County Seat
Local and Personal Events
Tersely Told.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kraus, on April 10, a son.

Mrs. H. H. Spencer is visiting her son Harry and family in Williamsport.

Mr. Mortimer Funston of Philadelphia is visiting his parents here.

Mrs. R. A. Conklin is slightly improved from her serious illness.

The condition of Michael Donovan of Muncy Valley, who was stricken with paralysis several weeks ago, remains unchanged.

Mrs. J. W. Buck of Sonestown, is spending the week at the home of her aunt, Mrs. R. A. Conklin.

Mr. P. F. Miller returned from New York City Wednesday evening and opened his home on Muncy street where he will spend the summer.

A very impressive service called the "Seven Sayings upon the Cross" will be used in the Episcopal church on Good Friday evening.

There will be Easter services at the Methodist church next Sunday at ten o'clock a. m. Rev. F. P. Ripple will preach every Sunday hereafter.

Mr. Claud G. Shaffer and Miss Anastacia Jordan were united in marriage on April 16, by Rev. J. Olie Biggs of Sonestown.

Mrs. Caroline Streby, mother of Editor George Streby of Dushore, died at her home near Overton, April 13, at the age of 69 years. She was an earnest Christian woman, and will be mourned by a large circle of friends.

Jennings Bros. the former Lopez lumberman, have established a new place, called Jenningstown, in W. Va., where they own about 12,000 acres of fine timber which will be developed as soon as the mills can be erected. Scores of workmen are at work at the new place. They will light the town with electricity, will have sewerage and each company house will have a bath.

The several homes supported by the Odd Fellows throughout the State, for the care of widows and orphans of deceased Odd Fellows, have just been enriched to the extent of $31,592.96, representing the amount of per capita tax collected from the members for the care of these institutions. Of this amount the home near Sunbury will receive $8,502.67. There are at the present seventy-six children in this home.

Great preparations are being made by the Odd Fellows of Benton and vicinity for the holding of the 86th anniversary of the organization of the order of Odd Fellows in America, which will be held at that place on the 25th of the present month.

A well meaning preacher of the gospel reminded a newspaper editor, who was supposed to be possessed of large means, that "no rich man can enter the kingdom of heaven." That declaration of the scripture, replied quill pusher, does not trouble me in the least, because my delinquent subscribers have all my money.

The Easter service in the Episcopal church will take place at 3:30 in the afternoon. The choir under the direction of Mrs. E. M. Dunham, the organist, has prepared special music for the occasion. In connection with the Easter celebration the first anniversary of the choir will be observed. The following is the full program for next Sunday and a list of the members of the vested choir: Processional—We march to victory. Anthem—Welcome, happy morning Anthem—Christ is risen. Anthem—Alleluia, Christ is risen. Anthem—The day of resurrection. Offertory—Jesus Christ is risen today. Recessional—Lift up your voices now.

The members of the choir are: Rex Eddy, Oliver Rose, Harry Rose, Donald Ingham, Leo Breiger, Adda Ritter, Eva Shaffer, Helen Carpenter, Eva Stackhouse, Effie Gansel, Marguerite Crossley, Edith Maben, and Pearl Heim assisted by the Misses Jessie Wrede, Alma Lauer and Alice Brewster. At this service there will also be a baptism.

All About California.

All about California its resources, its opportunities, its wonderful climate and kindly soil. How to get there, how long it takes and what it costs via the Chicago Union Pacific & North-Western Line are all told-abundantly in booklets sent postpaid to any address for 4 cents in stamps. W. B. Kniskern, P. T. M., C. & N. W. Ry., Chicago.

There will be a social ball at the LaPorte Hotel, Monday evening, after Easter. A good time is assured to all attending.

The ladies of St. John's Guild will hold an Easter Social at the Mountain House, Wednesday evening April 26. Hot waffles and maple syrup, ice cream and cake will be served. All are invited.
