

Relief

From Headache and Neuralgia

In a Few Minutes After Taking

Dr. Miles Anti-Pain Pills. Chronic Case Cured.

"I cannot speak to highly of your remedies and I will always tell my friends how much they have done for my husband and myself for sudden attacks of headaches, neuralgia and rheumatic pains. There is nothing equal to Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. They are simply splendid and give relief in fifteen or twenty minutes. I used to be subject to attacks of headache, which had become chronic, and I took a course of Nerve and Nerve and Liver Pills in connection with the Anti-Pain Pills. The result is I now have very little trouble in that way. My husband has also taken these remedies and praises them very highly. We always have some of both kinds of pills in the house, and do not feel that we could get along without them.—MRS. KATE K. JOHNSON, McClellandville, Delaware.

There are many reasons why you should take Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills, but the best reason is that they will give you almost instant relief from headache or other pain. In cases of chronic headache, when the sufferer knows an attack is coming on, a Pain Pill will usually prevent it entirely. In cases of extreme nervous exhaustion, when the brain is too tired and the body too nervous to rest, an Anti-Pain Pill will soothe the nerves so that sleep may come. They never fail, yet contain no opiates and are non-laxative.

All druggists sell and guarantee Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. They are non-laxative; contain no opiates, never sold in bulk, 25 doses, 25 cents. Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

A Thought.
The grange, like a political party, cannot live always on its past. There must be "something done" all the while in the living present. Seed must be sown now for future harvests or there will be none. The grange has an eloquent past, but it is only at the threshold of its career of usefulness.

Copake (N. Y.) grange is just a year old, but has about 150 members, who have built a fine new two story building in the meantime.

Here is What Mr. C. P. Vosbubrg, of Towanda, Pa. Has to Say About Us.

My Lettering and Sign Painting course with the International Correspondence School of Scranton, Pa., has been very satisfactory to me.

The reference library is the best to be had, and the lettering plates are unexcelled. Before my course was completed I had earned more than enough to pay for it by jobs of lettering.

I am a barber by trade and have made, outside of my regular work as a barber, over $15 some weeks by the knowledge from above course.

Here is What a Towanda Graduate of the I. C. S. of Scranton, Pa. Has to Say About that Institution.

SUNBURY, PA., Feb. 27, 1903.

To Whom it May Concern:—

Young people who desire to take up a business or stenographic course usually wish to enroll with a school able to furnish good positions to its graduates. In this regard one can make no mistake by enrolling with the I. C. S. of Scranton. I am a graduate of this school and my present position as stenographer to the assistant engineer of the P. R. Co. at Sunbury, Pa., was obtained through their recommendations, and have proved to me beyond a doubt that they have an abundance of good positions at their command.

Yours very truly,
DROTHA A. BUTLER.

Short Talks on Advertising

By Charles Austin Bates.

No. 10.

The truthful advertisement is the one that brings business, and most all advertising is truthful, just as most all men are truthful.

Occasionally one meets a man who lies. That sort of a man writes lying advertisements. They may pay temporarily, but no permanent success was ever built on a foundation of humbug. Most advertisers are honest. At least, they mean to be.

Often each one of half a dozen dealers will insist that he has "the biggest and best stock in the city." Of course, they can't all be right, but that is merely a form of words. Really it doesn't mean much of anything, either to the writer or the reader, and so does no harm—except that it wastes valuable space in the paper.

The advertisement that pays best is the plain, honest, forceful talk, written just as if the writer was talking to the reader face to face—a statement of facts.

There is nothing in the world so interesting as facts, especially the facts of business. They should be written about entertainingly. People like to know how and where things are made. Not a technical description, but a hint here and there. For instance: "These goods were designed and woven in France, the cotton came from Alabama, and the silk from China. Twice across the Atlantic, once across Asia and Europe, and here is the finished fabric for seventy-five cents a yard."

It creates an interest that a mere bald statement never would get. Knowledge, thought and truthfulness will generally produce a good advertisement, and a good advertisement in a good paper will always bring good results. The selection of the medium is the first and most important point. The writing comes after. Even a bad ad. in a good paper will bring some business. A good ad. in a poor paper is sheer waste.
