Miss Bessie Wrede spent Wednesday at Williamsport.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Schrader drove to Dushore on Monday.

The friends of Miss Mame Fries will be glad to learn that she is improving

Attorney Bradley came up from Philadelphia on Monday to be present at court this week.

Miss Dolly Crossley of Nordmont visited her parents here for several days this week.

Mr. S. Mead is now fully and comfortably settled in the J. Smith house on Maine street, having moved here from his farm that he recently sold to John Walsh.

William Donohoe of Dushore, on Tuesday evening while walking on Railroad street slipped on the icy walk and fell, breaking his leg.

John Hassin Jr. has been employed by the Laporte Cooperage Company to scale logs brought to the factory yard. John is a capable and worthy young man and his promotion was one well merited.

Mrs. W. E. Porter of Shunk, accompanied her husband to Laporte on Monday and spent several days with Mr. A. E. Tripp and family, while her husband served a juror in court.

M. E. Reeder, formerly of Laporte, now of the Chippewa stock farm, and who is an enthusiastic dairyman, recently attended the session of the State Dairy Association at Lock Haven, and was elected a member of the executive board.

Several weeks ago a party of hunters of Canton, consisting of Fred Tripp, C. M. Churchill, H. L. Clark, Lee Brooks, and Sam Kelts, had great success at Rock Run, where they killed two deers, one bear and a wild cat.

An exchange says that every paper should publish the fact that burned corn is a sure cure for hog cholera, and adds: It was first discovered by a distillery in Peoria, Ill. It was thrown to the hogs and eaten by them. Before that time a number had been dying each day with cholera, but the disease immediately disappeared. It is so simple a remedy that it can be easily tried.

Geo. Palmatier and Rowe Taylor, of Muncy Valley, had an exciting experience one day last week, while driving down the hill near George Taylor's farm. The team became frightened and unmanageable and ran down the steep hill at a dangerous speed. Palmatier was thrown from his seat on the bobs and took a good header in a snow bank without serious results. The team was kept in the road until they were satisfied with their running.

Miss Maud Crossley of Los Angelies, Cal., is visiting her parents at this place. She will start within a few days for Philadelphia to visit her sister, Mrs. Victor Hugo. Miss Maud greatly enjoys the cold winter days found at her old home village after spending much time in warm and sunny California.

The Hughesville Independent in its last week's issue contains a large two column half tone picture of the new Methodist church at Mapleton, and a portrait of the pastor, Rev. S. B. Bidlack. The church was dedicated to the worship of Almighty God, on December 6, with the aid of visiting clergymen of prominence. One of the very creditable features connected with this handsome edifice is the fact that it was dedicated free of debt, which gives evidence that the pastor and his loyal flock have been active in their good work. The Independent describes the new church in the following language: "Situated on a commanding eminence, the building is the center of attraction for miles, lending charm to a pastoral scene of surpassing beauty when observed from any viewpoint, but appearing to special advantage when seen form the heights of Essick hundreds of feet above. It is a frame structure with gothic arched windows [supporting cathedral glass. A Roman arched tower and belfry add to its architectural splendor. A furnace in the basement diffuses its genial warmth without taking up room and marring the effect of the interior arrangments."

Rev. Bidlack's many friends in this section express much pleasure in seeing his success so pronounced and gratifying in his new field of labor.

M. R. BLACK, Co. Supt.

Mrs. James Thall of Cherry township has recently been successfully treated for a cancerona tumor, at the Williamsport Hospital.

The money paid by the Lehigh Valley Railroad to its employees in Sayre during one year, is equal to the assessed valuation of the property of that large town.

THE FARMER.

As Others See Him and as Seen by Himself.

J. T. Ailman, secretary of the Pennsylvania state grange, remarks that recently at a grange picnic a gentleman, not a farmer, extolled the farmer to the skies. As he saw it, the farmer is the most independent man in the land. He can scarcely know a want that he cannot himself supply. His wife enjoys a paradise, and his children are the healthiest, happiest and most contented to be found anywhere. There is nothing of which he can justly complain.

Soon after a farmer who owns two good farms and a house in town was heard to say:

"The farmer is not respected by anybody. He gets no public recognition. When he goes among other people he is sneered at as only a farmer. He is discriminated against by legislators and business men. He pays the bulk of the taxes, and others fix his prices for him. A $200 check will be required to pay my taxes this year. I am tired of it. My properties are in the market."

There is some truth in what the first man said, too much truth in the statement of the second. The mission of the grange is to realize for the farm as far as possible the dreams of the first and to correct the evils complained of by the second.

A Maine Method.

Sabbath Day Lake grange at New Gloucester, Me., was dedicated recently by State Master Gardner. To accomplish the ownership of a new hall a company was incorporated and stock sold at $10 per share to defray the expense. This was disposed of mostly among the members of the grange. In this there is a suggestion to other granges having a new building in contemplation. The hall is 38 by 60 feet on the outside and cost $2,000. It is a neat and well arranged structure, with dining hall and kitchen below, while the upper story contains the main hall and anterooms. There is a fourteen foot stage, with all the conveniences necessary for theatrical and other performances.

A Good Record.

There are these four stars in the grange diadem, the correction of railway traffic abuses, the secretary of agriculture as a member of the president's cabinet, the pure food laws and the delivery of rural mail, a quartet of achievements that are the result of years of hard, earnest, persistent work, years in which self was not considered, ease was not consulted and failure was not thought of by the men in whom the grange reposed a trust that was never betrayed. It is an honor to know these men. It is a pleasure to enjoy the results of their labor.—T. D. Akins.

Life Insurance
AMONG OF THE MANY REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD HAVE A POLICY
WITH THE NEW YORK LIFE

BECAUSE—Incontestable from the date of issue. Because—absolutely without restrictions. Because—non forfeitable from date of issue. Because—cash loans are provided after second year, on demand at 5 per cent interest without fee or other charge. Because—if death does not occur an accumulative policy is a highly profitable investment for the policy-holder and wives.

Policies now maturing to living policy-holders prove this. In fact NEW YORK LIFE policies do not lapse.

Health and Accident Insurance also written. A postal card will bring an agent to you, or a personal interview can be had at the office Saturdays, regular office day.
