County Seat
Local and Personal Events
 tersely told.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Funston accompanied their son, Mortimer to Philadelphia, where they will remain for the winter.

Rev. E. A. Heim spent Wednesday night at Dushore.

Mrs. J. G. Cowell of South Branch and Mrs. Lewis Cowell of Bernice visited Mr. and Mrs. Burr Cowell one day last week.

Mr. J. H. Gansel has gone to Plymouth, Pa., where he will be employed as a mason.

Miss Myrtle Bryan in company with Mr. and Mrs. William Fletcher of Eagles Mere, left Wednesday for the St. Louis Exposition.

Mr. Fred Miller left here Wednesday evening for New York City, where he will spend the winter with his daughters.

Mr. Mortimer Funston of Philadelphia visited LaPorte friends Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Eberlin of Ricketts are visiting his father, J. G. Eberlin at this place.

Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Covey spent last week with friends at New Albany.

Mrs. Chas. Camp of Weston and Mrs. George Stranger of Powell visited Mr. and Mrs. Will Camp at Sones Camp near Eagles Mere last week. The ladies enjoyed their trip but had a narrow escape from serious injury and perhaps death. The mills are located some two or three miles from Eagles Mere. On their return home the ladies thought to save the walk by riding out to Eagles Mere on the lumber cars.

They were riding on the second car from the engine which tipped completely over on its side of the track. The engineer, Joseph Wells, and his fireman, Shirsey Taylor, jumped from the engine in time to escape from the steam and so escaped others and perhaps fatal injuries. The ladies jumped from the cars and aside from a general shaking up were able to walk to Eagles Mere.

Samuel T. Ives died at his home in Muncy, on Monday of last week, in the 80th year of his age. The deceased, up until two weeks before his death, enjoyed good health and was very active for one of his age, when he was stricken with catarrhal peritonitis, death soon following. He was one of the most highly respected men of the community where he lived. Mr. Ives was the father of the well known lumbermen Edward and Walter, and Miss Anna Ives of Hillsgrove.

The first Quarterly Meeting of this conference year will occur at the Methodist-Episcopal Church at Forksville, November 12-13. Quarterly Conference will be held Saturday evening, and the regular Quarterly meeting services on Sunday morning. Presiding Elder J. W. Webb will have charge on both occasions.

It is a stupendous and overwhelming victory. There has been nothing like its extraordinary and magnificent proportions since the Grant whirlwind over Greely in 1872, and the popular majorities are far greater even than then. President Roosevelt carries every North-eastern state. He gains everywhere over even 1900 and 1896. He wins New York by 250,000, and that high water mark measures the rushing tide from the Atlantic to the Pacific. There has been no such sweep in any contested election in the history of the country. High as were Republican expectations this is astonishing in its monumental magnitude.

On this great tidal wave all the lesser objects are floated in. Congress is only second in importance, and it will show the largest Republican majority for many years.

Scouten as a politician is a failure. He pushed himself into the position of Chairman of the Democratic Committee of Sullivan county, and his record is a record of wrecks. His favorite candidates have all been defeated. In pity for them we will not mention their names.

As a candidate for President Judge he was a failure. He brought James W. Piatt into this county as his attorney; then got permission to use Piatt's name on license petitions; then he induced Piatt to become a candidate for judge. He then "by ways that were dark and by tricks that were bairn" obtained the nomination in this county and controlled the conferees. He then went back on Piatt and danced him around the circle from Dushore to Wilkesbarre, Tunkhannock and Towanda, all summer until Piatt and his friends openly declared that Scouten was not fit for the office and they would not support him, and offered to nominate Terry. Scouten was compelled to submit. He then promised Terry a majority of 300 in Sullivan county. He kept his newspaper hot with lies about Dunham and others until the election. He disgusted the masses of the Democratic party and the result is before us. He was overwhelmed with defeat in his own Borough, and routed "horse, foot and dragoon" in his own county, and for the first time in its history, Sullivan county gave the Republican National, State and County ticket a clean majority.

Terry was elected but he owes nothing to Scouten. Wyoming county elected him.

Scouten will long be remembered as the Bane of the Democracy in Sullivan County.

Last Friday evening William Brennan, of Minersville, Schuylkill Co., was taken to the Williamsport hospital, having been accidentally shot while hunting in the vicinity of Bernice, in this county. It appears that Brennan, in company with Charles Duffy, also of Minersville, had been out in that locality for several days in quest of game. While out Thursday afternoon a rabbit suddenly dounded up near where Brennan was standing, when Duffy quickly raised his gun and fired at the rabbit, but unfortunately his aim was inaccurate, a portion of the charge of his gun striking Brennan in the breast just above the heart, and the remaining portion entering the muscles of the left arm.

Duffy is an intimate friend of Brennan's and is sorely grieved over the unfortunate affair. They are both young men with many friends who deeply deplore the accident.

At the hospital the doctors probed for the shot, but failed to abstract all of them. The latest report from the hospital is that he is yet in a serious condition, but that the wounds are not necessarily fatal. Brennan's father has arrived and is at the bedside of his son.

The injured man is a prominent saloon keeper in the Anthracite region.

A Prominent Granger Dead.

Henry H. Goff, for twenty years secretary of the New York state grange, died recently. He was elected secretary in 1879 and was also secretary of the Monroe County Fire Insurance association for some time. He would have been eighty-three years of age Sept. 20.

The New England state fair offered, as an inducement to increase the attendance of members of the Order of Patrons of Husbandry, to give to the three granges outside of the city of Worcester that registered the greatest percentage of membership in the register at grange headquarters three premiums, value $30, $20 and $10.

The Patrons' Fire Relief association of Cortland, N. Y., has taken under its jurisdiction thirteen towns and a part of the city of Auburn. This company has outstanding policies to the amount of $2,050,000 at the present time. Their last year's assessment amounted to $1 on each thousand of insurance.

Same Old Hacks.

The Democratic campaign is in the hands of the old gang of political hacks for the most part, and where the new leaders are not of that stripe they are fine examples of insiders of trust interests. It is a highly impressive campaign that is opened on our vision. Buffalo News.

POMONA PROGRAMMES.

A Suggestion or Two That May Prove Helpful.

It is not an easy matter to prepare a good programme for the Pomona or county grange meeting. Where a one day session is held many things must be left unsaid that might very profitably be included in the programme. The Pomona is supposed to have the general oversight of the subordinate granges within the county, consequently reports of the conditions of these granges should not be omitted. These reports may be along different lines at different Pomona sessions, as, for instance, the needs of the subordinate granges, best use of lecture hour, how to increase membership, co-operation, etc. These reports summarized will usually be gladly used in the local paper, as the work of the grange in the county will be a matter of public interest.

From two or three programmes before us we make a combination and present below what may be termed a rather "stiff" order of exercises for a single day's session:
