It is singular that the woman who is too conscientious to read a Sunday newspaper will not scruple to lie about the price of butter and eggs.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jackson attended the funeral of Mrs. Jackson's grandmother, Mrs. Peter McDonald, at Cherry Mills, Sunday.

Messrs. J. W. Flynn, Thomas

Revival services will be conducted at the Baptist church, every evening of this and next week. The public is most cordially to come and take part in these services.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs.
Frank Snyder, who live about three miles from Laporte, died Wednesday Nov. 16, at 4 o'clock p. m., and was buried in Mt. Ash cemetery on Friday.

On Thursday of last week Mrs.
W. B. Ritter was called to Satterfield on account of the serious illness of her daughter, Mrs. Leo Wrede, who is much improved at this writing.

Rev. J. T. Bradford, formerly pastor of the Laporte Baptist church but now of Vilas, Pa., is assisting Rev. Fisher and Evangelist Wirts in the revival services now being conducted at the Baptist church. We are glad to note that Rev. Bradford has much improved in health since leaving Laporte.

Jerry Driscoll, a yard hand at the Laquin saw mill, while going from his work one day last week, fell from the dock about twelve feet, striking on a steel car, cutting his head and bruising himself very badly. He was very fortunate in not being killed.

On Tuesday evening about sixteen young friends and schoolmates of Harold Ritter assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Ritter, the occasion being the 16th anniversary of Harold's birth. The party came as a surprise, but the young host was equal to the occasion and soon had his guests enjoying themselves with various kinds of amusements. Splendid refreshments were served before the young people departed for their homes.

Henry Harding Esq., of Scranton, formerly a resident and prominent attorney of Tunkhannock, died very suddenly at his home in Scranton Thursday of last week, shortly after breakfast. He was born in Eaton township, Wyoming county, about 56 years ago. He studied law with ex-Judge Sittser and was admitted to the bar at August term 1874.

Scouten claims he is not a political failure because Judge Ingham carried Sullivan county in 1884 by 415 majority. Scouten was in 1884 the leading Democrat in the fight against Judge Ingham. True, Scouten got a terrible licking that year, but the Democrats carried the county on national, state and county ticket and Scouten was not chairman, he was only fighting Judge Ingham. Where he led the fight he was licked out of sight, where he did not lead the ticket won. This year he was Chairman, he had the whole matter in his hands, the Judge money, the Congress money and the county ticket money. Yet he has lost the whole thing. He is worse than the young doctor in the confinement case who congratulated himself that although both the mother and child were dead yet he pulled the old man through. Scouten has lost the old man too.

The outbreak of blackleg in Wyoming county appears at present to be under control, no cases having appeared for several weeks. During October several cattle died of this disease and many herds were vaccinated by order of the State Veterinarian. This vaccination produces an immunity for about one year.
