Ray Kessler, Jr. of Towanda, of the Reeser, Kessler, Wieland Co., and his brother Charles Kessler were in town yesterday. Mrs. Mercy Ella Boak, wife of Jas. K. Boak, who had been an invalid since March 11, 1902, at which time she was stricken by paralysis, died at her home at 1.30 Wednesday of last week at Hughesville, aged 57 years. Deceased had been entirely helpless for over three years, during the time everything was done to make life pleasant by a devoted husband and children.

A runaway accident occurred to a party of young people at this place Tuesday afternoon which resulted in quite serious injuries to Miss Emma Gallagher.

Robert Mason with his father's team hitched to a lumber wagon was on his way to the station for a load of freight. He was accompanied by Misses Emma Gallagher, Onie Mason, Mame Buck and Eugene McNeill. At the foot of Ingham Hill the clevis on one of the single-trees became detached causing the horses to run. By some accident Mr. Mason dropped one of the reins and the team ran uncontrolled to the foot of the hill opposite Mrs. E. E. Wrede's residence, here one of the horses fell and the wagon overturned throwing the occupants in the ditch. All were more or less bruised, but the injuries to Miss Gallagher were very painful.

A country editor worth robbing seems to be regarded by the fraternity as a man of mark. The Mount Carmel Item has this to say of one of these rare mortals: "Editor Joe Leshar, of the Selingsgrove Times, at one fell swoop rose to fame and distinction. One day last week he was robbed, and the thief secured from Joe's person a $150 gold watch and a pair of gold nose-glasses. Mr. Leshar is possibly the only editor in America who possessed a $150 gold watch."—Wyoming Democrat.

The signing of the child labor law by Governor Pennypacker will result in between three and four thousand boys, now at work in anthracite mines and breakers, being taken from work and sent to school. The bill forbids the employment of boys less than 16 years old in the mines, while 14 is the minimum legal age for outside employees. The present age limits are thus increased two years.

Albertson, was hard of hearing and did not hear the warning blast of the whistle.

C. W. Soncs' lumber railroad which will be known as the Susquehanna and Eagles Mere, is being extended to Hillsgrove Junction on the Susquehanna and New York railroad about ten miles from Raiston. It is expected that the new line will be in operation between Hillsgrove Junction and Eagles Mere by June 1. The road is twenty miles in length. This summer a combination coach will be carried on the freight trains. Eventually the road will do a regular passenger business, and 165,000, 000 feet of timber will reach a market on this line and over the Susquehanna and New York. Mr. Soncs intends to build a big saw mill at the Hillsgrove Junction.

H. M. Schoch, of Danville, member of the Board of Trustees for the Danville Insane Hospital, recently received a telegram from Representative R. S. Ammerman, of Montour, who is in Harrisburg, stating that he Hospital Appropriation bill had been signed by the Governor, although cut down $60,000. The amount the Hospital receives is $203, 600, which is practically all that was ever asked for, with the exception of the female infirmary.

The death of Associate Judge Wertz, of Midlin county, will open one of the hottest fights ever waged between the liquor and temperance elements in that county with President Judge Woods a temperance advocate, and perhaps a congenial associate, soon to be appointed. The two associate judges recently overruled Judge Woods in nine of the fourteen cases and granted the licenses, and the temperance people are trying to obtain control of the court by electing one of their advocates.

It was thought that some explosive became mixed with the fuel which he used to kindle the fire.

The Trademark.

American owners of trademarks have a right to complain of their unjust treatment in Cuba, where the old Spanish law on the subject still prevails. Any one who first registers a trademark there gets the benefit of it, and there is no benefit unless registered. Cubans of an unscrupulous character register well known American trademarks as their own and thus get the benefit of them. That is wrong, and our government should enter a protest against its continuance.—Philadelphia Press.

A Line to Follow.

If President Roosevelt can persuade the party whose head he is to follow the line he lays down, the race problem, freed from sectional or political complications, can be brought to a satisfactory settlement far sooner than we had hoped for and with far less friction.—New Orleans Times-Democrat.
