moved his hand too near the knife.

The Civil Service Commission has issued its usual warning against the collection or payment of campaign assessments. The Commissioners say:
"Every legitimate and available means will be employed to secure the prosecution and punishment of whoever may violate the provisions of the law."

The Laporte Athletic Association having fixed up a temporary ground, arranged for three games—Saturday August 27th with Nordmont, Thursday September 1st with Father Mathew Club of Dushore, Pa., and Saturday September 3rd with Forks-ville. To help pay the expenses of visiting teams a charge of ten cents admission is made, children being admitted free.

The game with Nordmont was well attended, about one hundred persons paying and another one hundred of "kids" and people who viewed the game from afar. Lapote won by a score of 25 to 10 and the small boy was very happy.
Funston pitched a fine game for six innings, the score at that time being 23 to 0 in favor of Laporte, and Nordmont having eleven strike outs and two hits, but in the remaining innings Nordmont found the ball.
Smith hit for a home run and a three bagger, and Wieland, Botsford and Fish helped in the good work which resulted in ten runs. The real feature of the game was the work of Marcus in left field; his double play on a catch in deep left, where he caught the runner ten feet off of first base was good enough for any team.
In the batting for the home team Swank lead with homer and three singles, with Phillips, Marcus and Funston close behind, in fact all the boys hit well. It should not be forgotten that "Buck" Carpenter was in the game from start to finish both with bat and mit. The score by innings follows:

	1	2	3	4	5	6	6	8	9
Laporte	0	0	7	3	3	10	0	2	x 25
Nordmont	9	0	0	0	0	0	3	4	3 10

The Constitution of Pennsylvania, in enumerating the qualifications of a president judge of the common pleas court, says that he "shall be learned in the law" That means that he shall be jurisprudent, or skilled in the law. Many people have a vague idea of the duties and powers of a judge, some even assuming that he can make law, if he chooses to do so. Instances are not unknown where a litigant gets highly indignant at a judge for rendering decision against him, when the law or the facts would not permit anything else. It is the duty of a judge to apply the law as he finds it.
This involves the power to judge of it's applicability. It often happens that no specific law covers a case and then precedents are fallen back upon. If no precedent appears, then he must establish one. The law, the facts, the precedents, and the equities are always to be borne in mind when charging a jury or deciding a case. It is evident then that familiarity with the law and experience in judicial matters are a prime necessity on the bench.
These qualifications are possessed by Hon. E. M. Dunham, who is candidate for re-election in this district.
He was well versed in the law when he took his seat, but the ten years of experience has fitted him more completely for further work and will be valuable to him and the district if he is elected for the ensuing term. His judicial deliverances have many times been complimented for their candor, sense and fairness, and he stands well in outside courts where he has often been called to preside, as well as within his own district.

One good effect of the much-talked of American high tariff is that it causes English manufacturers to establish large plants in this country, if they wish to hold the American market. Titus, Salt & Co. have built a large silk plush and velvet mill in Bridgeport, Conn., and now Joseph Benn & Sons of Bradford, England, are erecting an immense new mill at Greystone, North Providence, R. I. for the manufacture of fine mohair goods. Nearly a thousand hands will be employed.

The assurance with which great enterprises are undertaken, involving the expenditure of many millions of dollars, is evidence that confidence prevails among all classes of men as regards the future, and that the country has settled down to the conclusion that there will be neither a change of government or of policies. A million dollar power plant on the banks of the Susquehanna river at York Haven, Pa., has just been started. It will furnish power and light for a number of near-by cities. There has been a great merger of traction lines in Ohio, and a mortgage authorized of $750,000.
A half million acres of land, now desert, are to be reclaimed in the Imperial Valley, in California. A gigantic station on the Connecticut river, at Greenfield, will feed the wires with power which will run all over two states. Many other similar enterprises might be noticed, all going to show that capital considers the future assured.

The supper given by the Ladies' Aid held at the home of Mrs. J. V.
Finkle was a great success, and the parties connected with it deserve great praise.
