good. The fare will be only 40 cents ciation of Hughesville.

N. C. Maben had the misfortune of cutting the end of his little finger quite badly on the Equalizing saws at the stove factory Saturday morning. While working in the vicinity of the saw and not regarding the danger, accidentally struck his hand against the saw.

E. Church will hold the Annual Lawn Supper at the residence of J.
V. Finkle, Thursday evening, Aug.
25. Fried chicken, hot potatoes, coffee, tea, cold meats salads etc. will

George Geiger, son of France Geiger of this place, met with an unfortunate accident one day last week, while at work in the stove factory.
Young Geiger was assisting at the Equalizing saws, and was in the act of lifting a block from the carriage, when his left hand caught the saw, and badly mangled the first and second fingers. His wounds were dressed by Dr. Randall and it is believed he will be able to save the injured members.

A number of the public spirited young men of town have organized an Athletic Association, and have expended considerable money in making a fine ball ground at the County Seat. The ground is located back of F. M. Crossley's residence where the ground affords most desirable advantages. The first game played on the new field was between the married and single men of town on Saturday afternoon. The score 8 to 10 in favor of the married men.

A pleasant birthday party in the nature of a surprise, was held at the residence of our esteemed townsman, Mr. A. J. Hackley, last Saturday evening, it being the sixtieth anniversary of his birth. A large number of his old friends and neighbors were present to congratulate him and present their wishes for many happy returns of the day.
He was the recipient of many useful and appropriate gifts. The evening was most pleasantly spent. A sumptuous repast was served and all did ample justice to the birthday supper.
The occasion will be long and pleasantly remembered by all who were present.

It is reported that bears are more numerous on the North Mountain this season than for many previous years, and Jamison City seems to be the particular place for them. Last week, a Mrs. Lyons of that place opened the door of her home quite late in the evening with the intention of going out, when she was astonished to see two large bears walk past the house. The lady called to her husband telling him what she had seen, and on going out he saw the bears disappearing down the street, but no pursuit was made.

Don't lose sight of to-day's sunshine just because rain is predicted for to-morrow.

Here's the opportunity of a life time for widow, spinster or maid.
She must be affectionate and true, intelligent and symmetrical, and if she possesses these qualifications and traits, a young man who gives the name of H. V. Esmond of Sunbury, is willing to take the solemn oaths before a justice or minister, that he will support and cherish her during her breathing time on earth. In another column the young man advertises his wants. He is a salesman, earning a good income.— Bloomsburg Sentinel.

The papers have printed the story of a woman past middle life who is about to, become the wife of a second husband because, as he frankly admits, her cooking "suited him to a T". This matron doesn't seem to have wasted any time at the summer resorts acquiring health and tan. For all the world knows, she may be innocent of piano thrum-ming, guiltless of golf and knowing little about the latest novel or the newest play. But she understood that the average man requires three meals a day, and that he prefers good ones to those that are bad or indifferent.

Here may be a lesson for the girls who deplore the reluctance of their sweethearts to suggest matrimony.

In every other respect they have doubtless much the advantage of their elderly sister. They are young pretty, attractive. They have a thousand winning ways, yet they seem to lack one thing necessary to convince their hesitating swains that marriage won't be a failure.

A woman just in receipt of $50,000 alimony announces that to marry a man for the purpose of reforming him is unwise. However, something of a financial nature may be accomplished by the operation.

The Rev. William E. Daw, Rector of Trinity Church, Athens, and the Rev. J. McAlpin Harding, of St.
Paul's Church, Trenton, will spend part of their vacation at Laporte.
Both will participate in the services at the Episcopal Church next Sunday morning and evening. Mr.
Harding will be remembered by many many residents in the county, having been Missionary of Sullivan County as far back as 1876.

The convention of the Disciples of Christ Church held at Estella was a grand success in a spiritual sense, a large delegation from Sayre and Canton were present.

The tent meeting is now in full swing. Evangelist Brady conducts a Bible reading every evening after which he preaches a rousing sermon.
On Sunday evening the large tent was filled to its fullest capacity.
Rev. B. A. Bowen and daughter are conducting the singing and will remain while the meeting lasts.

Aunt Tillie Vargason an aged lady of this place has been seriously ill, but is slowly improving.

Rev. Wood of Sayre preached on "Christian Unity" to an appreciative congregation Sunday afternoon.

Life Insurance

A FEW OF THE MANY REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD HAVE A POLICY

WITH THE NEW YORK LIFE

BECAUSE—Incontestable from the date of issue. Because—absolutely without restrictions. Because—non forfeitable from date of issue. Because—cash loans are provided after second year, on demand at 5 per cent interest without fee or other charge.
Because—if death does not occur an accumulative policy is a highly profitable investment for the policy-holder

Policies now maturing to living policy-holders prove this. In fact NEW YORK LIFE policies do not leak.
