The trees are full of bloom, and after all it looks as though there would be something for humanity to exist on, even if they did have to endure so long a winter as we have just emerged from.

Again the Old Maid Minstrels are billed to appear in public performance at the county seat. Preparations under way are of an elaborate character and the date set for this great treat is June 29. The minstrel performers are all talented and we feel proud of its existence.

A. P. Wieland of Nordmont, has been on the sick list for the past few days, and has finally been compelled to take his bed, showing symptoms of typhoid fever. Hopes are entertained by his many friends that his illness may be of short duration and he restored to health.

Street commissioner F. M. Crossley states that the cost of repairing the borough streets this season will not exceed the sum of $75. The thoroughfares already show a favorable condition and if the Commissioner has not underestimated his expense account he will be justly entitled to a monument set in the public square.

A little item of news was picked up on the street in Dushore, probably blown from the copy book of one of the local papers and floated through an open window. It gave information to the effect that an old lady of Lopez, who went to Dushore to visit her daughter, was met at the door by a servant who said that the daughter was away from home having a kimona cut out. The old lady sank fainting into the nearest chair and tearfully asked what hospital she had been taken to.

The W. & N. B. Railroad Company have placed us under obligations for a copy of their beautiful booklet advertising the marvelous Eagles Mere as a summer resort, which is steadily growing in popularity through the Eastern and Middle States through the high class and artistic advertising given by the R.
R. Company. Handsome half-tone cuts grace each page, showing the beautiful scenery along the line of travel and points of interest at the "Mere. It is a piece of art, doing as near as possible, full credit to the purpose it serves.

Stanley Minilies of Emmons was brought to Laporte on Monday and taken before Squire T. J. Keeler, on complaint of Stanley R. Dunn, charging the prisoner with making threats and running toward him with an open knife. For want of $200 bail he was committed to jail.

The Williamsport and North evening train.

The Aid Society of the Methodist church will hold a church fair on and welcome to inspect the articles for sale.

It is funny, isn't it? Farmers, who wish to retire, move to town. Townpeople, when they wish to retire, move to the country. A man has poor health and he moves to town to rest up and get well where he will not be bothered with hard work. The city man, when he has poor health, will go to the country with a tent and pitch it under some shady tree where he can enjoy the mountain scenery and rusticate in the enjoyment of a perpetual picnic.

A prominent Dushore doctor tells us this good one: A patient called at his office, stated his ills, and the doctor wrote a prescription and handed it to him. The patient then inquired the probable cost of getting it filled and was told about 60 cents would pay the bill. The patient then asked the doctor for the loan of that amount and the doctor, scratching his head, drew a line through several parts of the prescription and then handed it to the patient, saying, "Now you can get it filled for a dime.
Those I scratched out were for your nerves; but I see you do not need anything for them."

We are indebted to the manager of the Forest Inn, at Eagles Mere Park, for the receipt of a handsome booklet containing many illustrations of familiar places in, and around the Park. It also gives a very fine description of the now famous Inn, and the mode of life enjoyed by the guests, which gives an adequate idea of the delights and comforts of this homelike place.
For the benefit of our readers who have not yet visited Eagles Mere Park, we will copy a few items from the booklet which says:

"The spacious dining room in a separate building, reached by a short covered arcade, is a notable feature of the Forest Inn. This arrangement secures absolute freedom from kitchen odors; the room being practically glass on three sides, is always light, airy and well ventilated. The great windows, sliding down and up, are often wide open so that the guests enjoy their meals almost under the trees. The cottage life at Eagles Mere Park needs mention—it is a rather unusual feature of a most unusual place. Clustered within easy reach of the Inn are some forty comfortable cottages, the occupants of which all take their meals at the Inn. Thus the cottages many of which are privately owned, afford a means of family life without housekeeping cares."

May Term a Short One.
The May term of court was short, as usual, it having only three trial cases, along with a small amount of other court business. Six cases were heard by the grand jury, five of which were found true bills. Four of these with several civil cases were postponed.

The case of Comth. vs. Daniel B.
Suber and Mrs. Lizzie Reader, charged with adultery was tried, the jury finding a verdict of guilty. A sentence of nine months in the county jail was imposed.

The case of James Hawley vs.
Laura G. Hawley, in divorce, resulted in a disagreement of the jury which remained out from 3 to 9 p. m.

Comth. vs. Martha Granger, charged with assault and battery, jury rendered a verdict of not guilty.

The total receipts of the Michigan ucation.

WITH THE NEW YORK LIFE BECAUSE—Incontestable from the date of issue. Because—absolutely without restrictions. Because—non forfeitable from date of issue. Because—cash loans are provided after second year, on demand at 5 per cent

Because—if death does not occur an able investment for the policy-holder who lives.

Policies now maturing to living policy-holders prove this. In fact NEW YORK LIFE policies do not leak.
