*Dr. Randall is improving the appearance of his house by dressing it in a new coat of paint.

Mrs. R. A. Conklin is still confined to her bed, but is slowly improving.

Mrs. Joseph Carpenter and son Henry attended the funeral of Mrs. Phillips at Sonestown, Sunday.

Hattie Schrader, Mary Flynn and Rex Pardy are victims of the measles.

The Valley Record is a new daily paper which made its appearance at Sayre this week. Joseph H. Murrelle is the owner and editor.

Carl V. Drake, reader, reciter and impersonator will give an entertainment in the Methodist church, Wednesday evening, May 17. Admission price ten and fifteen cents.

G. W. Meylert, Esq., of Brooklyn, N. Y., formerly, of California, is visiting his nephew, Atty. F. W. Meylert, at this place.

Mr. and Mrs. John Culver left here Monday, for Leetes Island, where they were called by the death of Mr. Culver's youngest brother.

It is said that farmers in some parts of York State, rather than sell their potatoes at present low prices, use them for fertilizing fields.

Roy and Tom Kennedy, sons of W. A. Kennedy, are enrolled as students at the parochial school under the care of the sisters of St. Francis, at Dushore.

A memorial sermon will be delivered in honor of the G. A. R. men, on Sunday, May 28, in the Methodist church at Sonestown.

Mr. Ellery P. Ingham and family have returned from New York City and are now settled in their lovely summer home in this borough.

Mrs. J. B. Doble and son Harold of New York City are guests at the Mountain House.

Miss Charlotte Miller returned from New York City last Saturday and joined her father and sister, Miss Willo Miller, who have been here for several weeks.

On Tuesday the two teams again wended their way to Athletic field to try their luck in another "pitched battle" in which the first nine succeeded in regaining their lost laurels by a score of 8 to 10.

Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Ingham who have spent the winter at Atlantic City, have returned to Eagles Mere and opened the Eagles Mere Hotel with a most promising outlook for the season of 1905. Eagles Mere is taking long strides forward each succeeding year and is now recognized as one of the leading mountain resorts in the State.

George W. Eckert, who was employed as bookkeeper at the Laporte tannery many years ago, with his wife and daughter are guest at the Mountain House. Mr. Eckert suffered a paralytic stroke about four months ago since which time he has been unable to speak and his one side is also partially paralyzed. He was assistant superintendent for the Standard Oil Co. when this misfortune befell him. He is here in the hopes that this climate may prove beneficial to his health.

Saturday opened the base ball season at Laporte with an interesting game played between the two home teams on the Athletic field, which resulted in a decided victory for the second nine, the team composed of boys still in their teens, some of whom some are not over fourteen years of age, and who were matched against their grown up brothers, the latter making a score of 6 while their small brothers had a score of 13 to their credit.

Dr. J. W. Murrelle of Athens will be in town May 18th, for one week. Those desiring his services please take notice. Leave calls at Mr. John L. Smyth's store or at the Mountain House.

James McDonald of Dushore, and Miss Anna McGee, of Costella, were married at the latter place, May 3. Both bride and groom were at one time teachers in the public schools of this county.

Mr. Leo Wrede who for several years has held the position of baggage master on the W. & N. B. railroad, has resigned and gone to Lebanon where he has secured a good position.

The financing of the N. Y. P. & S. W. railroad will be completed this week, the Binghamton Herald now says: All of the officers were busy on yesterday. Two parties were sent out yesterday morning. Both will locate at Montoursville and work in either direction revising the line under the direction of G. G. Barrows. Two corps have been located at Wyalusing to help the contracting firms near that village. Mr. Benz, one of the contracting parties says 70,000 ties, 5,000 telegraph poles and 60,000 fence posts have been prepared and are now ready to be delivered. The work of distributing this material will be commenced at once. Between Lawton and Wyalusing, located in the large forest of the northern part of Pennsylvania, he has already established two lumbering camps and these have been kept busy for the past three months. The ties and telegraph poles, nearly enough to cover the road from Wyalusing to Williamsport, are now awaiting delivery.

The Methodist church society of the hustling lumber town of Laquin is making plans to erect a handsome church. Rev. W. P. Miller, until recently the pastor at Burlington, is in charge. The Pennsylvania Lumber company has donated the lease of a site and will also give the lumber for a new church building. Incorporation papers will be secured at once and the work of the building pushed.

The Baptist society of Laquin have already commenced the erection of a church building on the same terms on the lot adjoining the one to be occupied by the Methodists.

With three years experience at publishing a country newspaper at less than the usual subscription price of $1.00 per year, the News Item finds it necessary to return to the former price, after date of this issue.

Frank Corcoran of Forks township and Miss Georgia Webster, daughter of Mr. John J. Webster of Estella, were united in marriage Monday, May 1st. Mr. and Mrs. Corcoran are popular young people in the western end of the county, and have the best wishes of the Item for a long and happy life.

The seventeenth commencement of the Forksville High School was held last week with a class of six young men: Lee Rosbach, Dean Rogers, Leon Stevens, Roy Smith, Roy Woodhead and Clarence Miller. Hon. Emerson Collins of Williamsport gave an address to the graduates.

You would hardly know the "Old Williams Block", as it is undergoing a thorough refitting. It is being painted and new porches added, and painted and papered inside; a new walk has been laid in front from the post-office to the bridge while the ground is being graded off in front. E. M. Letts, the proprietor believes that what is worth doing is worth doing well.—Sullivan Star.
