ligatory, and that the County Superintendent when examining applicants for provisional and professional certificates base his examinations largely upon the subject matter contained therein. We will further recommend to all teachers desiring to enlarge their professional usefulness, a careful reading of "Pages Theory and Practice of Teaching," "Whites School Management," "Seeley's History of Education" and Boark's Psychology. Respectfully submitted.

Dr. Chubb then took for his subject, "The Unity in Poetry." All teaching, all art, all literature has one central thought around which all other ideas cluster. There are two kinds of unity. Formal unity in which the eye can readily see the skeleton binding the thoughts together. The second kind of unity is organic unity in which there is essential thought toward which the other thoughts blend. He quoted from various poets to illustrate his thought.

Song by Institute.

Prof. Saxon then continued his talk on European travel, speaking first of London, saying that American enterprise is trampling over European enterprise every where in Europe, also mentioning that there are no street cars in London.

Intermission. Song by Institute.

Dr. McNeal took up the last period of the session on the discussion of "Primary Mathematics." He expressed his views very intelligently, saying that mechanical mathematics should be early learned, fundamental operations should not be neglected and that foundation in number should be laid out early. He also referred to the Pittsburgh Arithmetic in reference to accuracy and rapidity.

Adjournment.

TUESDAY P. M.

Song by Institute, under Prof. Gresh's instruction.

Roll call and absentees noted.

Prof. Chubb continued his talk on "Emotion of Literature." He advanced several very good facts, stating that in teaching a subject one should teach the important parts first. (Illustration.) Teach what an author did and not just the date of birth and death.

Song by Institute.

Prof. Saxon completed his very interesting and instructive talk on "European Travel." He spoke on weights and measurements referring to the metric system, saying that it should be taught in the public schools because of its importance in traveling. In reference to the manners and customs of France referring to dress mentioning that a Frenchman must be in full dress to enter a dining room, and that a French woman often pays from $100 to $175 for a dress. He also spoke of the immense population of London compared with other cities.

Intermission. Song by Institute. Dr. McNeal continued his talk on "Primary Arithmetic," stating that the operation should first be applied then drill until accuracy and rapidity is acquired.

Announcement of the evening lecture by Dr. Chubb.

Adjournment.

The evening lecture was "Shakespeare as a Moral Teacher," which was very instructive as well as entertaining.

WEDNESDAY.

Prof. Gresh in his usual pleasant manner opened the meeting by introducing a few new songs and rehearsing the previous songs.

Roll call and absentees noted.

Dr. Chubb continued his talk, basing it principally on Hamlet. Speaking of the close connection of facts and their effect on human nature.

Song by Institute.

Dr. McNeal Discussed the subject of "Reading." Speaking of the ability of getting thought from the printed page being the most essential; second, to give the thought. Then referred to several methods by which this may be accomplished.

Intermission.

Supt. Black then introduced Dr. Andrew Thomas Smith, Principal of Mansfield Normal School, who spoke on the subject of "Fatigue."

Dr. Smith stated that the modern conception of the purpose of education is not the acquirements of a body of classified knowledge, but rather the development of physical and mental health and strength. All was based on the general principle that "the nervous system cannot with safety use up more energy than it can" from time to time store up. Any attempt to transgress at this point will result in deterioration. The practical signs of overfatigue with which teachers should be familiar are: An excess of mistakes in work. Inability to recall things with ease. Inability to fix the attention with accustomed force. Irreliability, self-deprecation and discouragement. When any of these appear in the school room, the teacher should begin to ask whether it is due to work too long continued without rest. The remedy announced is "short but intense periods of work alternating with periods of complete physical freedom."

Adjournment.

WEDNESDAY P. M.

Singing. Roll call.

Dr. McNeal spoke on Enthusiasm and Inspiration of the Teacher; stating that the teacher should receive his or her inspiration at institutes and educational meetings, and that the teachers should train that faculty which enables him to put enthusiasm into a scholar and have him to carry it out.

Singing by the Institute.

Dr. Smith continued his talk based upon "Waste in Education." He stated first the waste of child's energy in part of the teacher; second, waste of teacher's energy in reference to false action. Every wrong impressed makes a double task to correct. There fore definitely fix a right order for all work done in school and base it upon thoroughness of preparation and delivery.

Song by Institute.

Dr. Chubb entertained the boys and girls with a few jokes which enthused his talk in which he brought forth a thorough discussion on the subject of Poetry and the New Democracy.

Adjournment.

The evening entertainment was a concert by the Empire Entertainment Company. This was one of the best features of the Institute and was highly appreciated by all.

THURSDAY FORENOON.

Music. Roll call.

Dr. Chubb took up the subject of "The Religious Elements in Poetry," stating that it is not the religion we have but the work and impression we produce. Also speaking of foreign religion and its application to poetry, saying that where there is poetry there is religion and where there is no poetry there is little or no religion. Therefore, poetry is the essential element of religion.

Song by Institute.

Dr. McNeal spoke on "Practical qualifications of the teacher." The professional qualifications should be well cultivated and in order to accomplish this there must be a thorough preparation of every subject before presented.

Fifteen minutes intermission.

Supt. M. R. Black introduced Prof. Stiles, Principal of the Susquehanna Collegiate Institute of Towanda, who gave several experiences of his young-er school days. He mentioned several advantages of being properly prepared before taking up the profession of teaching.

Dr. Smith continued his lecture on memory, mentioning many valuable suggestions.

Adjournment.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON.

Song by Institute. Roll call. Dr. Smith then discussed the subject of Civil Government. He spoke of the necessity and values of the study and also that the study should not be confined to the text book but take the general work in which the student is interested or familiar; post office, highways, suffrage, etc.

Song by school.

Dr. McNeal continued his lecture based on character building in school. He produced several good thoughts and summing up by saying that bad literature was worse than bad company.

Intermission.

Dr. Chubb in his pleasing manner addressed the institute for his last and wished all a happy New Year.

Announcements by Supt. Black.

Adjournment.

For the evening lecture Supt. Black introduced Dr. W. Quay Rosselle, orator, philosopher and humorist, who spoke on "University of Adversity."

FRIDAY MORNING, Jan. 1, 1904.

The meeting was called to order by Supt. Black who announced that the session would merely consist of the reports of the committees and a farewell address by Dr. McNeal.

Song, "America." Roll call.

Report of auditing committee was read and approved.

Report of committee on resolutions which read as follows:

RESOLUTIONS.

WHEREAS, This, the forty-first annual institute of Sullivan county has through the untiring efforts of the superintendent, the very efficient work of the instructors, the kindness of the ushers and the hospitality of the people of the town, been made one of the most successful sessions ever held in our county, be it resolved by the teachers in convention assembled:

I. That we extend to Supt. M. R. Black our sincere thanks and hearty congratulations for the able corps of instructors secured and for the earnestness with which he has labored in making this institute a success.

II. That we tender our sincere thanks to our instructors who have worked so earnestly and effectively in presenting that which will be useful to us in our work.

III. That we extend a vote of thanks to our pianist and music instructor who have done so much to make the institute pleasant and profitable.

IV. That our gratitude is due J. H. Yonkin & Co. for the use of the stage furniture and artistic decorations.

V. That we show our appreciation of the interest the citizens of Dushore have manifested by their hospitality and liberal patronage by extending to them a vote of thanks.

VI. That we commend the action of the Legislature in the enactment of the Township High School and Minimum Salary laws, and we hereby extend a vote of thanks to our members of the legislature, Hon. J. Henry Cochran and Hon. A. L. Dyer who assisted in passing those laws.

Short Talks on Advertising

By Charles Austin Bates.

No. 19.

People generally read advertisements more than they did a few years ago. The reason is to be found in the advertisements themselves. Advertisers are more careful than they used to be. They make the advertisements more readable. Some of them even become, in a way, a department of the paper, and people look for them every day with as much zest and pleasure as they turn to any other feature.

This is true of many department stores all over the country. In many cities there is just one man who appreciates the value of such interest. He breaks away from the old set style. He tells something interesting in his space every day.

There are lots of interesting things in business. Look over the miscellany page of any paper—look at its local news columns, and its telegraph news, for that matter, and you'll see that the majority of the items are more or less closely related to some business fact.

Dress these facts up in a becoming garb of words, and they will find readers, even though they be in a "mere advertisement." Let the merchant come down off his pedestal. Let the merchant come down off his pedestal and talk in his ads.

He needn't be flippant—far from it, but let him not write as if he were addressing somebody afar off, and telling him about something at even a greater distance.

The newspaper goes right into its reader's house—goes in and sits down with him.

It is on the table when he eats, and in his hands while he is smoking after the meal. It reaches him when he is in an approachable condition.

That's the time to tell him about your business—clearly, plainly, convincingly—as one man talks to another.

"The newspaper goes right into its reader's house and sits down with him."

Life Insurance

A FEW OF THE MANY REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD HAVE A POLICY WITH THE NEW YORK LIFE

BECAUSE—Incontestable from the date of issue. Because—absolutely without restrictions. Because—non forfeitable from date of issue. Because—cash loans are provided after second year, on demand at 5 per cent interest without fee or other charge. Because—if death does not occur an accumulative policy is a highly profitable investment for the policy-holder who lives.

Policies now maturing to living policy-holders prove this. In fact NEW YORK LIFE policies do not leak.

Health and Accident Insurance also written. A postal card will bring an agent to you, or a personal interview can be had at the office Saturdays, regular office day.

LA GRIPPE — PNEUMONIA

So many people who have apparently recovered from an attack of La Grippe are stricken with Pneumonia. This is due to the fact that the Bronchial Tubes and Lungs are left weakened and unable to resist disease.

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR

not only cures La Grippe Coughs, and prevents Pneumonia, but strengthens the Lungs so they will not be susceptible to the development of serious lung troubles. Do not take chances with some unknown preparation that may contain some harmful drug when FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR costs you no more and is safe and sure. Contains no opiates.

I had a bad case of La Grippe about ten years ago which left my Lungs so weak that I have been troubled more or less every winter since until I used FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR, which cured me completely and my Lungs no longer trouble me.—J. H. BROWNING, D.D.S., Orrick, Mo.

G. VACHER, 157 Osgood St., Chicago, says: "My wife had a very severe case of La Grippe, and it left her with a very bad cough. She tried a bottle of FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR and it gave immediate relief."

The 50c bottles contain two and one-half times as much as the small size and the $1.00 bottles almost six times as much.
