article published in the Sullivan Herald last week, makes reply to the statements made in the News Item concerning the Polish woman recently arrested at Bernice and lodged in used any violence in her arrest. Awe have no reason to doubt his state-yet her story of the affair was some-

By a decision of the Suprem-Court of Pennsylvania, just handed down, 30,000 acres of forest in the mountains of Pike and Monroe counties—the best hunting and fishing region in that famous wilderness—is thrown open to the people.
The decision adjudges the Blooming-Grove Park Association, make up chiefly of prominent New York men, an illegal corporation and annulls its charter.

Rural mail carriers are strictly prohibited from carrying verbal messages. If a farmer should tell them to tell neighbor Jones to come down his way, as he wanted to see him, the carrier could not lawfully deliver the message. The proper method would be for the farmer to write a letter or postal to neighbor Jones and have the carrier deliver it.
The reason is that the government wants all the revenue possible from the postal service, and desires those who are benefitted by it to pay for the same.

Dr. N. C. Schaeffer, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, recently gave some very decided views on the overburdened public school curriculum, at a teachers' institute. He declared it was of more importance to have a knowledge of reading, writing and reckoning than of whales, butterflies, etc. He pleaded with the teachers to be not dis-tricted by extraneous subjects to the detriment of the three essentials named above, and at the same time emphasized the importance of geography and drawing. He gave his approval of instruction along the lines of domestic science and industrial training.

WHEREAS, HON. E. M. DUNHAM, President

An exchange gives the following rules for hunters to strictly follow: Hunters should remember, first, to always crawl over a fence with the muzzle of the gun toward you. Then should anything catch on the trigger the coroner will get a job and the newspaperman something to write about the next week. Second. If you see anything moving in the brush you want to fire instantly; never stop to consider. Of course it may be another hunter, but you can call around in the morning and explain to the widow that you thought it was a pheasant. She will probably think you are a bird. Third.
Always leave the hammer of your gun up if you have anybody with you. If it should fall, your friend will probably catch the ammunition in his back before it goes far. You can then pick the shot out at leisure.
Numerous other wise precautions will suggest themselves while you are in prison awaiting trial, should you survive Rule No. 1.

Life Insurance
A FEW OF THE MANY REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD HAVE A POLICY
WITH THE NEW YORK LIFE

BECAUSE—Incontestable from the date of issue. Because—absolutely without restrictions. Because—non forfeitable from date of issue. Because—cash loans are provided after second year, on demand at 5 per cent interest without fee or other charge.
Because—if death does not occur an accumulative policy is a highly profitable investment for the policy-holder who lives.

Policies now maturing to living policy-holders prove this. In fact NEW YORK LIFE policies do not leak.
