity—to play, and it will be played by every free trade orator and every free trade editor for all it is worth. Why? Because they believe in it? No, indeed! Did not the Democrats repeal all the reciprocity treaties in 1894? Why the change of front then? Simply because there are foolish Republicans enough to encourage them. Divide and conquer is the cry, and so long as Republicans aid and encourage and abet the Democrats, so long will there be danger of the outcome. Despairing of getting free trade for years to come, they are willing to accept the entering wedge, reciprocity, in any form and to any degree. Here, then, is the issue for 1904.—American Economist.

Whatever farmers are doing as farmers should interest every farmer.

A Pomona's Lofly Ideals.
A recent meeting of the Chautauqua county (N. Y.) Pomona grange was held in the Volusia M. E. church at an altitude of 1,557 feet, says an exchange.
The response to the address of welcome was made by Louis McKinstry, editor of the Fredonia Censor, first lecturer of the first grange ever regularly organized.

It may not be generally known that a law was passed last winter which compels all tax collectors under a penalty of $200 to collect and settle their tax duplicates on or before the 1st day of May following the tax levy. For instance, the tax for 1903 must be settled by May next and the 1902 tax is past due.

The Hughesville Mail is responsible for the assertion that Eagles Mere will soon lose one of its enterprising citizens in the person of Mr.
Walter Trappe, the efficient plumber, who will move to Hughesville where he will make his permanent home.

Three Polanders of Bernice, were arrested for nearly killing one of their countrymen in a fight last week, and brought to the county jail to await trial at court. There are now five prisoners under Sheriff Cott's care, and all of them are foreigners.
