Many of our town people attended the Forksville fair Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Ritter are attending the Milton fair this week.

Miss Dora Upmann of Eagles Mere is visiting her sister, Miss Agnes at this place.

Miss Mollie Keeler returned to New York City Saturday, accompanied by her father, Mr. T. J. Keeler.

Mr. Victor Lauer and family of Scranton, have returned home from their short visit with Mrs. M. C.
Lauer and family.

Atty. E. J. Mullen and wife started for St. Louis, Monday morning where they will enjoy the fair for several weeks.

With the material the Democratic party had in Sullivan and Wyoming counties it seems strange they should go to Wilkes Barre to get a candidate for Judge.

We would like to have Scouten explain why he put Sullivan county to the expense of a judicial contest ten years ago.

Ray F. Zaner, formerly of Ricketts, now has charge of the boys' department of the Y. M. C. A. work at Shyamokin.

John Minnier lost a valuable cow Tuesday, the result of eating too large a quantity of pumpace from a hand cider press.

Mr. and Mrs. Nickolas Holden of Philadelphia are visiting at the Rectory.

Miss Vinnie Eddy of this place spent the latter part of last week with friends and relatives at New Albany.

Quite a number from this place took in the excursion to the Niagra Falls Sunday, October 2nd.

The Rev. Eugene A. Heim is attending the General Convention at Boston after which he will spend a week at New York.

Misses Willo and Charlotte Miller returned to New York City Saturday after spending a few months with their father, Mr. F. P. Miller at this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Eilenberg of Laddsburg spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Covey at this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Burr Cowell are rejoicing over the arrival of a young son born Monday, October 3rd.

A. E. Tripp presented the editor with a pair of potatoes, each weighing 14 pounds, which are fair samples of the crops he raised on Thos.
Sheehan's farm in Laporte township.

In Scouten's last week's issue of the Herald he comes out with big head lines "Delayed Decisions." That the article is unfair and was meant to be unfair is shown by the first four cases on his list. The first case Karns vs Kirk was argued April 3, 1894 which was before Judge Dunham was nominated. The case was heard by Judge Sitzer and decision rendered by Judge Peck.
Judge Dunham was one of the attorneys in the case and could not hear it himself.

Case No. 2, Ira Sherman vs Chancy Hottenstein, was argued before Judge Sitzer, before Dunham was a candidate.

Case No. 3, Jacob Bahr vs Wm.
Whalen was argued before Judge Dunham came on the Bench, and was heard by Judge Savidge of Sunbury, who was called here by Judge Sitzer.

Case No. 4, David M. Taylor vs John R. Stevens was settled out of court. There are other cases in his list of the same stripe but it seems useless to bother with them. We think we have shown enough to let the people see that it is not information Scouten is trying to give but that he simply desires to poison the public mind against Judge Dunham.

Scouten complains about the expense Judge Dunham is making the State, but forgets to tell the people of the expense he (Scouten) made Sullivan and Wyoming Counties by starting the Judicial Contest. He forgets to remind the people of what great inconvenience he put them to by bringing them away from their employments and keeping them from two days to a week as witness.

For every witness who was compelled to come to LaPorte, no matter by whom subpoenaed was made to come here by Scouten's actions in getting up the contest. He made a big bluff.

Grange Field Meetings.
Hon. Aaron Jones, master of the national grange, has been addressing large grange meetings throughout Pennsylvania, New Jersey and the New England states this month and last. Five enthusiastic field meetings were held in Pennsylvania. The Order is growing very rapidly in that state—5,000 members have already been added since Jan. 1, and they expect to increase the membership 7,000 or 8,000 during the year. Hon. W. F.
Hill is master of the Pennsylvania state grange. The growth of the Order in New Jersey is also remarkable for the size of the state—1,500 new members have been added in the last six months, and the number will doubtless be doubled before the end of the year.

Massachusetts Patrons.
The Massachusetts state grange will run an excursion to the world's fair by special train on Oct. 4. The route will be over the Boston and Albany, New York Central, Lake Shore and Big Four railroads. They will be at the exposition eight days and on their return will stop off for a day at Niagra Falls. The cost of the trip, including all necessary expenses for twelve days, is $58 from Boston. They invite Patrons from the other states along the line of the route to join the party.
Charles D. Sage, North Brookfield, Mass., is in charge of the excursion.

Eight Thousand Farm Boys Compete.
Corn worth $10 an ear is exhibited in the Palace of Agriculture at the world's fair by Illinois. This corn was raised by 8,000 farmer boys of Illinois.
To each one of these boys were sent 500 grains of corn last year. Each boy grew his corn according to an outlined plan and sent ten ears each to be exhibited by the state. Premiums amounting to $3,500 have been offered upon this corn, and the boy winning first will receive $500. There's material in these Illinois boys for the making of good grangers.

Governor N. J. Bachelder of New Hampshire spent two weeks in August in New York state addressing meetings of grangers.

By order of the postoffice department each rural mail carrier must keep an account of the condition of the roads over which he travels and send in his report an accurate account of impassable places and how much attention the patrons along the route give to keeping the roads in passable condition.

There are now more than 200,000 miles of road used by the rural delivery of mails. This popular scheme of the government has been in vogue about nine years and is destined certainly soon to prevail in every township throughout the whole country.

"E-so-pus."
It is E-so-pus, with the accent on the "so," the village in a New York suburb where the news of Judge Parker's defeat at the polls will be received by private wire.—Keokuk Gate City.

Still Missing.
Talking of harmony, it is not yet recorded that Brother Bryan has called at Rosemount or sent a letter of congratulation to the judge.—Troy Times.

Life Insurance
A FEW OF THE MANY REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD HAVE A POLICY

WITH THE NEW YORK LIFE BECAUSE—Incontestable from the date of issue. Because—absolutely without restrictions. Because—non forfeitable from date of issue. Because—cash loans are provided after second year, on demand at 5 per cent interest without fee or other charge.
Because—if death does not occur an accumulative policy is a highly profitable investment for the policy-holder who lives.
Policies now maturing to living policy-holders prove this. In fact NEW YORK LIFE policies do not leak.
