Giant on Wheels.

What is alleged to be the largest locomotive in the world passed up the Lehigh Valley road a few days ago on its way to St. Louis exposition. It was built at the Baldwin Locomotive Works for the Atchison Topeka & Santa Fe road, where it will be put into service when the fair closes.

Its length is seventy-six feet and are fourteen wheels under the engine exhaustive of the tender; ten driving wheels fifty-six inches high, with side rod connection, one pair of pony trucks and one pair of trailers. The monster machine is equipped with tandem compound cylinder. The steam test is 245 pounds, while the working pressure is 225 pounds to the square inch. The tank capacity for water is 8500 gallons and the engine is designed to use coal or oil.
The engine will be set up on rollers and with steam up will be running every exhibition day at St. Louis.

Estates Depreciate in Value.

"You can't tell how much a man is worth until he's dead," remarked a friend in our presence the other day. The fact of it is, a man's property depreciates in value the moment his death is announced, for then it must be disposed of according to the process of the law and property at forced sale rarely brings as much as it would under other circumstances. While a man is living he may refuse to sell if the offered is not satisfactory, and he may take the time to look for a more liberal buyer. The administrator or executor cannot do this, as a rule but must convert the property into money as soon as possible in order to satisfy the creditors or heirs. The market is limited to a number of persons who gather at a specified time to bid upon it and the price bid depends wholly upon the competition.

In view of this fact and also the fact that legal fees often makes sad inroads upon an estate, some men close up their business affairs during life, selling off or dividing their property, reserving only sufficient to maintain them during the remainder of their days, and to put them decently under ground after death.
Where this can safely be done it is an excellent plan.

The legislature of 1903 passed a new law that completely changes the former acts controlling the collection of school taxes. This act was approved by Governor Pennypacker April, 21st, 1903 and went into effect as soon as it was approved. It is not necessary to publish the whole act which may be found on page 229 of the pamphlet laws. Among other things in section 2 it is stated "and it shall be the duty of every school collector on or before the first Monday of June thereafter to collect and pay to the treasurer of the proper school district, the whole amount of the balances of the taxes charged and assessed in said duplicate excepting such sums from which the said school directors in their discretion may exonerate him."

In the section a penalty of not exceeding one hundred dollars is imposed upon any tax collector who shall fail to comply with the provisions of this act. Our readers will thus see the necessity of every taxpayer settling his school tax with the collector before June 6th, 1904.
If he does not he places the collector in the predicament of being liable to one hundred dollars fine.

Life Insurance

A FEW OF THE MANY REASONS
WHY YOU SHOULD HAVE A POLICY

WITH THE NEW YORK LIFE

BECAUSE—Incontestable from the date of issue. Because—absolutely without restrictions. Because—non forfeitable from date of issue. Because—cash loans are provided after second year, on demand at 5 per cent interest without fee or other charge.
Because—if death does not occur an accumulative policy is a highly profitable investment for the policy-holder who lives.

Policies now maturing to living policy-holders prove this. In fact NEW YORK LIFE policies do not leak.

Health and Accident Insurance also written. A postal card will bring an agent to you, or a person-interview can be had at the office Saturdays, regular office day.

charter members, 242; total, 4,067.

At the recent Illinois state grange meeting Hon. Oliver Wilson of Magdolia was re-elected master for the un-serving term. Mr. Thomas Kelley of but, having served in that capacity for twenty-five years, declined re-election.
