Attorney General Hamton Carson has decided that all judges in this State are to receive the increase of pay, as provided by the act of Legislature at the last session. Many contended that the act could apply only to judges who were elected or appointed since the passage of the act. Under the new law judges of the Common Pleas Court will have their pay increased from $4,000 to $5,000 a year, or to $6,000 if the district contains over 90 thousand population and to $7,000 if there be but one judge in said district; Superior Court Judges from $8,000 to $9,000; Justices of the Supreme Court $8,000 to $10,000.

The handkerchief bazaar which will be held this Saturday at the Mountain House by St. John Guild, will be open in the afternoon from 3 to 5, for benefit of friends coming from a distance and any who cannot attend in the evening. OBITUARY.

Mrs. Ann Finch Meylert, of whose death we made mention in our last issue, was born in Montrose, Susquehanna county, April 25, 1822, and died at the home of her niece, Mrs. S. F. Colt, near Buffalo, N. Y., Feb. 3, 1904, aged eighty-one years, nine months and eight days. Her death resulted from a fall which she sustained about two weeks previous.

Mrs. Meylert was the daughter of Hiram Finch of Montrose, who for many years was Prothonotary and Clerk of the Courts of Susquehanna county. In 1846 she was united in marriage with the late Michael Meylert who resided in Susquehanna county, and who with his father had begun to develop their large tract of land in this section of the state. In 1847 the new county of Sullivan was formed and the following year the town of Laporte was started. It was during that year that Mr. and Mrs. Meylert took up their residence here. Mrs. Meylert has therefore been identified with the place since its organization fifty six years ago. For several years she has spent the winter months with her niece, Mrs. S. F. Colt, returning to her home here to enjoy the summer months with relatives and friends, by whom she was greatly beloved.

Mrs. Meylert will be greatly missed here. Although advanced in years she took an active interest in everything pertaining to the welfare of Laporte and its people. She was a kind and sympathetic friend and her good deeds and works are a blessed memory. Her thoughtful, kindly interest and care for the comfort and welfare of others made her life a benediction to those about her.

The funeral services were held last Friday afternoon and were conducted by Rgv. I. H. Fisher and Rev. S. H. Engler. The remains were interred by the side of those of her late husband in Mount Ash Cemetery.

Cantonment of Washington Camp, P.O.S. of A. Sonestown, Pa.

Whereas; It has pleased the Supreme Ruler of the Universe to remove from our midst our late brother Oscar W. Miller, and,

Whereas, the intimate relations held by our deceased brother with the members of this camp, render it proper that we should express as far as lies in our power our grief at the loss, and our sympathy for the family of the deceased. Therefore, be it Resolved, that while we bow in humble submission to the will of the most High, we do not the less mourn for our brother who has been called from his labor to rest, and

Resolved, that in token of our grief, our charter be draped in mourning for a period of thirty days, that these resolutions shall be spread upon the minutes of this camp and be published in one or more of the county papers and a copy be sent to the family of the deceased.

Vermont in Line.

C. J. Bell, master of the Vermont state grange, says that the attendance at the recent session of that body was the largest for twenty years and it was one of the most successful meetings ever held. There are 110 subordinate granges in the state, ninety-five being represented at the state meeting. There are twelve Pomonas in the state. Worthy Master Bell's annual address laid great stress on the need of legislation in the farmer's behalf. Governor J. C. McCullough was the principal speaker at the public meeting. Professor Morse of South Paris, Me., well known in grange circles, was humorist of the occasion.

The Grange Must Do Things.

F. A. Dethick, master of the Ohio state grange, is father of these weighty words: "If a subordinate grange wishes to exert a commanding influence in its community it must have a good financial footing. If it deserves to persuade men and women to join, it must have something to join." The next thing it must have, or the first thing, we would say, is an interesting and profit yielding programme. You haven't much of a grange if it isn't doing something.

Nearly 6,000 Patrons in One County.

Jefferson county, N. Y., is probably the banner grange county in the United States. It has 5,926 Patrons in thirty-two subordinate granges. All New Jersey has only 6,000. Moreover, the state grange dues of every subordinate grange are paid to date. Jefferson is necessarily influential in the grange affairs of the Empire State.

Pennsylvania Patrons.

The gain in the Order's membership in Pennsylvania last year was over 5,000, thirty new granges having been organized. As an instance of their progressiveness Cambria county may be cited, where there are twenty-two granges, sixteen of which own their own halls, valued at $25,000.

A POLICY

WITH THE NEW YORK LIFE

BECAUSE—Incontestable from the date of issue. Because—absolutely without restrictions. Because—non forfeitable from date of issue. Because—cash loans are provided after second year, on demand at 5 per cent interest without fee or other charge. Because—if death does not occur an accumulative policy is a highly profitable investment for the policy-holder who lives.

Policies now maturing to living policy-holders prove this. In fact NEW YORK LIFE policies do not leak.

Health and Accident Insurance also written. A postal card will bring an agent to you, or a personal interview can be had at the office Saturdays, regular office day.
