Hempstead, Long Island, to spend the winter.

The Lutheran Ladies Society at Mildred, will hold a Thanksgiving supper November 24, in the K. of L. Hall, from 5 to 12 p. m. All are cordially invited to come and help the work along.

The home of Howard Stevens of Eagles Mere burned down on Monday morning of last week. This is the second time within two years that they have had this same misfortune.

A Lemon social will be held at Strawbridge Saturday, November 19, by the young ladies of Keldron Sunday School. Refreshments will be served and a name quilt offered to the highest bidder. Everyone invited to attend.

A large deer was killed along the Sack-between Laporte and Forks-ville last week by Jerry Haus' two sons, who were out hunting for small game.

Judge-elect Charles E. Terry and John G. Scouten were Laporte visitors Tuesday.

Mrs. Frank Hannon of Forksville, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. F.
W. Meylert, Friday night while on her way home from Clearfield, where she had been visiting.

George Manuel caught a large bear last week, near the farm formerly owned by Mr. S. Mead. He sold his game to butchers, Cott and Krause for $25.

M. E. Church Quarterly Conference will be held at this place Friday, Nov. 18th, at three o'clock P. M.
The presiding elder will be present.

Mr. George Shoemaker, after visiting his son, Wm. P. Shoemaker, has returned to his home at Cross Fork, Pa.

Miss Fannie Meylert returned home from Eagles Mere last Thursday, and on Friday morning started for Philadelphia where she will spend part of the winter.

The Herald wants to know who is Jennie Mathews. Confidentially we believe that Jennie must have been the person who struck Bob Mcmahon. And by the way, what was the exact majority that Buck got.

The Muncy Valley Farmers' Club at its last meeting decided that unless substantial support is forthcoming from the business men and citizens of Hughesville, no more fairs will be held here. The club is out of debt now, but the members feel that the risk is too great for them to assume alone when they reap practically none of the benefits.

Lloyd Mathews, who has been engaged in hauling lumber for C. W.
Sones, had the misfortune of injuring his hand in which blood poison set in and he was compelled to go to the Sayre hospital for treatment.

William Kennedy of this place and Superintendent McLaughlin of Bernice who have been engaged in a subscription contest for church benefits, in which a valuable diamond ring was given by Rev. J. A. Enright as a prize for the largest sum raised, closed their accounts this week. Mr.
McLaughlin won the prize, his sum exceeding $1,000, while Mr. Kennedy followed closely with over $800.

Goosebone Weather Prophet Elias Hartz has made his first prediction for the season, in which he foretells a severe winter, with great snow storms and a big ice crop. "The bone," he says, "is dark all the way through, and the winter of 1901-1905 will be severe. It will start in early in November, and we may expect very cold weather."

The great blizzard that swept over the country Sunday was keenly felt at this place where falling snow and the wind blowing furiously made the day almost to disagreeable for any one to venture out of doors.
Monday morning found the ground covered with about four inches of snow, and drifts on the side walks half as high as the fences.

Frederick M. Hunsinger, a son of Reuben Hunsinger, of Colley, died Saturday at the age of 19 years, of concussion of the brain. Mr. Hun-singer was working with a canthook which slipped from a log, throwing him backward over a bridge about eight feet, striking on his head. He lived two days after receiving the injury.

Scouten in his last week's issue of the Herald says that he predicted that Charles E. Terry would carry the district by 800 majority. He seems to forget that in his prediction he claimed 300 of the 800 in Sullivan county. Let him have the distinction of being a prognosticator—he certainly is not a successful chairman. In his campaign for the nomination for judge he claims that the Democratic chairman of ten years ago was inefficient because he did not carry the county for Judge Sitz-er. How much worse was his management when he did not elect a single candidate of his choice—not even a single elector, and a Sullivan county man of good standing on the ticket too. Well it is too bad to say it when a man is down but Scouten should not blow about his blind sight.
Now we will predict that Scouten will have to get off the band wagon and some better handler of the ribbons take his place. That the chairmanship of the Democratic party will not be his again and that in less than five years he will be out of the party and trying to manage the populist or some other 1st party. The Democratic party have had enough of him.

Two Men Compared.
Speaker Cannon neatly discriminates the issues when he says that Roosevelt has stood by the policy of the Republican party from first to last, while Parker has been against the system of protection and has voted for Bryanism, with its dangerous views regarding the currency.—Troy Times.

More Than Unsafe.
The chief objection urged against Theodore Roosevelt is that he is unsafe. He is more than that; he is positively dangerous to the success of the Democratic ticket.—Norwalk (O.) Reflector.
