W. C. Mason, Presiden, E. M. Dunham Treas THOS, J. INGHAM, Secretary, Entered at the Post Office at Laporte, as second-class mail matter.

There is much talk of political bossism in Pennsylvania, and of the grip which Col. Quay holds upon the

This topic is the subject of frequent denunciations from the Democratic ranks. But taking recent event as the model Democratic denunciations of Republican methods is a case o the pot calling the kettle black.

The Pennsylvania Democracy re cently went through the form of a convention and among the points on which it assailed the Republican par ty was its obedience to bossism.

Now mark the appropriateness this wrath! Accusing the Republicans of submitting to bossism the Democratic Convention carried out without kick or protest, the program tion I will therefore not be responsoutlined by Col. Guffey. Its dele- ible for any debts contracted by ther gates to the St. Louis Convention after this date C. A. Brink, Eagles are to go uninstructed and it is understood that the latter, holding them in his hand, will join a combination to help the right man.

The Prohibitions of Sullivan held there County Convention at the Court House May 6, 1904. Rev. J.H. Bowen Chairman, called the Convention to order. Rev. J. H. Bowen was elected Chairman, T. J. Keeler and W:L. Norton Secretaries. The follow. ing offices were nominated: Legislature, W. L. Calkins of Forksville; Prothonotary Register and Recorder O N. Molyneux, Millview; Sheriff, John P. Kilmer, Shunk: Delegate to National Convention, David Molyneux, Millview; Delegate to State Convention Rev. I. H. Fisher, Rev. S. H. Engler; alternates, Frank L. Kilmer, F. C. Schanbacker, Congressional Conferees, T. J. Keeler, R. A. Conklin; alternates, N. C. Boatman, E. B. Boston; Judicial Conferees, C. W. Snell, J. L. Molyneux; alternates, W. H. Calkins, F. C.Schanabachby the Prohibition Party of Sullivan County. Officers of the standing committee for the next year: Rev. J. H. Bowen Chairman; W. L. Norton Sec.; J. L. Molyneux, Treasurer.

In the evening a large and appre ciative audience greeted Rev. J. H. Hector the Black Knight, and his Jubilee Singers, at the Court House who held the audience spell bound for two hours.

The administration is losing no time in its investigation of the alleged combine of the meat packers to monopolize the market. Secretaray Cortelyou of the Department of Com merce and Labor is gathering imformation at all necessary points to furnish the Department of Justice with the evidence on which to institute suit under the Sherman antitrust law if such action is warrantable. Mr. James R. Garfield, commissioner of corporation has been quietly conducting an inquiry at Chicago and did ta bearing upon the points included in the resolution of Congress, and it is promised that if proceedings can son deed, and Rush J. Thomson terre be sustained they will not be long tenant.

His "Conscience" Platform Mr. Bryan wants this year's political fight to be "a conscience campaign." Yet Mr. Bryan, if he could, would carry out a policy which would clip at least 50 cents from the value of every dollar and to that extent rob the people of their just earnings. The 16 to 1 con-science seems to be a very elastic affair.—Troy Times.

Mr. Cleveland is annoyed at being singled out as the only man available as a party leader. Mr. Bryan will consent to sympathize in this sentiment. Washington Star.

As Grover Cleveland is out of the presidential race on the Democratic side, no representative party man is really in it at this time.—Davenport (Ia.) Republican.
