Rev. George H. Vibbert will give a Temperance Lecture in the evening of May 12th, at the Court House, at this place. Mr. Vibbert comes well recommended, come one, come all and hear a good lecture.

The man who failed to keep lent will now observe the penitential season—at least until he has paid for his wife's easter bonnet.

Proth. Thomas E. Kennedy and Atty. E. J. Mullen transacted business at Dushore Friday last.

Harry D. Ren and Miss Alta Fenner, both of Lopez, were united in the bonds of matrimony Saturday April 29th at 3:30 P. M. at the home of the brides parents by Rev. J. F. Hower of Dushore. Mr. B. C. Potter acted as groomsmen and Miss Maud Werkheiser as bridesmaid.

Lyle Grange, who has been jobbing near Forksville for a number of years for the Union Tanning Co., has accepted a position as foreman with C. W. Sones. Mr. Sones is doing an extensive lumbering business in Shrewsbury and Hillsgrove townships.

Dr. W. H. Randall has improved the appearance of his property on Main street by having a new board walk built in front of his house and drug store, and is also having some repairs made on the porch of his residence.

Heavy forest fires are raging in the mountains near Lopez and Ricketts. On Thursday morning section foreman, John Minnier with his crew of track men were ordered to the scene of the fire to help the men who were already battling with the flames.

A State Fish Warden who has been watching the streams in the vicinity of Ricketts and Melpoony creek, arrested a number of fishermen whom he found violating the fish laws, some by catching undersized trout and others catching more than the amount allotted to any one man. The aggregate fines of those arrested will amount to nearly $1000, of which $300 is said to have been the fines of one man.

The Williamsport Hospital has a patient, a foreigner, who is said to be suffering from cerebro spinal meningitis, or spotted fever.

Now that gardening time is here it is not always necessary to have new seeds. Lettuce and radish seed that is several years old will grow, beans will germinate if kept ten years, old tomato seeds will sprout and thrive. Old bean seeds can be planted with success. Planting old flower seeds is, however, a failure.

Fire of an incendiary origin destroyed two barns at Hughesville, Wednesday night of last week. Several horses were rescued with much difficulty from the burning buildings.

A long existence was brought to a sudden close Monday afternoon when Ulysses, the thirty-two year old horse owned by Judge Dunham, was led to his place of execution. His final resting place was prepared several days in advance and he walked to the "bone yard" with his executor, Atty. A. J. Bradley. Age had made him valueless for a number of years and his worn out organs, indigestion, poor sight and rheumatism made life to him scarcely worth living, so his end was mercifully designed and performed.

The President's curtailment of his hunting trip in order that he may return to Washington in time to consult the various railway men who will hold their international congress in the national capital is entirely characteristic of the man. Nearly 1,000 delegates will attend the Congress, representing 240 foreign and 67 American railroads. Thirty-five foreign nations will be represented at the congress. Consideration of this great gathering has convinced the President that there may be much information which will prove valuable to him in his campaign against railway evils to be gleaned from the delegates to this Congress, especially those coming from abroad where, in many instances, the railroads are managed on a plan which has proved more satisfactory to both shippers and consumers than is the case in this country. It only required that the President should become convinced that there was an opportunity to gain valuable information to lead him to abandon the trails and mountains which he loves so well and journey half way across the continent in time to be present at Washington during a part of the meeting.
