turning to this place Saturday evening.

The inhabitants of the quiet village of Forksville were aroused from their slumbers at half past twelve Tuesday night by the alarm of fire, and on rushing from their homes found that it was the Forksville Hotel in flames. The citizens lost no time in reaching the scene of danger and by their prompt and energetic work soon had the flames in control, and the damage was confined to the bar-room, dining-room and kitchen.
The fire started in the cellar, but the origin is unknown.

Owing to a wreck on the railroad bridge at Towanda last Monday causing much damage to the bridge, all the perishable freight on the main line of the L. V. railroad is run over the Bowman creek branch causing much delay to passenger trains between Towanda and Wilkes-barre.

Wedded in Whitesboro.

Whitesboro News.
The first June wedding in this village was celebrated at 2 o'clock this afternoon at St. Johns Episcopal Church, when Isabella, the eldest daughter of Charles H. Bradbury, was married to Frank D.
Cooley of Rochester by Rev. William Cooke, the rector. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion and a large number of relatives and friends of the couple were present. The attendants were Fay Cooley of this village and Miss Sylvia Bradbury, brother and sister respectively of the contracting parties. The bride was given away by her father. Miss Helen Bradbury and Miss Clarabelle Dor-herty were the ushers, James Sauter was at the organ, and as the wedding party entered the church rendered the wedding march from "Lohengrin." As an interlude, "O Promise Me" was played and the party left the church Mendelssohn's wedding march was given.

The costumes worn by the bride and bridesmaid were of Persian lawn trimmed with white lace and insertion and both wore white picture hats.

A reception was held and wedding dinner served at the home of the groom's parent Mr. and Mrs. George Cooley, on Westmoreland street, after the ceremony. The couple will leave Utica at 6.30 o'clock tonight for a short western trip, and on their return they will make their home in Rochester, where the groom is employed by a large surgical instrument manufacturing firm. Miss Bradbury is a very popular young lady in Whitesboro. While all will regret her departure from this village, she has their best wishes for the future. The couple recieved many beautiful presents.

Mrs. O. W. Bennett returned to Binghamton with Mrs. Maude Rosencrans who has been spending several days with Laporte friends.

A. A. Stacy is sub clerk of the Nordmont and Hartley Hall Railroad Postoffice this week while Mr.
Chas. Yeager is taking a vacation.

Oats are starting well and making a good growth. Meadows and pastures continue to excel any former season in recent year.

Instead of the American expression, "cast-off clothing," the English use "left-off clothing." In an English newspaper an advertisement states that "Mr. and Mrs. Brown have left off clothing of every description, and invite your careful inspection.

A woman in a neighboring town bought a new-fangled coffee pot from a peddler. In the evening she showed it to her husband, a hardware dealer, who told her he kept the same thing in his store for half the price she had paid. "Well," she said, "why don't you advertise? No body ever knows what you have for sale.

Communication.

MR. EDITOR:

I desire to call the attention of your readers to a movement on foot among some of the Sunday School workers of Sullivan County to maintain and develop interest in Sunday School work.

At present the proposal is to hold a number of local or district convention or rallies in different parts of the county. The object of these is to discuss methods of teaching the bible to the young, middle aged and old and also lay plans for the advancement of the best interest of all who come under the influence of the Sunday School. I believe that good singing and cheerful social intercourse will characterize these gatherings.
Good things should not be kept in a corner. Good people should not imagine that the Bible and its teaching is of interest to them alone. Christ came in contact with all classes of society. Why should his followers have a corner in religion. The exalted religious principles of our forefathers are now regarded by both saint and sinner as the priceless heritage of the nation. We can now see errors in their religious beliefs and in their daily practices but underneath all we recognize high aims.
In order to perpetuate these principles it is necessary that the young trained to believe that good character is a higher consideration than either wealth or fame.

The Sunday School aims to do this class of work. Let the citizens of whatever faith give their aid and approval to the Sunday School workers. The times and places for holding these conventions will be announced locally and likely through the press. A cordial invitation to attend is extended to all who are interested in this work and to the general public. If present plans are carried into effect, conventions will be held beginning on Friday of next week June 11th, at Hillsgrove in the afternoon and evening and on Wednesday and Thursday following in Elkland and Forks twps.

Yours truly,
VERNON HULL, Vice Pres.
Sullivan Co. Sunday School Association.

Life Insurance

A FEW OF THE MANY REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD HAVE A POLICY

WITH THE NEW YORK LIFE

BECAUSE—Incontestable from the date of issue. Because—absolutely without restrictions. Because—non forfeitable from date of issue. Because—cash loans are provided after second year, on demand at 5 per cent interest without fee or other charge.
Because—if death does not occur an accumulative policy is a highly profitable investment for the policy-holder who lives.

Policies now maturing to living policy-holders prove this. In fact NEW YORK LIFE policies do not leak.

Health and Accident Insurance also written. A postal card will bring an agent to you, or a person-interview can be had at the office Saturdays, regular office day.

New Goods

at the Laporte Clothing House

The new goods are just arriving and they are beauties, the styles are the very latest patterns, the very nicest workmanship the best and the price is the very lowest.
We are able to sell our goods much lower than others, for this reason, my expense is very small and I buy my goods in large quantities for my store at Laporte, and buy for cash and sell for the same. This enables me to sell much lower than others. In fact, I believe in quick sales and small profits. This has been the success of my business. My stock for this season is much larger than before.
Come and examine my goods; see the styles and get our prices, and you will be convinced as well as your neighbor that this is the place to buy your clothing. Ladies and
