The Lehigh Valley Railroad Company has announced a reduction of 50 cents a ton f. o. b., New York, in the price of pea and buckwheat anthracite coal, to go into effect at once.
This brings the price of pea from $3.00 to $2.50 a ton and buckwheat from $2.50 to $2.00 a ton. It is stated that none of the other big anthracite mining companies will follow Lehigh's cut at this time, as it is due to conditions affecting that company alone.

The reduction is stated to be owing to sharp and direct competition with bituminous coal, and the new schedule applies only to the two steam sizes mentioned.

A social will be held at Nordmont Saturday evening for the purpose of raising money with which to purchase base ball supplies.

The citizens of Nordmont enjoyed a rare treat Saturday afternoon when the married and single men met on the diamond to decide which were the champions of the great National sport. A great rivalry exists between these teams and it proved to be a battle royal.

It will be remembered that the single men defeated the married men last fall by a score of 25 to 5, and the married men came on the diamond Saturday determined to regain their lost Laurels. Not being satisfied with their home talent battery, one was imported at a cost which they probably now regret.

Gogetsky the crack pitcher for the married men was batted out of the box in the fifth inning and was substituted by Kessler who pitched the four remaining rounds. Mr. Kessler pitched a good game, however, the single men landed on him safely, he triking out but four men. Wieland the pitcher for the single men proved to be a stone wall against which the married men could do nothing, he fanning eleven men. The single men played a good game, giving Wieland excellent support in the field; ending with the score 21 to 8 in favor of single men.

The line up was as follows:

Single men.	Married men.
Smith C	Miner C
Wieland P.	Gogetsky P, cf.
Botsford 1 b.	Shultz 1 b.
Fish 2 b.	Cox 2 b.
Heess 3 b.	Vandermark 3 b.
Laird ss.	Sherman ss.

Guard the Legacy.

Senator Dolliver, in his able speech in the senate on the tariff and the trusts, said the Republican party inherited its historic faith from our fathers and traced the line of inheritance as follows:

"When William McKinley died he left it as a rich legacy to us who followed in the great triumphs of his public life. It was not a discovery of his.
He got it from Abraham Lincoln, who got it from Henry Clay, who got it from Alexander Hamilton, who got it from Benjamin Franklin, so that our title is clear, our abstract perfect, without lien or incumbrance, running straight back to the original sources of American common sense."

The duty of the Republican party now is to "guard a title that was rich before" and bequeath it in turn to patriotic Americans of the future.— Wilkesbarre Times.

United and Firm.

The Democrats had hoped that they would receive something like support for their proposition to tinker with the tariff from the Republicans of Iowa.
They had hoped that a platform would be adopted by the convention at Des Molines which could be used in an attempt to create a division of sentiment on the tariff issue in the Republican party. They have been bitterly disappointed. The Republican party of the whole country stands united and firm for the maintenance of the principle of protection for American industries.— Albany Journal.

Mighty Oarsman.

Neither the Bryan-Hearst combine nor the Parker boom is making great headway of late, according to political indications, although both are still elements to be considered in reckoning up Democratic chances. But the uncertainty becoming more and more apparent would seem to suggest brightening hopes for the dark horse. The intimation that it may yet be Cleveland finds an affirmative response in many Democratic minds.—Troy Times.

The Democratic Way.

In objecting to all the candidates proposed, without pointing out one that would be acceptable, Colonel Bryan is merely indulging in the characteristic Democratic weakness of finding fault and offering no remedy.—Kansas City Journal.

Never Had Much Voice.

The enthusiasm for Judge Parker as the Democratic candidate for president is said to be waning. The enthusiasm cannot stand much waning; it has never been very vociferous.—Newport (R. I.) News.

Neither Wants the Other.

Bryan thinks that the Democratic party doesn't need New York, and the Democratic party has for a long time been of the opinion that it doesn't need Bryan.—Trenton Gazette.

Co-operative Effort.

Oliver Wilson, master of Illinois state grange, well says that co-operative buying and selling should be an important factor. If this practice were generally followed by all grangers the system would soon develop and would not only be remunerative to the individual, but a source of revenue to the state grange. Without hardship to any one, the revenues thus derived would be enough to pay the expenses of delegates to the state meeting.

Believes in Co-operation.

Moorestown (N. J.) grange believes in co-operation and practices it. It recently received a consignment of 6,000 bushels of seed potatoes and also purchased 1,000 tons of fertilizing material direct from the importers. The grange has 275 members.

In New Hampshire there are twenty-five women who are masters of subordinate granges, 175 as secretaries, 208 as lecturers and in eleven granges all the officers are women.

Every grange should exert a moral influence for good in the community in which it is located.

Life Insurance

A FEW OF THE MANY REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD HAVE A POLICY

WITH THE NEW YORK LIFE

BECAUSE—Incontestable from the date of issue. Because—absolutely without restrictions. Because—non forfeitable from date of issue. Because—cash loans are provided after second year, on demand at 5 per cent interest without fee or other charge.
Because—if death does not occur an accumulative policy is a highly profitable investment for the policy-holder who lives.

Policies now maturing to living policy-holders prove this. In fact NEW YORK LIFE policies do not leak.

Health and Accident Insurance
