Mr. Samuel Stackhouse, father of George Stackhouse of this place, died at his home near Unityville, Wednesday, March 23.

It is a universal weakness of the city man to think that he would be a glittering success as manager of a chicken farm.

Patrick Scanlin has sold his interest in the Forksville Hotel to Mr. A. Currie of Corning, N. Y., who has already taken charge of the place.

Mr. Delroy Heim of Bellwood, Pa. attended the funeral of his grand mother, Mrs. Kochensparger, last Saturday and spent Sunday with Laporte friends.

There is a poem in the Sullivan Review of last week, entitled, "Ever Ready Technicality," which, as it is not credited elsewhere, we must credit to the editor, who is quite a poet. We think he must have had the Elk Tanning at Laporte in mind when he wrote the third stanza thusly:

There's the ready supersedeas, there's the habeas corpus writ,
When other dodges fail them, they can still fall back on it
If the sinner has the cunning and can raise the needed fees,
He may spurn the law, relying on technicalities.

Mr. George A. Mills of Williamsport, and Miss Myrtle Miller of Muncy Valley, were united in marriage Saturday, March 12, at Elmira. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Miller, and is a well known trained nurse. The groom is an insurance man of Williamsport. The News Item offers congratulations.

Dr. Wackenhuth, formerly of this place, now of Picture Rocks, caused considerable excitement at that place during the recent high water by a narrow escape from drowning. The bridge spanning the creek having been taken out by the high water, the doctor in company with his sister-in-law, Mrs. Rinehart, who was visiting at the doctor's home, were crossing the creek on a small raft which capsized when in mid-stream, throwing them into the icy waters. Help being near at hand they were quickly rescued and taken to their homes, none the worse for their experience.

In the course of his much-talked-of Saturday Evening Post article Mr Cleveland takes occasion to remark that he belongs to "the rank and file of Democracy." In commenting on the utterance Editor Bryan is moved to exclaim: "I freely admit that Cleveland is 'rank' but I deny that he is one of the 'file' 'Great pun! Much heap funny! Bah, bah black sheep!"

Mrs. S. L. Albertson of Forksville, formerly of near Laporte, is in the Sayre Hospital where she has undergone an operation for appendicitis and also for the removal of a tumor.

It is reported that the Laporte stove factory will resume operations Monday, commencing to cut out the largest stock of logs yet placed in their yard.

James Sheveling of Bernice was brought to the county seat Wednesday by Constable Ira Cott, and placed in jail to await the hearing of a committee on lunacy who will examine Mr. Sheveling's mental condition. He was arrested last winter and placed in jail for his insane actions, but was released on promise of better conduct. The unfortunate man was formerly an experienced locomotive engineer and was known as a most kind-hearted man.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Miner of Bernice, visited Laporte friends Sunday.

Just Happened, So.
It is asserted that Mr. Cleveland wants to "create a nucleus of conservative Democratic sentiment around which the party will rally and out of which a candidate will be selected who will be widely different from the nominee of 1896 and 1900." It is a singular coincidence that Mr. Cleveland is as "widely different" as anybody that could be picked out. But, of course, this only "happens so."—Rochester Democrat and Chronicle.

Mr. Cleveland's Conciseness.
Mr. Cleveland has been accused of sentences which are longer and broader and deeper than the average mind finds it easy to handle. Unkind persons have accused his style of pomposity, and the flippant have insinuated that, like Oliver Wendell Holmes' katydid, "he says an undisputed thing in such a solemn way." But when he replied to a question about some recent chattering of William Jennings Bryan he was as clear, as concise and as inclusive as the most exacting of his literary critics could demand. Said Mr. Cleveland: "He's got the stage. Let him go it. I guess that is definite enough." Bacon could not have done better.—Philadelphia Record

Life Insurance
A FEW OF THE MANY REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD HAVE A POLICY

WITH THE NEW YORK LIFE
BECAUSE—Incontestable from the date of issue. Because—absolutely without restrictions. Because—non forfeitable from date of issue. Because—cash loans are provided after second year, on demand at 5 per cent interest without fee or other charge. Because—if death does not occur an accumulative policy is a highly profitable investment for the policy-holder who lives.

Policies now maturing to living policy-holders prove this. In fact NEW YORK LIFE policies do not leak.
Health and Accident Insurance also written. A postal card will bring an agent to you, or a personal interview can be had at the office Saturdays, regular office day.
